

PHUNNYGRAFS.

Mrs. Durbin—How do you manage to keep the same girl so long? Mine always get so careless that I have to make a change every few months.

Mrs. Milton—Well, Mary isn't a model in all respects, but my husband thinks she is one of the homeliest persons he ever saw.

Mrs. Gayburd (whose husband is ill from drink)—Well doctor tell me the worst.

Dr. Dosem—Well madame he will recover.

"Have you learned any fancy methods of skating?" asked the young woman.

"No," replied Willie Washington. "I can skate only two ways."

"Which are they?"

"Standing up and sitting down."

Mr. Timide—"And what party were you inclined to favor during the campaign. Miss Wantowed?"

Miss Wantowed (blushing)—"Well I think I preferred the 'pops'."

"I would not marry a woman who did not know how to cook."

"Oh, I might overlook a little thing like that, if she had money enough to pay my board."

Hogan—"How did yez git that eye?"

Brogan—"I celebrated me birt'day lash avenin'."

"Fredrick doesn't love me any more."

"I'm sorry dear, What's the matter?"

"He says its impossible."

Inquiring Tourist (in Oklahoma)—What kind of a man is your pastor, the Rev. Jack Louks?

Alkali Ike—Finest kind of a feller! Hain't got but one fault in the world—danged quarrelsome when he is drunk.

Is Your Wife Like This?

The other day a thin, tired-looking man entered the printing office, says the New York Journal, and, approaching the proprietor, said:

"I want to have a list printed. Suppose you write it down as I tell you."

The proprietor made ready and the man said:

"Yes. I'm sure I locked the front door." Have you got that?"

"Yes but I don't understand."

"Never mind. Don't interrupt me till I have finished. Are you ready? All right, then. I turned out the gas in the bath room."

"Well?"

"The kitchen windows are fastened."

"Yes."

"The dog is in the cellar. The servants are all in it. The stable door is locked. The cat is out of doors. I turned off the draughts of the range. No I do not smell smoke. Its not necessary to go down and see if the cellar door is fastened. I know it is. That is nobody—it is only the wind rattling the shutters."

"Is there anything more?"

"Well, I think that's about all. You see, my wife asks me certain questions every night, just as I'm getting into bed, and if I had a printed list I could show it to her; it would save her lots of trouble. Besides that, it injures my lungs to answer them. Have the list printed as soon as possible, please."

At this time of the year a cold is very easily contracted, and if left to run its course without the aid of some reliable cough medicine is liable to result in that dread disease, pneumonia. We know of no better remedy to cure a cough or cold than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. We have used it quite extensively and it has given entire satisfaction.—Olajah, Ind. Ter. Chief.

This is the only remedy that is known to be a certain preventive of pneumonia. Among the many thousands who have used it for colds and grippe, we have never yet learned of a single case having resulted in pneumonia.
