HEADLIGHT X-RAYS

Mrs. Tuttle left on yesterday morning's stage for Portland.

The best assortment of ammunition ever brought to Tillamook county at Letcher's.

Rev. Corner left last week for his new charge in the Willamette valley.

Mrs. John Barker has returned from a very pleasant visit to friends in Portland and vicinity.

An alarm of fire was rung on Monday evening. The fire caught back of the Tillamook Lumber Co.'s mill and had it not been discovered just when it was it might have resulted in a disastrous conflagration. As it happened little Alec Stoddard was playing in the orchard adjoining the mill and reported the fire to the electrician, Mr. McCormack, who gave the alarm. Mr. Orchard and Mr. Crenshaw rang the fire bell and the mill force turned on the fire hose kept at the mill for the purpose. The fire was soon under control. The fire company hearing that the fire was out did not turn out.

Trolling has been very fair of late. The silversides are in the bay in great numbers and they are always ready to take a shy at the alluring spoon.

Now is the time to subscribe for the Weekly Examiner and get in on the premium, Lamb Agt.

McIntosh & Townsend will pay the highest market price in cash for dairy butter delivered at their factory at Tillamook.

Remember those hand-loaded shells of Cary's. They are guaranteed to give satisfaction.

Mrs. Peterson, who has been quite ill of Erysipelas, is slowly recovering. For a time her illness was thought to be of a very serious character, but her recovery now is only a matter of time.

Read the new ad of Peterson, the barber, in this issue. By some wretched blunder the ad was left out of a number of recent issues. If any of our friends concluded on that account that Charley was dead we hasten to assure them that he is alive and hustling at the old stand and we bespeak for him a larger patronage than ever.

A full line of window glass at Cary's Hardware store.

Hon. T. B. Handley left Monday on the steamer Harrison. He will act as special correspondent for the HEADLIGHT at the State Fair.

Mr. Orchard, of the City Water Works and Pipe Co., who has been here on business for a week past, left for home on Wednesday morning.

There are quite a number of ducks on the bay, but owing to the extremely fine weather they are very wild and hard to get at.

Mrs. Miron Perkins who is suffering from an attack of Typhoid fever is getting along nicely. The attack is a very mild one and her recovery is only a matter of time. Mr. Perkins' mother is just recovering from an attack of the same disease.

Mrs. Sturgeon has just received her fall styles in millinery. The very latest shapes and colors will be displayed this week. Be sure to give her an early call.

W. H. H. Cary has a large stock of ammunition that is strictly first class. No cheap grade of goods sold by him in that line. Prices the same as others.

S. J. Sturgeon, the druggist, has purchased the stock formerly owned by the Williams Drug Co. and added it to his already extensive stock. Mr. Sturgeon now has one of the finest stocks of drugs ever brought to the county.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Perry left here on Monday Morning for a visit to their son in Wasco County, Ore.

Schilling's Best tea makes good cake taste better.

Schilling's Best baking powder and tea are because they are money-back.

What is the missing word?—not SAFE, although Schilling's Best baking powder and tea are safe.

Get Schilling's Best baking powder or tea at your grocers'; take out the ticket (brown ticket in every package of baking powder; yellow ticket in the tea); send a ticket with each word to address below before December 31st.

Until October 15th two words allowed for every ticket; after that only one word for every ticket.

If only one person finds the word, that person gets $2000.00; if several find it, $2000.00 will be equally divided among them.

Every one sending a brown or yellow ticket will receive a set of cardboard creeping babies at the end of the contest. Those sending three or more in one envelope will receive an 1898 pocket calendar—no advertising on it. These creeping babies and pocket calendars will be different from the ones offered in the last contest.

Better cut these rules out.

Address: MONEY-BACK, SAN FRANCISCO.

Fred Schomburg left yesterday for Hillsboro where he will go into the dairying business on a larger scale than heretofore. Mr. Schomburg is a fine dairyman and what is still better, a thorough gentleman, and Tillamook loses a good citizen in his departure. Mrs. Schomburg will remain until spring and take care of the business.

Tillamook Academy, now known by its new name "St. Alphonsus Academy," has a new advertisement in this issue. It will pay any one who has children whom he wishes to educate to investigate and consider the claims of St. Alphonsus. The teachers are without some of the most thorough that have ever come to this country.

A number of the young men of Tillamook met at the store of C. E. Reynolds on Saturday evening for the purpose of organizing a dancing club. After considerable discussion on the advantages of such an institution an organization was effected with C. E. Reynolds as president and Frank Kerremans secretary and treasurer. The club's first dance will be given on Saturday evening at the Opera House. Music will be furnished by C. B. and Geo. Handley and Fred Page.

St. Alphonsus' Academy, has established a night school in which the common school branches will be taught to such as cannot attend the regular course of instruction. Read the ad in another column of this issue for terms.

C. A. Doty, the efficient secretary of the Tillamook Lumber Co., the Galvanized Wire Pipe Co. and the Water Co., left here today for Grant's Pass, where the pipe company has erected a mill. Messrs. Doty and Orchard during their residence here made many warm friends. They are thorough business men with whom it is a pleasure to do business and Tillamook can ill afford to lose them. The Headlight wishes them success wherever they may go.

Reception.

A reception was given Rev. M. P. Dixon on last Monday evening. A number of members and friends of the church were present. After unloading their gifts, several selections of music were rendered, among others was the very appropriate hymn 'Blest be the Tie that binds our hearts in Christian Love.' Prayer was then offered. A good social time was enjoyed by all. The pastor offered a few brief remarks after which the company adjourned.
