Its a girl and weighs 9 pounds. Tom was loaded with cigars, and everybody smoked to the health of the little stranger.

Our readers will find in this issue a corrected directory of the Secret Societies of this town and Bay City. It is as nearly correct as we can make it. We do not charge these Societies anything for running their cards, and in return for our favoring them they surely ought to show us the courtesy of bringing in, unsolicited the information necessary to make their cards correct.

A very sad accident occurred at Netarts last Friday afternoon. Georg Johnson's little three year old son was playing on the banks of the slough, near the Netarts sawmill. The child was throwing sticks into the slough and a dog, belonging to Mr Baily, was retrieving them. Finally the dog, in his eagerness to get the sticks, ran against the child, which accidentally fell into the water. Help was near at hand and the little fellow was taken out before he had been in the water for more than three minutes and every effort made for his restoration, but all in vain.

The funeral took place in Tillamook on Saturday.

EXPRESSION OF PUBLIC OPINION.

But for which the Editor Does not Hold Himself Responsible

This department of the HEADLIGHT is devoted to communications received from the people and all are invited to contribute to it. Subjects treated must be subjects of general interest. Under no consideration whatever will anything of a personal nature be admitted.

Tillamook, Ore. Nov. 1, 1897.

Editor HEADLIGHT:—

It is said that our present City Marshal is a candidate for re-election. If so, it would be gratifying to his friends if he would, at an early date, discard some of his daintiness and gather in a few of the hoodlums who are doing their best to terrorize the community. Few of our citizens object to the boys engaging in youthful sports and enjoying themselves in a legitimate manner, but when peaceful, law-abiding citizens are disturbed night after night by having their houses "rocked" or tick-tacked, when fences are torn down and property damaged, nightly raids made on chicken coops, persons who are dangerously ill wantonly disturbed, strangers tripped up on the main streets, and so on, it is time an effort was made to put a stop to these outrages, and if it is not expecting too much, citizens look to the marshal for relief. It is no use to recite instances of the outrages (for they have become too numerous to be called anything else) committed by the gang of hoodlums now infesting the town, for they are matters of common knowledge and in many cases have been directly reported to the marshal. Neither are those who commit the outrages unknown. They are sons of reputable citizens, and well known to the marshal, and even if they are not it is his business to find out. There are taxpayers who are getting tired of paying a salary to a marshal who gives them no protection, and it will materially help his chances of re-election if he will, in the near future, do a little rusting and show the people that he is City Marshal for the purpose of doing his duty as prescribed in Section 1, of Chapter 3, of the City Charter and not for the sole purpose of drawing his salary and walking around behind a big star.

A Victim.

CARD OF THANKS

To the many friends who so kindly assisted and sympathized with us during our recent affliction, in the death and burial of our little son we hereby extend sincerest thanks.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Johnson.
