It is useless for us to talk about prices here, as every one knows that we are the leaders in

Every Line

we carry and our prices are the lowest. We handle quantities of goods and believe in quick sales and small profits.

Dont forget that we also lead in prices on groceries and provisions. Trade us your butter and get the highest price paid in the city. We expect a large fall trade this season and thank you kindly for your patronage in the past,

COHN & CO.

HEADLIGHT X-RAYS

Note the change in Dr. Darrin's ad in this issue.

Prof. J. N. Beggs opened a dancing class for children last Saturday afternoon.

Mr. Shanahan, the piano tuner, will remain here for another week. Those desiring to have their pianos tuned should not miss the present opportunity.

Mrs. A. W. Burdeck left on this morning's stage for a visit to Andover, New York. She will remain indefinitely.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ridehaugh and child, of Astoria, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Thayer.

Mr. Hughes, who has been in the employ of the Pipe Company here for a number of months left last week for Seattle and points east of the mountains. He expects to re-enter the employment of the company at their new factory at Grants Pass.

Editor Johnson and wife, of the Nehalem Times, spent the later part of last week in town.

Mrs. Caples left on Wednesday morning for Portland where she will remain for a brief time, and then join her husband, who has a lucrative position in San Francisco. Mr. and Mrs. Caples made many friends while here all of whom deeply regret their departure.

The new saloon building next door to C. E. Reynolds' hardware store is just receiving the finishing touches. It is tastefully finished in natural woods and will be a really handsome building when completed. The proprietor, Mr. Brinn, expects to open the saloon in about a week.

A very pleasant wedding occurred at the residence of City Recorder Drew on Tuesday morning. E. A. Chamberlain of Sand Lake, and Miss Olive C. Lynch were made husband and wife, Rev. Mr. Corner tying the nuptial knot. Amongst the invited guests were Mr. and Mrs. Drew, Hon. E. E. Selph, and the editor of the Headlight. The Headlight extends congratulations, and trusts that the young couple's journey through life may be replete with happiness.

Mrs. Hays school opened on Monday.

Rev. Mills and Durfee are arranging to hold a debate on the subject of "Entire Sanctification."

W. W. Curtis left today for Portland, where he will remain during the winter.

Fred Schomberg has gotten tired of waiting on the steamers and so last week he took a wagon load of his fine butter out to Forest Grove and shipped by train to Portland.

The officials having the matter in charge are doing some fine work on Main street between John Barker's residence and the HEADLIGHT office.

Prof. Beggs has discontinued his dancing class on Tuesday evenings, and will hereafter give lessons to adults on Saturday evenings, and to children on Saturday afternoons.

Theodore Steinhilber left last week for a trip to Portland, and thence to California, where he will visit his old friend Editor Jones. He will remain several weeks.

The last cargo of the steamer Harrison was one of the most valuable ever taken out by any single ship. She carried between eleven and twelve thousand pounds of butter, over sixteen thousand pounds of cheese, twenty cases of eggs, and 750 cases of salmon. The entire cargo was valued at about $7000.

Holly Orchard came in on the last trip of the Harrison. He accompanied his mother and family out on the stage on Wednesday. The town can ill afford to lose such men as are the proprietors of the Pipe Company but their moving away seems for the present unavoidable.

Prof. L. Waters, a phrenologist, gave a free lecture on Tuesday evening at the Court House. A large audience greeted the professor and all seemed to enjoy the lecture. Considerable sport was had after the lecture when a certain well-known citizen submitted the bumps of his cranium to the professor's diagnosis. Some of the professor's hits seemed to be more enjoyed by the audience than by the unfortunate victim.

The case of Wist vs Allen, which has been on trial since Saturday in Justice Sappington's Court, was concluded yesterday. It was tried before a jury, consisting of W. E. Page, Chas. Smith, Ned Fitzpatrick, J. H. Hathaway, Gus Nelson, and Mr. Mahoney. Mr. Wist who had some kind of a claim on the Allen House had sued to obtain possession of the premises by ejecting Mr. Allen. The verdict was in favor of plaintiff, but Mr. Allen appealed the case and will have until the next Circuit court to consider what step to take next.

Prof. Beggs' dancing school continues with growing interest and an increased number of pupils. Never before has Tillamook had so fine a teacher of dancing as Prof. Beggs, and not for many years can we hope to be favored with another. Mr. Beggs bears credentials from the very best men and women of all the cities he has visited. If you ever want to take dancing lessons now is your time. On Saturday afternoon the public is invited to be present, but in the evening no spectators will be allowed.

GATHERED BY OUR CORRESPONDENTS

A Brief Glimpse at Last Weeks Happenings

Bay City

Mr. and Mrs. Nevins have gone to the valley for a short outing.

Mr. Petteys went to the valley last Friday with Henry Hewitt's family and household furniture.

Mr. J. C. Bewley and family drove to Salem last week. They will remain a few weeks visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm Wood have returned to their Bay City home. Their many friends are pleased to learn of their return.

Trask River.

It is a quiet up this way since the bulk of fishermen have left for Portland.

The recent rain has raised Trask about 10 or 12 inches.

Mr. Holden, who has had a lot of cattle on the Edwards place this summer, has taken a part of them down to his home place looking better than when they were driven up in the spring.

J. Reed came in over the Trask river road with a load of pears, which he disposed of at a fair price.

Samuel Elmore and party drove over the Trask river road last Saturday on their way to Portland.

A number of the people of Trask river have gone out to North Yamhill to pick hops.

Mrs. Grayson and children have returned from Portland.

F. J. Deach, who taught the school on Trask river, will leave for the valley this week, where he has a 5 month school near Newberg.

BEAVER

Quite a number of Beaverites are out in the hop fields picking hops. Notwithstanding the rains have ruined some of the crops, C. Mills insists that there will be enough hops saved to make all the beer that should be drank.

Rev. Dollarhide, of Bay City, has moved to Beaver and will occupy the free Methodist parsonage this year and represent his church at this place. He has many friends here. Mr. Dollarhide will preach here next Sunday.

With the new U. B. church going up and J. W. Wallace, Henry Isaacs and others improving their farms Beaver is taking on an air of prosperity.

Joseph Hallatt and family have moved here from Morgan Co., Ohio, and will remain permanently. Hurray for Ohio. It begins to look as though the name of Beaver should be changed to Backeye City.

Revs. East, Harter and Mills returned from Tillamook Tuesday, where they had just concluded a very successful revival. They are loud in their praise of the hospitality of the Tillamook people.

Painting Lessons

C. L. Studis is organizing a painting class. Lessons will be given in landscape, marine, flower and figure painting. See him about it at the Elite Studio.
