Died of Consumption.

Miss Sadie Brynjulson, who for a number of months had been a patient sufferer from that most deadly of all diseases, consumption, died last Sunday evening at 6 o'clock. She came here with her parents 3 years ago, and soon by her kindly disposition won for herself numerous friends. Last spring she began to fail in health, but no fear was felt of any serious results until a couple of weeks ago when she went to Dr Wiley, who, after a brief examination, pronounced her disease consumption, and informed her friends that the disease had progressed so far as to render her incurable. The truth of the doctor's words was soon demonstrated, for she grew rapidly worse and on Saturday evening she quietly breathed her last, surrounded by her family and friends. The funeral took place under the auspices of the Relekalaks (of which order the deceased was a member) on Monday the 9th inst., at 1 o'clock P. M. from the M. E. Church, Rev. Corner delivered a brief and touching address. After the services the remains were conveyed to the cemetery where they were interred with the beautiful ceremonies of the order.

It is always gratifying to receive testimonials for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and when the endorsement is from a physician it is especially so. "There is no more satisfactory or effective remedy than Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," writes Dr. R. E. Robey, physician and pharmacist, of Oney, Mo.; and as he has used the remedy in his own family and sold it in his drug store for six years, he should certainly know. For sale by S. J. Sturgeon.
