What has become of our projected fish hatchery. A move should be made to secure such an institution at once.

Don't violate the fish and game laws. They are all made for your own benefit as well as for the benefit of others.

From Engineer Holcombe's survey of the bar it is demonstrated that the slough, and not the bar, needs improving.

The throwing of dead fish into the bay is not only an offense against the law of the land, but also against the laws of health. It should be stopped.

"Has anybody been heard to express regret that he voted for sound money and protection last year?"

Our people are getting tired of the irregular and insufficient steamer service to which we are now subjected. A steamer every two weeks, carrying half the freight is not very satisfactory. However we presume the matter will exhaust itself in a mere kick.

It seems as though everything had turned against the calamity shriekers, whether of the free-silver or free-trade type. Their latest misfortune comes in the way of a recent announcement showing the individual deposits in the national banks of the country to be the largest on record.

At its last session the County Court transacted a large amount of business in a single day's session. It could always do so if the commissioners attended to their business. At the last session one of the commissioners appeared for the first time in six months. County officials should either attend to their duties or resign.

News comes from Humboldt Co. Cal. that the Van Duzen river, which used to be one of the finest trout streams in America, has been almost utterly depopalated of fish by dynamiters. That is what will happen to our streams if some of our local dynamiters are not severely dealt with.

"And now there is prospect of higher prices for corn. The Europeans are taking our corn in great quantities, and here is statistician B. W. Snow, of Chicago, one of the ablest experts on crops in the country, with an estimate that the corn crop of that country will be no more than 1,800,000,000 bushels this year against 2,28 • 000,000 bushels last year. This means higher prices for corn. And yet silver continues to fall."

The HEADLIGHT hasn't lost more than half a dozen subscribers in the last year, and of those who wrote and stopped the paper not a single one succeeded in spelling the words 'Editor' and 'HEADLIGHT' both correctly. Evidently that kind of people take rather unkindly to a progressive paper like the HEADLIGHT. However we congratulate ourselves that for every such subscriber lost we have gained a dozen intelligent ones.

Farmers may congratulate themselves that the Dingley law, which protects their productions thoroughly, has gone into operation. The recent report of the Bureau of Statistics shows that the importations of 12 articles of farm product—wool, cotton, fibres, feathers, chicory, cattle, oranges, preserved fruits, hides, beans, rice, and sugar—during June, 1897, were more than 50 per cent greater than in June, 1895, amounting to $23,500,000 against $15,400,000 the corresponding month of last year.

Governor Tillman made some brilliant remarks the other day to a little band of free-silver Trojans in New York state. He told them that everybody who said prosperity was coming was miserably mistaken, and that the present boom in wheat and the general-prosperity movement was nothing but a "hot baloon" affair. In fact, the wheat advance was simply a movement on the part of designing men to aid Mark Hanna's political aspiration, and anyway New Yorkers would suffer by it, for it would increase the price of their bread. If the Governor had half an eye for viewing the signs of the times, he could see that the day has passed for this kind of talk.

The R. R. Co. has filed with the "Board of Equalization" an application for a reduction of its assessments.

There seems to be some little fairness in the claim. While this paper does not approve the practice of some of the big corporations or condone the faults of any of them, yet it is willing to concede that the railroad lands seem to assessed too high. The average per acre for last year is over 700 per cent greater than in Polk county and very much greater than any other county in the state.

Some of these lands are only a rocky waste without timber or vegetation and so hilly that they are practically valueless, and if the board allow a higher assessment than other counties we will pay more than our portion of the state tax. We had better place a fair valuation on them as well as all other lands and if need be make a greater levy.

We understand that Mr. Stephens, assessor, has looked into the matter and has made a reduction but the assessment is still excessive.

The law provides that all property shall be assessed at its actual cash value, and this should be done whether the owner be a corporation or an individual.

Owing to over-crowding and bad ventilation, the air of the schoolroom is often close and impure, and teachers and pupils frequently suffer from lung and throat troubles. To all such we would say, try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. For coughs, colds, weak lungs and bronchial troubles no other remedy can compare with it. Says A. C. Freed, Supt. of schools, Prairie Depot, Ohio; "Having some knowledge of the efficacy of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, I have no hesitation in recommending it to all who suffer from coughs, lung troubles etc." For sale by S.
