"I come mighty near swearin," the deacon confessed, as he came into the house, nursing a bruised thumb.
"You don't tell me," said his wife.
"But I do tell you. I am a-tellin' you right now. I hit my thumb with the hammer, and 'sted sayin,' 'By Ginger!' like I most always do, 'I hollers olt,' 'By pepper!' I dunno know how much hotter I would have made it if it had hurt a little worst."

Insect of Intelligence.

"Flies is purty bad," said the man from Potato Creek.
"They aint' nothin' to what I seen 'em down in Niggeranger," said the man with the ginger beard. "Wire screens didn't do no good at all."
"I've stood a heap of your lies," said the grocer, waking up, "but when you tell me that wire screens won't keep out flies, it is too darn much."
"Wire screens would keep out the poremented things that tries to get a livin' out of the stuff in this here second-hand green goods an' codfish emporium, I don't doubt," said the man with the ginger beard, "but not the Niggeranger flies. When I put up my screens they seemed kinder puzzled an' settled."
"I wish some folks I know would settle," said the grocer.
"And settled on that there screen in clouds."
"An' got so thick they plum broke the wires."
"No; they didn't git so thick they broke the wires. They held some sort o' conversation, an' had a lot of fly talk an' purty soon they all way to the woods an' come back with—what do you suppose they came back with?"
"With a ax?" asked the man from Potato Creek.
"No they came back with a swarm of these here giant pinchin' bugs that do abound in that country, an' set them bugs to work an' had them wires cut out'n the frames in less time than it would take ole Skinfint there to git his hand on the scale if ole blind Billy Boggs came in to git two pounds of coffee."

The publishers of the HEADLIGHT have satisfied themselves that the people of Tillamook county do not want the brief relish of general news that appears on "patent outside newspapers" and the resume of news that we have been able to give in the HEADLIGHT is not what is wanted. In order to meet the wishes of our subscribers we have made arrangements with the two leading family newspapers of the United States, the N. Y. Tribune and the Toledo Blade, whereby we are enabled to furnish either of those papers with the HEADLIGHT until January 1st at an additional cost of only 25 cents. At the same time we have concluded to reduce the price of the HEADLIGHT until January 1st to one dollar per annum. You can therefore get the HEADLIGHT and the Blade or the N. Y. Tribune for only $1.25 This will give you all the news of the entire world, and the best local paper for less than you have heretofore paid for the price of one. The HEADLIGHT will hereafter be entirely devoted to local news, and we will be able to give it at greater length and more of it than heretofore.

Fits Cured

From the Journal of Medicine Prof. W. H. Peck, who makes a specialty of Epilepsy, has without doubt treated and cured more cases than any living Physician; his success is astonishing. We have heard of cases of 20 years' standing cured by him. He publishes a valuable work on this disease, which he sends with a large bottle of his absolute cure, free to any sufferer who may send their P. O. and Express address. We advise any one wishing a cure to address Prof. W. H. PECK, P. O. 4, Cedar St., New York

After hearing some friends continually praising Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, Curtis Fleck, of Anaheim, California, purchased a bottle of it for his own use and 48 hours was enthusiastic over its wonderful work as anyone can be. The 25 and 50 cent sizes are sale by S. J. Sturgeon.
