America. My country 'tis of thee, Sweet land of liberty, Of thee I sing; Land where my fathers died! Land of the Pilgrim's pride! From every mountain side Let freedom ring! My native country, thee— Land of the noble free— Thy name I love; I love thy rocks and rills, Thy woods and templed hills: My heart with rapture thrills Like that above. Let music swell the breeze, And ring from all the trees Sweet freedom's song; Let mortal tongues awake; Let all that breathe partake; Let rocks their silence break— The sound prolong. Our fathers' God! to thee, Author of liberty, To thee we sing: Long may our land be bright With freedom's holy light; Protect us by thy might, Great God, our King.

Red White and Blue O Columbia! the gem of the ocean, The home of the brave and the free, The shrine of each patriot's devotion, A world offers homage to thee. Thy mandates make heroes assemble, When Liberty's form stands in view, Thy banners make tyranny tremble, When borne by the red, white and blue. When war waged its wide desolation, And threatened the land to deform, The ark then of freedom's foundation, Columbia, rode safe through the storm; With her garlands of victory around her, When so proudly she bore her brave crew, With her flag proudly floating before her, The boast of the red, white and blue.

The Union, the Union forever, Our glorious nation's sweet hymn, May the wreaths she has won never wither, May the stars of their glory grow dim! May they to their colors prove true! The Army and Navy forever, Three cheers for the red, white and blue. Three cheers for the red etc. etc.

"As you see," said the mendicant cripple to the stater-of-fact clerk at the advertising window, "I have lost an arm, and—" "Ah, yes!" and the clerk, "Our rates for ads under the heading of 'Lost' are twenty-five cents a line, and you—" But the cripple started toward the door, muttering,—Our Silent Partner.

Question. What is the difference between an infidel and an ignorant christian bigot. Answer—An infidel demands the authenticity of the bible and the word of God. An ignorant man is a person who is devoid of reason, a man who is insulting and repulsive in conversation. Such pusillanimous creatures and repulsive, and are more to pitied than censured. Free Thinker

The Shakers have made a great hit. Their Digestive Cordial is said to be the most successful remedy for stomach troubles ever introduced. It immediately relieves all pain and distress after eating, builds up the feeble system and makes the weak strong. The fact is, foods properly digested are better than so-called tonics. Cordial not only contains food already digested, but is a digester of other foods. Food that is not digested does more harm than good. People who use the Cordial insure the digestion of what food they can eat, and in this way get the benefit of it and grow strong.

The little pamphlets which the Shakers have sent druggists for free distribution, contain much interesting information on the subject of dyspepsia. Laxol is not a mixture of drugs. It is nothing but Casto. Oil made palatable.

Butcher—I need a boy about your size, and will give you twelve shillings a week. Applicant—Will I have a chance to rise? Butcher—Yes; I want you to be here at 4 o'clock in the morning.

Judge—You are charged with carrying concealed weapons. "It is all a mistake, your honor. You see I had a pair of old pistols that I shoved into my pocket to illustrate a very clever pun I recently worked up. I get the boys to talk about balloons, and then I say my life was once saved by parachutes. When they give me the laugh, I draw out the pistols—pair-o'-shoots, you understand? Ha, ha, ha!" "Did you invent that?" "Yes, your honor!" "Thirty days"—Ex.
