The County Knocked Out.

The Case of P. C. Warren vs. Tillamook County, which came up on a writ of review in the Circuit Court, this term was one of considerable interest to the people of the county. Mr. Warren owns a large tract of land on Nekarney Mountain, through which a certain road was located which it was intended should eventually reach the Clatsop County line and there connect with a road leading from that county southward.

As it is, the county court will be compelled to make a new survey, appoint new viewers and do the preliminary work of locating the road all over again. This will put the county to considerable expense, but it is the only way of saving the still larger expense of losing all the work already done.

Dollar Wheat.

For years past the expectation that "dollar wheat" might come again some time in the future seemed to be an iridescent dream, yet that very thing has appeared.

there is a marked tendency upward or downward, but the present indications are for a further advance. This means higher prices for flour for the people but it also means a gain for the farmers, and whenever good times come to this class they quickly diffuse themselves through out the entire community.

This is a significant commentary on Bryan's predictions in the farming regions last summer that if McKinley was elected wheat would drop to 25c. Possibly these predictions won some votes for Bryan; for he had considerable strength among the farmers. It would be interesting to find out what his dupes among the wheat growers think of him now.

An Unjust Judgment.

In another column will be found a dispatch relating to captain Thomas, formerly of the steamer Truckee, and his punishment on account of the loss of the steamer Mexico. Everybody here will be sorry to read the dispatch and the best informed men generally express the belief that the sentence of the Board of Local Inspectors for Puget Sound District was unjust.

they wished to make an example of him for the benefit of others. At any rate their judgement was utterly unjust.

Beware of Setting Forest Fires.

The time of year has now come when forest fires are most to be dreaded, and too much care can not be taken to prevent them. This county has too frequently seen the awful results of carelessness in this direction. Many millions of feet of the best timber in America have been sacrificed to the carelessness of some hunter, camper or thoughtless rancher.

Sec. 2. That any person who shall build a camp fire, or any other fire, on or near any forest, timber, or other inflammable material upon public domain, shall, before breaking camp or leaving said fire, totally extinguish the same.

The French say "It is the impossible that happens." This has proved to be the case with the Mount Lebanon Shakers. The whole scientific world has been abating to cure dyspepsia, but every effort seemed to meet with defeat.

It Saves the Croupy Children

Seaview, Va.—We have a splendid sale on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and our customers coming from far and near, speak of it in the highest terms.

"My boy came home from school one day with his hand badly lacerated and bleeding, and suffering great pain," says Mr. E. J. Schall with Meyer Bros. Drug Co., St. Louis, Mo.

Owing to over-crowding and bad ventilation, the air of the school-room is often close and impure, and teachers and pupils frequently suffer from lung and throat troubles.
