Happenings.

Oretown Offerings

Andy Commons is supplying Little and Big Nestucca with seed oats this spring

C. Christensen is journeying some where east of Baker City, working his gold separating machine.

Mr. Atterberry of Sherwood has purchased a part of the Upton place, and will soon move his family into the house lately occupied by V.
Sutton.

Oscar Faulconer was in from Dolph last week
trying to buy cattle.

Tramps are a scarcity in these parts, but a typical one found his way here last week. He was almost devoid of clothing. His few possessions in the shape of a black tin tea pot and a small sprinkling of tea, were tied up in the end of coat sleeve, the remainder of the coat being past recognition. He claimed to have come from Utah and was on his way to California.
When we saw him coming, we wished we had a Kodak.

Glenora Gleanings.

Warm weather has prevailed of late. The thermometer reaching 50.

Every one is making garden this week.

The Herald should secure a more voracious correspondent from Wilson. His statement in regard to "all the ranchers are out of hay except W. Smith" is a misstatement. Mr. Stanley and Mr. Reher, have not been out of hay this winter and have considerable on hand at present.

The Telephone Co. has established an office at J. F. Reher's residence. It is a pleasure to know that Glenora is connected with the outside world.

Mr. Stanley and Mr. Reher will go to Oregon City Wednesday, on business connected with the land office.

The pupils celebrated Arbor Day by putting the school grounds in order. They also had some readings and recitations, but no visitors were present, as every one was busy gardening.

Woods Wavelets.

(FROM THE OCEAN WAVE)

Chas. Gibbons is making a trip to Tillamook this week.

Miss Wolf will commence school at Beaver Monday.

The saw mill is turning out lumber this week
for Chas. Ray's cheese factory.

Miss Mills, of McMinnville, commenced school
Monday in the Hebo district.

Mr. and Mrs. Lucy made a trip to Little Nestucca last week, returning Monday.

The farmers of Little Nestucca are all actively engaged in putting in their gardens, sowing their grain, and using their spare time improving their farms. Little Nestucca is destined to be one of the best dairying districts

Hebo Happenings.

Noah Hill has contracted to carry the mail for Frank Wallace, from Hebo to Grand Round.

Mr. Dave Pierce made a trip to Dolph last week.

G. W. Rhodes and R. W. Rowley left for the valley where they have some work to do.

Quite an interesting discussion of the transportation question has arisen, and is being carried on through the columns of the Ocean Wave.

Bay City Breezes.

Miss Ida Worthington is home from Cape
Mearns.

Miss Mina Long has returned home from Tillamook.

Mrs. Smith arrived on the Harrison Monday.

School is progressing finely under Professor Smith's management.

Mr. O. Young has gone to Portland to buy
his spring stock.

G. W. Kiger has gone to Salem on a business trip.

Chas. Lee Fuller of Garibaldi has gone to Salem
to attend school.

Alex Campbell's son was among the passengers on the last trip of the Truckee. He had not been home on a visit before for a number of years.

Emma Items.

The weather was fine last week. Summer
will soon be here.

Joe Altenberger made a trip to Portland this
week.

Joe Altenberger has been setting out fruit trees
lately.

The settlers are about all through with their planting, and all rejoice to see the grass grow.

South Prairie Siftings

Oh! Spring, sweet spring,
Dear beautiful spring,
An equal to spring,
There is no such a
Well-a thing!
Let's quit.

In Mrs. Lena Lyster, school District No. 2 has found an excellent clerk.

John Maroff is threshing his seed oats, his threshing, "The Great Western Cyclone," is doing fair work.

Lyman Lamb is home again, sporting a diploma from the San Francisco Business College. He reports business men of the Bay City as very conservative, but a decided brightening up of the lumber market there.

Mr. Lein Henderson contemplates leaving us soon, will remove either to California or Kansas.
There is going to be a small exodus from here to the Golden State this summer.
