When you want blasting or giant powder, the place to get it is of W. H. Cary, who will furnish it to you on short notice.

Dr. J. O. Kelly has recovered from his illness, and is prepared for all professional calls, day or night.

A marriage license was issued yesterday to James Williams and Bertha Ackley. At the time of going to press the ceremony had not yet been performed.

"The cheapest place to buy ever seen in Till mook" is what everybody says of the New Racket Store. Come and see for yourself.—Elite Fotograf Building. tf

La Sinceridad clear Havana cigars at Lamb's.

The County Clerk was the first to pay his dog license, and got No. 1 tag, and license. Pay your licenses, for the Marshal will soon begin to kill dogs.

Any person having a tract of land for sale, located somewhere within 5 or 6 miles of this city, will do well to inquire at once at the residence of Casper Schlappi on South Prairie. Bottom land preferred. Satisfactory terms will be made.

The S. D. A. church has been furnished with new seats and a shamrock pulpit. Rev. B. F. Durfee will occupy the pulpit Sunday evening at 8 o'clock. No collection taken up. Subject, the Resurrection of the Dead.

Mr. Bills has opened up a choice stock of notions, school supplies, stationery, etc. in the front part of the Elite Fotograf Building, and is selling everything remarkably cheap.

The many friends of Claude Thayer were delighted to see him on the streets again after a long illness. Mr. Thayer made the HEADLIGHT office a very pleasant call, and then proceeded down town as far as the Bank. We trust his recovery may soon be complete.

Fred Stoddard, a former resident of this place, will be in town in a few days. Mr. Stoddard is in the employ of the Singer Sewing Machine Manufacturing Co. of Portland, and will canvass this county in their interest.

Dr. Tatom, the dentist, was in town for a couple of days this week. He came here merely to visit some friends, but did considerable work for people who learned of his presence, and who happened to be suffering from aching molars.

On Friday evening, May 28th, a Grand Opening Ball will be given at the New Opera House by Prof. Hughes. The music will be furnished by Handley's Orchestra. The opera house is now practically finished. The ceiling is plastered, the carpenter work done and the floor is in first class condition for dancing. Don't fail to come and enjoy a good time.

Mrs. Waldvogel is prepared to do first class work in making rag carpet and rugs of all kinds and patterns. Prices are as follows: bit or miss 12½ cts per yd., stripes, 15c per yd. Parties to furnish their own materials. Call and see her and examine samples of work that she has on hand at present. The work is unusually fine.

The funeral of Orville, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Barker, took place from the M. E. Church last Tuesday. The child took sick at Nehalem where Mrs. Barker was visiting some friends. Mr. Barker was hastily summoned, and when he arrived found it necessary to bring the little one immediately to Tillamook for treatment. But the disease (cholera infantum) had too firm a hold, and on Sunday night the child died. Mr. and Mrs. Barker have the sympathy of all in their affliction.

Appreciated

Fairview, May 19th 1897

Editor HEADLIGHT:

The masterly address of Hon. T. B. Handley Esq., made at Fairview Hall last Sunday morning in the interests of secularism was highly appreciated by his delighted auditors. The superstitions of the ages crumbled at his touch, and the intellectuality of each one was stimulated and encouraged.

H. Gesser, of Spruce Ore., was in town yesterday. He is an excellent painter and paper hanger, and has done considerable work here in town. Any one desiring work in his line will find him a fine mechanic.

An effort is being made by Eddy, and Caples assisted by prominent local business men to secure a re-rating of the town in insurance matters. The new water system has reduced danger from fire to a minimum, and our people should have the benefit of this greater security in the rates paid for insurance.

A sad accident occurred Tuesday to the little son of S. O. Wickland. The latter was engaged in hauling gravel for the roads, and the boy was tending brake. On coming down a little incline north of town near the Brown place, the boy tried to apply the brake, but for some reason it broke throwing him down between the wheels, and one of the hind wheels passed completely over his body. He was immediately brought to town, and a physician sent for who found three ribs broken and other internal injuries. At last accounts, the boy was doing well, and hopes are entertained of his recovery.

Bay City.

Miss Althea Long paid Bay City a visit last week.

Wm. Hayes and Alfred Bigelow have made final proof on their homesteads.

Mrs. Brandenberg and daughter were passengers out on the Str. Elmore.

The many friends of Miss Della Oakes rejoice to hear that she was so successful in the examination.

J. T. Nevins returned Sunday via North Yamhill. He reports that Mrs. Nevins has been gaining strength very rapidly since the operation.

John Nelson is enjoying the fine weather. He practices every day and is becoming quite proficient with the wheel.

Mr. Bewley has gone to seek his fortune in some mining country. He intends to visit Southern Oregon and Northern California.

Mrs. C. C. Babbidge and Alice Jennings were among the passengers on the Elmore. Miss Jennings has been attending school in Portland.

Messrs. Frank Long and Alfred Dean were passengers on the last trip of the Elmore. Mr. Dean goes to represent Pacific Lodge, at the Grand Lodge.

Maurice Leach is building a tram-road over the old skid road. It will enable them to handle more logs with less expense.

The followers of Isaac Walton are out in force this month. Several loads passed through our berg last week, while our citizens are frequently seen preparing for a day along the bank of some shady stream where fish are supposed to abound.

At the special school meeting held Monday, Alex Finlayson was elected director and C. H. Hicks, Clerk.

A very unusual occurence for Bay City, and one which might have proved serious, occurred last Sunday morning. While Mr. Roberts was waiting for the mail, a dog bit his horse causing it to run away. Mrs. Tuttle and children were seated in their buggy in front of Mr. Long's store waiting for Mr. Tuttle. In the excitement her horse became unmanageable and ran away also. Before the horses were finally controlled, Mrs. Tuttle and children were thrown out but not seriously hurt. Mr. Young lost part of his porch, both rigs were damaged and both horses slightly lamed. It seemed almost a miracle that no one was injured.
