

THE SUMMER BEETLE.

Around the moon soaked hollyhocks
The beetle sobs with vim,
And o'er the pillow
And four o'clocks
I hear his buzzing skims.
He tips upon the breezy rose
That round the window hangs,
And fattens on his funny nose
When on the pane he bangs,
And plays a tumpy tum tattoo,
An elfin buzzardoodleo.

Oh, like a telegraph machine,
He's plunking with his head,
I read, serene,
In thoughtful mien,
"Comerquick! Matilda's dead!"
And then into the room he comes,
The rumping pendow tramp,
And holy hams,
And bums and drums
Around the roasting lamp;
And cooks his wings, then upward goes
And plows the ceiling with his nose.

I strike at him with main and might,
But he's so very spry,
Beneath my right
He ducks in flight
And counters on my eye.
His half arm cracks are howling hot.
He jabs, then jumps away.
I caper like a hotcat
To dodge this bird of prey
That lams me on the spot that's bald,
And never stops when time is called.

Then through the window doth he dart
And down the garden walk,
Where, heart to heart,
And not apart,
The talpids blighted talk.
Along the tropic calm in flight
On moonlight waves he swims.
Along the white
And starry night
He scampers and he skims.
And when he's vanished from my sight
I look the window through.
I can't see, but I hear the sprite
Whose buzzardoodleo
Translated, like an ancient rhyme,
Means briefly, "This is summer time!"
—R. K. Mundt, in New York Journal.

Not His Fault.

"You are accused of scorching," said the justice. "What have you to say?"
"I guess it's right, judge," returned the bicyclist, "but I had a most illustrious example."

"In what way?"
"Why, the sun was scorching too."
When the justice assessed him $5 extra on account of this, all agreed that he got no more than he deserved.—Chicago Post.

Up to Date Sparrows.

So many birds have been killed from clutched a live wire that the Sparrows' Protective association has adopted the lineman's rubber gloves.—New York Sunday Journal.

Of the Haines Variety.

He had been celebrating, and when he reached home he decided to forestall censure from his wife by recourse to strategy. "My word is law in my own house," he thickly stated.
"Yes," assented his helpmeet, "but it seems to deal with nothing but the excise question."—New York Times.

Becoming a Necessity.

"What we ought to have," sighed the proprietor of the jewelry establishment, "is some absolute novelty to attract attention."

"What's the matter with a line of divorce rings?" asked the astute and up to date manager.—Detroit News.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Dr. Darrin the Eminent Specialist Will Visit Astoria.

Will Be in this City From August 18 to September 18.

There is a physician coming to Astoria not simply a medical practitioner, but a physician of very high order of merit, a scientist, one whose years of close study, close observation, close practical experience, has enabled him to draw not only testimonials, but the highest personal endorsements from the leading men of the country—congressmen, judges, etc.—and whose success in the medical field is today without a parallel. This refers to Dr. Darrin, late from Portland, who will have offices at the Occident Hotel.

Dr. Darrin has an enviable rank in his profession as a wonderfully successful physician. He is essentially original in his methods of practice, and those who have been under his treatment are surprised at the newness and novelty of his system of practice by electricity. His honest and straightforward advice before taking a case has won for him the confidence of his patients as well as the general public. The doctor is a gentleman of genial, social nature, and his private practice is marked by the formation of a personal friendship with those with whom he comes in profession at contact. He is without doubt one of the most thoroughly qualified physicians now before the public, as his wonderful cures can testify. Read his cures:

- Geo. Smith, Astoria, deafness, cured.
- John Savenson, Farmington, Or., deafness, cured.
- J. H. Wilson, Mist, Or., skin disease, cured.
- A. Pool, Eagle Point, Or., heart and liver trouble, restored.
- Isaac Thompson, LaCenter, Wash., deafness cured in five minutes.
- Milt Jones, Perrydale, Or., cured of polyposis of the nose.
- Mrs. A. E. Pates, Albany, Or., ovarian and womb troubles, cured.
- Wm. M. Post, Troutdale, Or., almost total deafness, cured.
- J. T. George, Glendon, Wash., chronic rheumatism five years, cured.
- Mrs. Mary A. Johnson, McMinnville, Or., deafness many years, cured.
- C. F. Mayhey, 14 Market street, Portland, rheumatism in its worst form, cured.
- Henry VonHelms, Sandy, Or., cancer of the nose and catarrh, cured.
- J. S. Jennings, Sellwood, Or., eczema, or skin disease, 15 years, cured.
- Mrs. T. B. Hatfield's boy, 214 Eleven th, street, discharging ear and deafness cured.
- John M. Simmons, Oakville, Wash., catarrh, bronchitis and nervous debility restored.

Many other might be mentioned did not want of space forbid.
Dr. Darrin makes a liberal offer of treating the worthy poor free of charge daily (except medicines) between the hours of 9 and 10 a. m., in accordance with his time honored custom.
Dr. Darrin makes a specialty of all the diseases of the eye, ear, nose, throat, catarrh, deafness, bronchitis, la grippe, consumption, heart or liver diseases.

He permanently cures all diseases of the genito-urinary organs in either sex, such as syphilis, blood taints, scrofula, gleet, gonorrhoea, stricture, seminal weakness, spermatorrhoea, loss of manhood, and loss of desire or sexual power in man or woman.

All peculiar female troubles, displacements, etc., all confidently treated, as well as all acute, chronic, private and nervous diseases, of whatever nature, if curable. Consultation free.

Office hours are 10 a. m. to 8 p. m. daily. Charges low and reasonable according to circumstances and ability to pay.
Dr. Darrin will remain in Astoria at the Occident hotel from Aug 18 to Sept. 18, and patients will do well to consult him at once, as many cases require a second and even third operation with electricity.

All business relations with Dr. Darrin are strictly confidential.

Do you want to

SELL your FARM

town lot or timber claim or any other improved or unimproved real estate? If so you want to put it into the hands of some one who will advertise and try to sell it. I have just opened in this city a thoroughly equipped

Real Estate Office

And am now prepared to transact all business usually connected with such offices.

I expect to make a specialty of the sale of Tillamook County Dairy Lands and for that purpose will advertise extensively in eastern papers. If you have any land, for sale now is the time to bring it in and list it.

If you want to buy or trade for real estate, if you have property you desire attended to in your absence, or any other business in the real estate line you are respectfully invited to come and see me.
