Judge Gibbons, of Illinois, has declared the American Tobacco Co. an illegal combination which cannot do business in that state. President Havemeyer, of the sugar trust is in a fair way of going to jail for refusing to divulge the names of the public officials whom he bribed, and war has been declared in earnest on the coal trust. It certainly begins to look kind of squally for trusts, in general.

If the barbarous custom of burying the dead were done away with and the sanitary and sensible plan of cremating the dead generally adopted, grave robbing would of necessity cease to exist, and with this, ghoulish business would vanish all the other numerous evils resulting from that primitive and crude method of disposing of poisonous and decaying animal matter.

The democrats are once more howling against piling up a surplus in the treasury. They seem to forget that the treasury balance is not gold but redeemed notes. However the fact that for the last 32 months up to March of this year there have been monthly deficiencies from customs, receipts ranging from $4,305,090 up, while under republican control matters were reversed, and the surplus receipts ranged from 5,740,038 to $9,000,000, is enough to make them howl.

What still keeps up at 75 to 77c per bushel while silver has tumbled lower and lower. That prosperity is surely coming back to the country is evinced by the starting up of factories, and the increased employment of labor. Custom house receipts also are vastly increasing, and every prospect is brightening. What will Billy Bryan have left to talk about if things keep going on in this way much longer.

Memorial Day is a day on which the hearts of the American people are filled with mingled sorrow and gladness—Sorrow when they remember the suffering and death of the noble heroes who so freely sacrificed their lives for the good of their country, and gladness that their sacrifice was not in vain. The country for which they fought and died stands today one and undivided. Each passing year demonstrates the wisdom of the North in making the fearful struggle it did to maintain the Union, and each year proves more and more conclusively that the Union so preserved is not merely a name, but a reality that will endure as long as the nation's life. It stands today happy and united. No unanched hand lifts itself to heaven in vain, for all are free; no slave bows his neck beneath a masters yoke, for all are equal; and none raises his hand against the nation's life, for all dwell in contentment. And all this we owe to those whose graves on last memorial day we strewed with flowers, fit emblems of eternal remembrance.

To Our Correspondents.

The HEADLIGHT feels that it has cause for self congratulation on account of its regular corps of efficient correspondents, and has only this suggestion to make mail your copy so as to reach this office not later than Tuesday evening. The last side of the HEADLIGHT goes to press on Wednesday afternoon, and matter arriving at that time can not possibly be inserted until the following week when it is of little value.

To occasional correspondents we would say that we value contributions very highly, and we have only this stipulation to make, and on this we must insist that they avoid all personalities. The Editor of the HEADLIGHT has no taste for spleen and carion, and our readers have as little as we. We have inserted a few things against our better judgement, but we must draw the line. The official acts or public utterances of any person are proper subjects for criticism, but not their private characters. Correspondents will please bear this in mind.

Gents:—

In regard to the EMPIRE "25" No. 6010, brought here from Warren Centre, Pa., will say that it has proven satisfactory to me. It runs light and steady and skims as close as any machine I have ever run. Have never found to exceed 1-10 of 1 per cent of fat in the skim milk, even at the end of long runs and hardly ever more than a trace. Think you have got the oil down fine in this machine.

The young women of Crown Point, Ind., have formed a "Marriageable Ladies' League," based on the resolution to adjure matrimony unless the male suitor is a patron of his home newspaper. For, otherwise, the league's constitution declares "it is strong evidence of a want of intelligence, and he will prove too stingy to provide for his family, educate his children, and encourage institutions of learning in the community." These young women have the right idea, but what if there are two or more newspapers? Must the woeer patronize them all in order to be sure he is subscribing for the "home newspaper."

Hundreds of thousands have been induced to try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy by reading what it has done for others, and having tested its merits for themselves are today its warmest friends.

Mr. Isaac Horner, proprietor of the Burton House, Burton, W. V., and one of the most widely known men in the state was cured of rheumatism after three years of suffering. He says: "I have not sufficient command of language to convey an idea of what I suffered, my physicians told me that nothing could be done for me and my friends were fully convinced that nothing but death would relieve me of my suffering. In June, 1894, Mr. Evans, then salesman for the Wheeling Drug Co., recommended Chamberlain's Pain Balm. At this time my foot and limb were swollen to more than double their normal size and it seemed to me my leg would burst, but soon after I began using the Pain Balm the swelling began to decrease, the pain to leave and now I consider that I am entirely cured. For sale by S. J. Sturgeon.
