The winter is over, but the lessons that it taught our farmers should not be forgotten. Amongst the lessons that particularly need to be remembered is that of making more careful provision for winter feed for cattle. Some of our farmers should either sell off some of their stock, clear up more grass land, or raise more hay on land already cleared. A recurrence of the suffering of last winter must not be allowed.

Tillamook County is the best potato country in the world—and yet last year we imported quite a large quantity of potatoes, and that proves that some of our farmers are either woefully short sighted or infernally lazy. Tillamook County has no more business to import potatoes than she would have to import fir, spruce or hemlock lumber. Let us plant more potatoes, and nature will do the rest.

Persons who have been dynamiting the troutstreams of this County will do well to beware this year, as a determined effort will be made by the local sportsmen's club, and others to bring offenders to justice. Dynamiting trout aside from being utterly unsportsmanlike, is a wicked waste of trout life, as it destroys all, big and little. We have laws in this subject, and the time has come when we they should and must be regarded.

A small quantity of flax seed has been sent to Cohn & Co. for free distribution to farmers who are willing to experiment with it. The seed is presented by Robert Stewart & Son, wealthy manufacturers of flax fabrics in Lisbon Ireland. The high duty on that class of goods will render it impossible henceforth to import with profit, and hence they propose to encourage farmers to grow flax in the United States, and to establish mills here. There is no reason why Oregon should not make an effort to share in the profits that will attend the new industry, and it is important that we ascertain whether or not Tillamook County is adapted to flax culture.

Whatever sympathy the republicans may have had with their erring free silver brethren, will be entirely destroyed by the fact that whatever opportunity has offered of late they have joined with the democrats and populists in hindering reform legislation. A recent dispatch states that Senator Pettigrew of S. D. has allied himself to the populists, and by so doing rendered it probably impossible to get the new tariff bill into the President's hands before August. It begins to look as though the so-called "free silver" republicans are simply traitors to true republican principles who have not courage enough to go openly, over to the enemy.

The Cubans in their struggle for freedom are making sure but steady progress. All reports of the pacification of the Island come from Spanish sources, and are utterly false. The patriots are wisely refraining from risking too much in a general engagement, and conducting the war in the way in which small forces operating against larger forces are most likely to be successful. The Spanish Treasury is empty. Spain has exhausted all possible resources, and borrowed right and left until she can borrow no more. Already quite a number of her soldiers (upwards of 40,000) have been recalled from Cuba, and the rest will be compelled in time to follow. Cuba will be free within a couple of years beyond a doubt.

Senator Allison, who is a member of the sub-committee engaged in going over the Dingley bill before it is reported to the full Finance Committee—by the way, this sub-committee is not taking a holiday either night or day this week—gave a caller a good idea of the manner in which the work of revision is being done, when he said: "Here is a letter from a manufacturer of blacking. How many ingredients do you suppose there are that enter into its manufacture? Well, more than a dozen. Some of these ingredients have been transferred from the free to the dutiable list. Some have had the rates increased and some decreased. Each article has a direct bearing on this man's business. He writes us that blacking is sold in packages of a certain size, which cannot well be varied; also that most of the blacking is imported from France, and that the industry in this country is in its infancy, but is making fair progress. If we retain the House rates on certain ingredients he mentions, he asks that we also make a small increase on blacking and I suggests that it will be easier to do this than to change the rates on the dozen articles which enter into his product. His request does not seem unreasonable, does it, if the facts are as he states? Well, we have looked into the rates on every one of the ingredients mentioned and their bearings on his product, and find his statement correct. That is the way we are doing on the tariff bill, and I think it is better than to do this man an injustice, and possibly give his business to the French manufacturers." The sub-committee expect to complete its work on the bill this week, and it is hoped that the bill can be reported to the Senate next week. —Cor.

According to the newspapers, an Ohio husband became the happy father of seven children not long ago. Of the seven all lived but one. It is hoped he laid in a good supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, the only sure cure for croup, whooping-cough, colds and coughs, and so insured his children against these diseases. For sale by S. J. Sturgeon.

"It is the best in the world." That is what Edwards & Parker, merchants of Plain, Ga., say of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, for rheumatism, lame back, deep seated and muscular pains. Sold by S. J. Sturgeon.

The Best Remedy for Rheumatism. From the Fairhaven (N. Y.) Register.

Mr. James Rowland of this village, states that for 25 years his wife has been a sufferer from rheumatism. A few nights ago she was in such pain that she was nearly crazy. She sent Mr. Rowland for the doctor, but he had read of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and instead of going for the physician he went to the store and secured a bottle of it. His wife did not approve of his purchase at first, but nevertheless applied the Balm thoroughly, and in an hour's time was able to go to sleep. She now applies it whenever she feels an ache or a pain, and finds that it always gives relief. He says that no medicine which she had ever used did as much good. The 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by S. J. Sturgeon.

Notice to Taxpayers. The law requires that each male between the ages of 21 and 50 years living within the county shall pay a poll tax of one dollar ($1) at the time of assessment, and if not so paid, to be reported to the sheriff of the county, with added costs, for collection, at once. The law allows no exemption for poll tax, except to active members of the Oregon National Guard, and all active firemen who have been members of any company, for one year next preceding the time of assessment, and exempt firemen. That there may be no cause for complaint I ask that each person liable to poll tax be prepared to pay the same to the assessor, or his deputy, at the time of making the assessment. I ask the aid of every person in the county, that the law may be strictly complied with. Persons exempt will be required to show their certificate of exemption.

crossing the legs on the front of the plate place the wings and dark meat at the sides; the back and breast on top. Dish your chicken each time in the same manner, so the carver may know exactly where to find the dark and the light meat. Take the sauce from the fire, add to it the yolk of an egg, beaten with two tablespoonfuls of cream; strain this over the chicken. Garnish the dish with crescents of fried bread, dust over a little finely-chopped parsley, and send to the table.—Mrs. S. T. Rorer in May Ladies Home Journal.

The man who eats because he is hungry is thus far, on a level with the brutes. The man who stops eating the moment his hunger is appeased is the wise man. Nature needs no more food than she calls for. Continued excess brings about indigestion or dyspepsia, with loss of flesh, strength, sleep, ambition and mental power, and an accumulation of aches, pains and many dangerous local maladies.
The stomach now can do nothing alone. We must appeal to artificially digested food which can also digest other foods. That is to say, we must use the Shaker Digestive Cordial. The chronic pain and distress ceases. Appetite presently revives. Flesh and vigor gradually comes back, and the sufferer recovers. But he must be careful in future. A trial bottle for 10 cts. Laxol is the best medicine for children. Doctors recommend it in place of Castor Oil.
