Ourselves and Others.

Pleasant thoughts and feelings of every kind that come to us are far too often buried in the oblivion of silence. The seed which if planted in the hearts and lives of those around us would bring forth rich harvests of happiness is carclessly brown away. Such impressions should be regarded as a kind of trust for all those who can participate in them. If we have any bright thought, any hopeful outlook, Stricken to the Bed and upon the Verge of Insanity-She Finds a Remedy when Hope any joyful experience, any loving emotic let us hasten to share and diffuse it. If any ray of sunshine has penetrated our hearts or lives, let us gladly shed it on the pathway of others .- New York Ledger.

His Can Opener.

At a dinner given by the Authors' club of New York city to Richard Henry Stod-dard, ex-Judge Henry E. Howland, presi-dent of the Century club, told this story of the guest of honor: "Stoddard was opening a can of tomatoes one night. Sounds that came from the kitchen convinced Mrs. Stoddard that her husband was not accomplishing his task without a struggle. Finally she called to him, 'What struggle. Finally she cannot to him, what are you doing, dear? 'Opening this can of toniatoes, came the rather gruff an-swer. 'What are you opening it with?' 'With a knife Did you think I was using "y teeth?' 'Not at all, dear,' came the may teeth?' 'I thought from your language my teeth? you were opening it with prayer.' "

"The worst cold I ever had in my life was cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," writes W. H. Norton, of Sutter Creek, Cal. "This cold left me with a cough and I was expectorating all he time. The Remedy cured me, and I want all my friends when troubled with a cough or cold to use it, for it will do tkem good." Sold by S. J. Sturgeon.
