GREAT DISSOLUTION SALE

On account of Mr. Kay wishing to retire from the firm, he being required to give his attention to the Salem Woolen Mill business, in which he is interested, and in order to raise money to buy his interest, we will commence, our Discount Sale Saturday, December 4, and continue until January 1st, or until enough is realized from sales, to make the change.

During this sale, we will offer to the people of Tillamook, some of the best bargains ever offered by any firm in the county.

We are now just completing our new Store Building, into which we will move in a short time, and we will be pleased to have you call and see us there, where we will continue the sale.

As our stock is new, and all of the very best make, and we are selling on a small profit already, we cannot offer you as large a discount as those who have an old stock of goods on hand, or those who buy auction goods, but will sell you anything in our line for less money than you can get it elsewhere.

During the sale we will sell Rubber Boots as long as they last as follows:

Goodyear Snag Proof Hip Boots (Stouts Patent)	$4.50	Woonsocket " " "	3.60
Boston " " " "	4.00	Bay State Short Heavy "	2.25
Boston " " Short "	2.70	10 per cent off on all Oil Clothing and Macintoshes,
Boston Sporting Hip "	3.60	10 per cent off on our entire Stock of Hats and Shoes,
Woonsocket Snag Proof Hip Boots	4.00	10 to 25 per cent off on our entire Stock of Clothing.
Woonsocket " " Short "	2.70

We have everything in the line of Clothing from a $1.50 childs to a $25.00 man's suit and we can sell you anything in the Hat line from a 25 cent to a $5.00 "Stetsen" hat, but our profits have never been large enough on a suit of clothes to permit us giving away a $5.00 hat. Come and see us and we will show you our stock, and give you prices.

This is a genuine discount sale—and no fake.

The Liars' Club.

The Liar's Club held its regular meeting on Monday evening, with Vice President Clements in the chair

Chaplain Reynolds, read for the evening lesson the account of David killing the lion. He said that that story always struck him as "peculiarly interesting." "David was a mere kid, and, when the lion saw him, it said to itself, "Shee! but haint I in luck! Now just watch me slay that juicy little jew. Wont I have a thanksgiving dinner though!" Having said this he roared. He roared hard and loud, and when he recovered from his roar he expected to see Davie fall down in terror, and wait to be eaten. But Davie was no slouch. He was a sort of Jesse James kid, and after the true Diamond Dick style, he waltzed up to that there lion, and hitting him a slap along side of the jaw, he said, 'shut up'! The lion shut up. This largly decreased the size of the beast, which every one knows is one half roar. Then Davie took the big cat by the beard and, swinging it around his head three times, dashed it against a lamp post, and dashed out its brains, Then he waltzed over to the prophet Samuel. "Sam" he said, 'I've just killed a lion'. 'The Dickens you have,' said Sam. You bet I have, said Davie, and I want you to write my hunting story down in your little book'. Sam said, "All right Davie," he wrote it down, and here it is. There weren't any witnesses but its all straight.

Ex Governor Bowers wanted to know why Davie didn't take the lion by the tail? He said tailhold was all right. The chaplain didn't know but he reckoned Davie knew best, and, maybe it was a bobtailed lion any way. He said it proved three things; 1. Either David was a great athlete or a great prevaricator; 2. Either Samuel had great credulity in David's yarn, or he was rather reckless with what he wrote; 3. It is dangerous to wear a beard—If the lion hadn't had a beard, David couldn't have caught him except by the roar, and that would have pulled off.

The question drawer was opened and the following questions read.

1. What is a good test of the quality of limburger cheese?

Answer (by the editor). Give a slice of it to the family cat. If the cat eats the cheese it is still unripe; but if the cat endeavors to bury it, it is properly matured and ready for use.

2. Who were Tom and Jerry?

Answer (by Bro. Clark.) Two famous publishers of Sunday School literature

3. What is the cause of the war between the two tribes of Hoppintots?

Answer (by Bowers.) The original Hoppintots pull best in teams of eight. They require a puncher who yells and cusses at 'em. When the male original Hoppintot captures a yearling, he cinches it around the waist and whizzes around 19 times. He then captures 3 more and does likewise. He walks but doesn't prance, cavoorts, but doesn't kick.

The new tribe of Hoppintots, swing the lariat more skilfully. They rarely pull in eights, but prefer to work in pairs; they prance, but don't walk, they jump, and likewise kick, cavoorts and buck, They cinch more gracefully and, most of the time, at their disposal, is spent between the floor and the ceiling. They don't believe in spirits, They are too high for my chunk.

A member from the fatherland wanted to expound, to the members, a new theory of shooting jacksnipe, and being granted the favor proceeded.

"Shentlemans: I vouldyou know let dat I a new dog have. It is one leetle dog, and was just from his mother away getaken. He is one of the kind of dogs dat his nose out sticks and his tail stiff makes when he any thing sees. I vill that dog myself train to have a shot gun on his back strapped, with the muzzle end on his nose-end and the butt on his tail end, and a long string on the trigger tied. Vhen de dog anything sees and to a point comes I vill only have to de string pull and it vill de thing shoot. I can also in dis vay crippled ducks shoot. I vill it to you leave whether my plan not a good one is and worthy of into operation putting."

Bowers said he thought it was, but if the darned dog got things as badly tailend- to as his master he was liable to let the duck the string pull ,and his master shoot.

The County Clerk now arose. He said he hadn't spoken in the club since he told his basket and pole story, He didn't hunt much but his friend Barker did, and, he added, "I know a good dog when I see one, and a little incident that came under my observation the other day convinced me that dogs are about as near human as anything can be that travels on four legs. Barker invited me to take a little walk with him, to see his dog, Jack, work on jacksnipe. Barker has both a 10 and 12 gauge gun, and he put on his trappings and we started out, but the dog would not follow. He was coaxed, petted and licked, but not an inch would he budge. He just lay down in the yard and refused to stir. Finally Barker discovered he had made a mistake and put 10-gauge shells in his pocket for his 12-gauge gun. Just as soon as the exchange was made that dog trotted along as contentedly as though he was going to a funeral, Talk about the intelligence of dogs, I guess he's pretty fair.

Tillamook.

"We walked along for a time, when all of a sudden, in a barren field, with nothing in sight but a man picking up stones, that dog straightened out as stiff as a wedge, on a dead point, and refused to move, except as the strange man moved. Finally it struck Barker to ask the fellow his name. 'Why, Jack Snipe, was the reply; That settled it. We shot the man and moved on. Now what do you think of that for intel—"

But the rest of the setence was lost in the general stampede for the door.

The president called after the members and succeeded in getting a few of them back. They would listen to no more experiences, but sang "There Is a Fountain Filled With Beer." and sneaked out at the back door.
