On another page of this issue is the new advertisement of Mr. Page of the second hand store. Mr. Page buys and sells all kinds of articles, and his place finds a large patronage.

Mrs. C. E. Reynolds returned on Monday, via Forest Grove from a visit to relatives and friends in Pierce County Wisconsin. She came over the Northern Pacific and reports having had a very pleasant time.

Pay up your subscriptions, and you can get the HEADLIGHT for one year for 75 cts. if paid in advance.

Rev. W. H. Mills of Beaver delivered a lecture at the Tillamook M. E. Church last Sunday evening. Mr. Mills had a large audience of delighted hearers, all of whom pronounce his Sunday evening sermon an able and powerful effort.

If you want something nice for the floor of your store building or dining room, or any uncarpeted room that requires a weeping try "Dustine." This article is a oil that prevents dust from raising in front of the broom, and does away with the necessity of sprinkling. For sale at C. E. Reynolds.

The HEADLIGHT has been doing some handsome poster work lately. Some handsome fonts of large poster type have been added to our stock. If you need anything in the poster line call and see our samples. The HEADLIGHT office is the only place in the county where such work can be done.

In another column appears a notice of the marriage of Louis Jacobson, the well known contractor, to Miss Evelyn Barnard, daughter of O. W. Barnard, of this city. Mr. Jacobson has made many friends during his residence in this city, and heard his lovely bride, who has always been most highly esteemed here, will bear with them the good wishes of all. The HEADLIGHT extends congratulations. The young couple left on the 6 o'clock stage for Portland.

M. W. Decker, President of the General Conference of the Seventh Day Adventist, will hold meetings here in the S. D. A. church commencing at 7:30 in the evening of Friday, June 25th 1897. All are cordially invited.

Who painted Larsen's dog? That is the great question now agitating society. On Monday night the poor brute received a liberal coat of paint. The colors, red, white and black, would seem to indicate an effort to change the dog's nationality, and make him a subject of Emperor William. Whoever did the job, it was a mean trick.

Miss Bell May, daughter of Dr. W. J. May, acted as pianist during the engagement of the Readick Theatrical Company in this city. Miss May, for one of her years, is an accomplished musician and she won many golden opinions by her excellent performance on the piano.

$1000.00

to be divided among the-----?-----of the missing word.

FINDERS is the answer.

Schilling's Best tea is not only pure but it is-----?-----because it is fresh-roasted.

What is the missing word?

Get Schilling's Best tea at your grocer's; take out the Yellow Ticket (there is one in every package); send it with your guess to address below before August 31st.

One word allowed for every yellow ticket. If your ticket (or tickets) reaches us before July 1st, you are entitled to two words for each ticket.

If only one person finds the word, he gets one thousand dollars. If several find it, the money will be divided equally among them.

Every one sending a yellow ticket will get a set of cardboard creeping babies at the end of the contest. Those sending three or more in one envelope will receive a charming 1898 calendar, no advertisement on it.

Besides this thousand dollars, we will pay $150 each to the two persons who send in the largest number of yellow tickets in one envelope between June 15 and the end of the contest—August 31st.

Cut this out. You won't see it again for two weeks.

Address: SCHILLING'S BEST TEA SAN FRANCISCO.

COUNTY ITEMS.

GATHERED BY OUR CORRESPONDENTS.

A Brief Glimpse at Last Weeks Happenings.

Woods

(FROM THE OCEAN WAVE)

Mr. R. H. Homes celebrated his 67th birthday last week; several were present.

Leonard Krebs came in to Little Nestucca last Thursday with some new machinery for their mill at that place.

Mr. Harris, who lives between Sand Lake and Netarts, was in town last Friday purchasing bee fixtures.

Mrs. Cap. Crim, who has spent most of the winter in Portland, passed through Woods on her way to Salmon river, last Sunday. Cap. Crim has a very nice place there, and contemplates putting in a store at that place soon.

Nehalem

(From the Nehalem Times.)

R. Krebs is enlarging his mill somewhat and is putting in a cut-off saw and an edger saw. He is using a system of rope transmission for driving all the light machinery about the mill.

Wm. Luce received a full kit of blacksmith's tools from Portland on the last steamer. We understand he will open up a shop, and will do custom work from the headwaters to the mouth of the Nehalem.

Lundry Bros. have purchased the property formerly occupied by J. B. Pape & Co's saloon and G. W. Fearnside has purchased the property in which he has been doing business ever since he came to Nehalem. Both parties are contemplating extensive improvements to their property.

M. S. Buchanan is hauling out stove bolts at Olsen's camp.

Edw. G. Wist was a passenger out on the Harrison.

Mrs. Herman Tohl returned Sunday from Astoria where she has been visiting her daughter for the past few weeks.

South Prairie.

O. B. Lawrence one of our war veterans has been away attending the reunion at Independence, and reports, barring the rain, a good time.

Miss L. M. Mann's school in Dist. No. 2 close next Friday with appropriate exercises. The Lysters kindly volunteering the music for the occasion.

Supervisor Dailey has been doing some good work on the prairie recently. The road is now pretty well thrown up the length of the prairie, to be followed by graveling later. May the good work continue.

We are not a Briton, neither do we altogether admire England's treatment of the Irish question, but we do feel like hurrahing, on the 20th, for the widow Victoria, the greatest queen that the world has yet known. Let 'em shout whenever they feel like it.

Hebo

The recent rains have made the roads quite muddy.

The campers season has arrived: and numbers of them pass daily, going both to and from the coast.

We have been informed that some of the hay on the Big Nestucca is ready to cut if the weather was suitable.

There has been several days work done on the road survey, from the Kellow place to the bridge site, during the past week.

While they are making a good road, it is evident that they are taking the long way of doing so. We, (or any other sensible man) are bound to say that, with the aid of a few teams the road which is now half done, would have been completed. "Road worker"

Sand Lake

The Sunday School Picnic was a failure on account of the bad weather. Quite a few came out from Hebo, not knowing how the day was on the beach.

The road from Hebroe to Suruce is now in better condition than it has ever been.

Some good work is being done on the Chamberlain road to the cape.

Some wild animals have been taking a number of sheep from Mr. Hebroe, and entered Mr. Murphy's yard, and carried off a calf. There are hunters, trappers and stricaine in search of the varmint.

C. H. Co's will soon be here for buying.

Bay City

Campers are beginning to arrive. Mr. Williams from Salem was in town this week.

C. H. Hicks and Gus, Nelson have returned from Portland where they have been in attendance at the Masonic Grand Lodge.

Those Nice Theatre Programmes

was printed at the office of the Tillamook Headlight, the only job office in the county equipped for good work. A large assortment of nice new type, ornaments, rules, etc. and a job printer who thoroughly understands all the branches of his business, makes this one of the best job offices in Oregon.

The Headlight.

Oretown

The Krebs brothers are kept quite busy running the Little Nestucca saw-mill.

Nearly ever man in the neighborhood was out last week trying to improve the county roads.

Mr. Allen, the new road supervisor, is giving much better satisfaction than his predecessor.

Mr. Missner left a few days ago for his future home near Gaston.

Several camps are to be seen already on Fletcher's camp ground.

The school-boys, under instructions from their teacher, have completed the fence around the school house which gives the children a much better play ground.

Mr. Myers has returned from his trip to Clackamas County.

Mr. Pettie who purchased Mr. Missner's farm, moved in a few days ago.

La Sierra's clear Havana cigars at an 1/2's.

Cohn and Co. are paying 12 1/2 cts. per lb. for solid packed butter.

Notice for Bids.

On Saturday, June 26th 1897, at the creamery south of town, at 2 p. m. I will receive bids for the construction of a 200 ft. trestle on the road between said creamery and Trask river.

All who wish to bid on said work must be there, as I will explain what I want done at that time.

W. W. Conder.
