

OFF FOR KLONDIKE!

Tillamookers Leave for the Gold Fields—Others Will Follow Soon

Many more [including ourselves] have the fever very bad, but as we have no one to stake us, we will stay and fit out those who can't go with the very best line of,

Clothing, Hats, Shoes and Furnishing Goods.

We carry all kinds of goods suitable for wear, for either Miners, Fishermen or Sawmill Men including,

Heavy Wool Underwear, Overshirts, Sweaters, Rubber Boots, Oil Clothing, Heavy Shoes, Wool Socks and Wool Blankets.

And what is of more interest to you, we sell them at lower prices than you can buy them any other place in the county. Don't take our word for it but come and see for yourselves.

In addition to this we still keep in the lead furnishing all lines of dress clothing, Hats, Shoes and Furnishing Goods.

GATHERED BY OUR CORRESPONDENTS A Brief Glimpse at Last Weeks Happenings

Oretown

A large number of persons in this vicinity have gone to the hop fields.

It is intended that the government work at the bay will be completed by the middle of September.

C. G. Cutting is in Dallas attending to his livery stable.

It is reported that Jessie Faulconer formerly of this place, has gone to California with the intention of making that his future home.

Messrs. A. M. and L. M. Commons have finished threshing. The yield of grain was very good.

Mrs. Myers has moved over to the Arnold house at the bay.

Mrs. Sutton has sold her place to Mr. Hoopes.

A dance was held in the store building at the bay last week.

Miss, Mamie Wilson has returned to Portland.

Ray Sutton, a son of Charley Sutton, who lived here several years ago, is visiting at Frank Franklin's home.

Mrs. O. L. Nash gave birth to a daughter.

Mr. James Hoopes has received his commission as post master and has taken full control of the office.

Mesdames Cleghorn and Decker, of Portland, left for their home last week.

Cattle buyers are busy in this vicinity trying to buy up the best of the cattle.

Mr. Hoopes, Sr., accompanied by Charlie Mann have gone with a team to Clackamas co.

Xavier Jones, formerly of Oretown, is going to Alaska.

Mrs. Capt. Crim has returned to her home at the bay.

Mr. Gardner made a trip to Sheridan and back last week.

South Prairie.

Saw a $20 Klondike nugget the other day, since then we have been very unhappy.

Frank Ely contemplates the erection of a new dwelling in the near future.

Albert Harris and family, John Sheet and family, Abbie Harris and wife, also others have gone hop picking.

Newton Daniel and family, from North Yamhill, have been visiting relatives on the prairie, returning to their home last week accompanied by Mrs. Sarah Daniel.

Isaac Quick is building quite a residence. Mr. Ford, of Tillamook, being the leading architect. Who says: "The old settler never crawls out of the old shell."

Woods

(FROM THE OCEAN WAVE)

Prof. Snuffer returned from a trip to the valley Tuesday and reports that the hottest weather experienced for 30 years prevailed for one week prior to last Thursday.

While young Sherwood was driving Andrew Anderson's to team the creamery last week, the team ran away, smashing up the wagon and doing some damage to the harness.

John Malaney Jr., of Tillamook, was in this city last week. He went to Siletz to look after the freight at that place, which he is trying to secure for the new steamer which is being built at Tillamook bay. He reports that the boat will be ready to make its trial trip in about a month or six weeks. When it is completed it will make trips along this coast as far south as Yaquina bay.

Salmon fishing has not been very good up till Sunday night when a large catch was made. The largest catch by one boat that has been reported is that of the Christensen boys who caught 50 on that night.

Nearly all the ladies from this place have gone to the hop yards, leaving a large portion of us as bachelors.

The fishermen of this place should maintain one price this year and it will be better for all concerned. Late last year the chinook salmon went down as low as ten cents each. This should not occur this year as the articles we get in return from the valley have attained a higher price hence the prices of our products should be kept up proportionately. We believe the price being paid now of 50 cents for each chinook can be maintained the entire fall.

Nehalem

(FROM THE NEHALEM TIMES.)

J. E. Tuttle was in town Sunday and Monday overhauling the telephone system.

Mr. Fred Vogel and wife, of Los Angeles and a grand nephew of Louis Zage-meyer, spent four days with him here this week they are on their way home from a tour of the United States.

G. B. Lamb closed a very successful term of school here on Friday. He left today for Tillamook where he will remain about two weeks before going to the Normal school at Monmouth for the winter. Mr. Lamb is an exceptionally good instructor for a young man and is well thought of by the scholars and their parents here.

This section was treated to a small thunder storm and refreshing rain Sunday night and Monday night to a moderate sou'wester, which reminds us that winter will soon be upon us.
