

Only A Woman's Heart.

Only a woman's heart, whereon
You have trod in your careless haste;
A thing at best that was easy won;
What matter how dear a waste
Her life may be in future years?
What matter if? Do not start!
It is only the sound of dropping tears,
As weeping from a woman's heart.

'Tis of little worth, for it cost you naught
But a honeyed word and a smile.
Was the fault of hers if she blindly thought
You were truer than truth the while?
What are the seeds of a lifelong woe
From its broken shrine upstart?
What does it matter to you, you know
It is only a woman's heart.

Only a heart to be thrown away
With the recklessness of a boy,
Who, careless of pleasure and weary of play,
Would throw down a broken toy.
The world is fair and the world is wide
And there's more in its busy mart,
Conscience, you know, you have put aside,
It is only a woman's heart.

But powerless is your boasted will
To vanish the ghost of sin;
It has spoken oft, and it whispers still
Your soul's dark chambers in.
In the drama of life, you know
You have acted the villain's part,
For you struck a hard, cruel blow
And it fell on a woman's heart.

Only a woman's heart, ah well!
'Tis little, I trow, to you
Whether that heart was false as hell
Or as heaven itself as true.
You may lug the thought to your selfish breast
That you're skilled in deception's art.
But I heard you throb for the peace and rest
You stole from a woman's heart.

A few weeks ago the editor was taken with a very severe cold that caused him to be in a most miserable condition. It was undoubtedly a bad case of influenza and recognizing it as dangerous he took immediate steps to bring about a speedy cure. From the advertisement of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and the many recommendations therein, we concluded to make a first trial of the medicine. To say that it was satisfactory in its results is putting it very mildly, indeed. It acted like magic and the result was a speedy and permanent cure. We have no hesitation in recommending this excellent Cough Remedy to anyone afflicted with a cough or cold in any form.—The Banner of Liberty, Libertytown, Maryland. The 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by S. J. Sturgeon.

"Oh! How I suffer—Rheumatism and Neuralgia. Can't be cured." Yes it can. Read ad of Vita Medicine Co. No cure, no pay.
