What the People of Tillamook Say

A CARD.

We take this method of thanking the people of Tillamook County for the liberal patronage given us since opening our store here.

We have endeavored to please our customers by giving them the very best value for their money, and believe we have done so, from the fact they are daily sending others to us to trade, thus showing our best advertisement to be the goods we are selling.

We care little for the loud talk of our would-be competitors, but are willing to leave it to the good judgement of the people of Tillamook to decide as to the quality and price of goods sold, and let them render the verdict. We will be satisfied with their decision, and still continue to furnish you with the very best in our line for the money.

That Kay & Todd have the best stock of clothing in Tillamook

- They have the largest stock to select from
- They carry the best stock of Underwear
- They handle the finest line of Hats
- They keep the best stock of shoes
- They have the newest stock
- They keep latest styles
- They sell more goods
- They sell cheaper

They do business in their own name

They sell just what they advertise

They buy the best quality of goods to be had

They do not handle cheap John auction goods.

We guarantee our goods just as we represent them, or your money refunded. These facts should be carefully considered; a business house with this record can be trusted.

In fact the goods they sell, give better satisfaction, last longer, and fit better than goods bought elsewhere for the same money.

There is No Death.
(Selected in memory of Lee Stephens)

There is no death: The stars go down
To rise upon some fairer shore;
And, bright in Heaven's jeweled crown,
They shine for evermore.

There is no death: The dust we tread
Shall change beneath the summer showers
To golden grain, or mellow fruit,
Or rain-bow tinted flowers.

The granite rocks disorganize,
And feed the hungry moss they bear;
The forest leaves drink daily life
From out the viewless air.

There is no death: The leaves may fall,
And flowers may fade and pass away;
They only wait through wintry hours,
The coming of May day.

There is no death: An angel form
Walks o'er the earth with silent tread;
And bears our best loved ones away,
And then we call them "dead."

He leaves our hearts so desolate,
He plucks our fairest sweetest flowers;
Transplanted into bliss, they now
Adorn immortal bowers.

The birdlike voice whose joyous tones
Made glad these scenes of strife,
Sings now an everlasting song
Around the tree of life.

Where'er he sees a smile too bright,
Or heart too pure, for fault and vice,
He hears it to that world of light,
To dwell in paradise.

And ever near us though unseen,
Those dear, immortal spirits tread;
For all the boundless universe
Is life—there is no death.

Truths Told in few Words.

A child's respect for its parent is not secured by over-lenience any more than by over-severity.

A daughter should never seek nor be allowed to "outdress" her mother. In every family the mother should be the best-dressed member.

The discarded finery of a daughter should never constitute a mother's wardrobe. No one feels especially dignified in the presence of one whose old clothes she is wearing, and a mother should at all times preserve her dignity before her children. The mother who never loses her queenliness never loses her crown.

Preventable misfortunes consist, chiefly, of manifold things, little to do, but immense things to have done.

The man who earns a dollar and spends two, and the man who earns two and spends one, stands on either side of the hair-line between heedlessness and discretion, between ruin and safety.

Parents generally receive that measure of filial respect they deserve—not always but very generally.

When a mother allows her daughter to appropriate her wraps, gloves, veils, or other article of personal attire, she begins a policy of familiarity which, sooner or later breeds contempt. A respect for one's belongings engender a respect for their possessor.—August Ladies' Home Journal.

"Look here, waiter, these eggs are not cooked properly."
"I know it, sir; but you said they were for your wife, and I knew if your lady was your wife she couldn't be very particular."—Sketch.

Catarrh Cannot be Cured
with LOCAL APPLICATIONS, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarrh is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Cure is not a quack medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years, and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonics known, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surfaces. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing Catarrh. Send for testimonials, free.
