

GREAT DISCOUNT SALE!

IS STILL ON

We are not discounting our prices, as we are selling goods on a very small margin, but we are discounting the prices of others and will still sell at lower prices, quality considered, than you can get elsewhere.

If it is a sin to be the cause of reducing the price of clothing in Tillamook then we must plead guilty.

The fact that we are daily selling people clothing who had formerly bought their clothing outside of Tillamook County must mean something; either we are selling goods that they have been unable to buy elsewhere, or we are selling at lower prices, or a better grade of goods for the same money. Does this need interpretation? We submit the case.

The Liars' Club.
The Liars Club held a regular session on Monday evening.

The chaplain read the story of how Samson went hunting for Philistines with the jawbone of an ass, and how he killed 30,000 of 'em with that unsavory weapon. He said, 'that even a club of 3 d degree liars must admit that the story in question was worthy of consideration.' He said, 'that it proved what could be done on jawbone. Why gentlemen, he said, 'jawbone is omnipotent. Business is done on jawbone, newspapers are run on jawbone, politics is run on jawbone, religion is promulgated by jawbone, and, as the text shows, it don't take much of a jawbone either. And, as to smiting people with jawbone, you see that done every day. Young girls as pure as angels are smitten with the jawbone of some old she-burro of a gossip and they never recover from it; Women are smitten with the jawbone of some old Jack he-gossip and they die of broken hearts. And all on account of the jawbone of an ass. Mark you it don't take the jawbone of a gentleman or of a lady to do these things but only the jawbone of an ass.'

The members were so overcome by the chaplain's eloquence that they forgot to hurl the usual missiles at him until he had repeated his "Now I lie myself to sleep" three times "in succession and dodged down behind the altar.

The only regular business transacted was the firing out, of office, of the president.

A formal accusation was made against him that he had been guilty, in company with the attorney general of the club, of going down to the "flower-pot" "flower-pot" or "flower-pot" or some other place thereabout or in that vicinity, or direction or neighborhood, and that in company with the said attorney general he did shoot, bang, explode, discharge and fire off his gun at three certain teal ducks and kill them; That he spent a week of time, five dollars worth of ammunition, and seven dollars worth of grub in so doing, and that having done all this he returned home and told the proxy truth about the whole thing, willfully, feignously and ridiculously refusing to add thereto ninety ducks and fifteen geese as he easily might, could, would or should have done to the great edification of the club and amazement of the stranger within our gates.

He was ordered to vacate the chair which he had disgraced, and until he could concoct another whopper worthy of a 33rd degree member, remain silent in the councils of the club.

The season of thanksgiving being close at hand the president, pro tem mindful of his high office, made the following proclamation; 'Whereas' from time immemorial, and maybe longer, it has been customary for liars of all degrees and conditions to give thanks for blessings and other things, which they got by hook or crook or which in the progress of human events, they fell heir to;

Therefore by virtue of the sublime dignity in me vested as chief liar of the society of cheerful and expert prevaricator I command, every brother to be humbly thankful.

1st That he is alive. Had he lived in the time of Ananias he would long since have got it where the chicken got the ax.

2nd For the undulating clam flats of Tillamook Bay, whose virgin bosoms, unwrinkled by times eternal flight, still swell with their stuffing of fat, juicy and gamey clams.

3d. For the abundance of grass, and likewise grass widows, (God bless 'em.)

4th. For the luxurious salmon berry crop and the consequent equally luxurious crop of fat salmon.

5th. For the cows that give Limburger cheese and the peculiar state of health that enables them to do it.

6th. For the civilizing influence of the hoppiants. Behold they are still in our midst, "and behold they cry aloud, "Come unto me and jump-an-kick," "And ye fisherman from Mameloose and the further ends of Kilches, come ye, and ye wild lumberman from Tailhold camp, come and be saved." "And behold ye shall no longer howl for the cottonion but ye shall 'tee dum, tee dum, tee dum deedle-dum, and jump-an-kick' for joy.

7th. For the great improvement in our bars, and that schooners are passing over them with precious cargoes in great abundance.

8th. For the return of confidence, confidence on the part of the bar-keep that we can and will pay, and confidence on our part that we can't and won't.

9th. That the workshops of the nation are once more open, and if we don't want to work we can walk out and join the "pops" howling against the Dingley bill and Bill McKinley.

10th. For ducks and geese and the ability to shoot 'em, and then lie about it to our hearts content.

The chaplain is therefore commanded to diligently search and try to find out where all those things come from, and if he can find the source he shall tap it open a little wider, and we shall fill our cups with joy and drain them to the bottom' not forgetting to gorge ourselves in good Christian fashion with turkey and cranberry sauce.

At this juncture the mournful creak of a captive turkey and the steps of its captor were heard passing the open door, and in just 1 1/2 seconds the club room was empty and all that was visible, of the club, was a string of slawdowy figures chasing into the darkness, with the Marshal bringing up the tail end.

in the gloaming, while we rest, love, Do not think it strange of me, If for meals I suggest, love, That hereafter we use tea.

Tea we know to meals gives zest, love - Fragrant, grateful, cheering tea; But it must be Schilling's Best love, Best for you, and Best for me.

The world is going to the bad, The pessimistic say; But when it goes for Schilling's Best, It doesn't go that way; Then optimism shouts with glee, "All's for the Best." That's Schilling's. See?
