COUNTY ITEMS.

GATHERED BY OUR CORRESPONDENTS
A Brief Glimpse at Last Weeks
Happenings

Hebo

Mr. Editor:
As the high-waters and rain prevents us from getting out and "digging up" any items, we will send you a brief description of our village.
Hebo is situated on the banks of the well known stream called, Three Rivers, so called by its equality in the winter to three ordinary rivers, about one mile above its intersection with the Big Nestucca river, 2 1/2 miles from Tillamook, and 7 1/2 miles from Woods.

The Big Nestucca Toll Road runs through the village. There is considerable travel upon it, especially in the summer.
There is a Post Office and some talk of a store here, a harness and shoemakers shop, two dwelling houses, barns and other out-buildings.

The school house is not far distant. The Post Office was changed to its present situation a few years ago and was managed until a short time ago by A. W. Richards but is now in the hands of E. E. Cross, a capable and business like man. It derives its name from the so called Mt. Hebo, which, we have been informed, is not the old-time name of the Mt. If we are not misinformed, the mountain was named by the Grand Ronde Indians, and was spelled He-bo-yo, so-called by reason of the steepness of the peak-trail on the reservation side of the Mt. which was at that time the only means of ingress and egress to Nestucca country. It is claimed that, during the proceedings required to get the office established, unavoidably or otherwise, there was a mistake made in spelling the name, and as a consequence it was entered on the rolls He-bo-yo, which we think just as good as the old time name.

P. S. We forgot to mention the fact that there is plenty of wood and water here.

Sand Lake

The sun shines.
We hear the crack of the rifle in the hills around here, have seen no venison however.

Mr. Osburn has returned from Tillamook.
There will be a Christmas at Mr. Murphy's and a gathering of a few of the neighbors.

We hear that there will be a dance at Mr. Billings's.
Mrs. Shillinglaw will have a Christmas tree at her home and will entertain a few of her friends.

Mrs. T. J. Harris is improving.
Mr. J. Thompson is back from the valley.
Frank Atkinson is home once more. He says he has gone out of the boat business.

Nehalem

[From the Nehalem Times]
Henry Luce started this morning for San Francisco where he expects to go to the training ship of the U. S. Navy at Mare Island. His many young friends are sorry to see him leave. A farewell party was given him last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Luce.

Geo. Barton was in town several days this week looking after the Olsen slave bolts which he bid in at a Constable sale. The greater portion of them were washed away in the freshets and what few were left would not pay to bother with. The loss falls principally on the boys who worked in the camp.

The Nehalem Dancing Club met last Friday night in the McClain hall and re-organized for the winter. The membership roll was well filled and the following officers were elected: President, G. B. Johnson; Sec. and Tres., Wm. Luce; Janitor, Alex. Anderson; Board of Managers, G. W. Dean, Thorvald Larsen, and M. E. Ziler. Owing to the stormy night the ladies were not very numerous but a social little dance was had nevertheless. The club will give its next ball on New Years night to which all are cordially invited.

The Literary entertainment and Shadow Social given Tuesday night by the Ladies Circle was a success both financially and otherwise. The hall was beautifully decorated with evergreens and flags and a large stump and axe decorated one side of the hall while the letters W. O. W. adorned the opposite wall. Both were made with evergreens and were very pretty. The programme was not too long and was well rendered throughout. That part which especially pleased the audience was an excellent recitation by little Gertie Briscoe and J. P. Powell, comic song. There were not as many ladies who had baskets as was expected but this evidently made the bidding more spirited for eight shadows sold for $14.90. The highest priced one was $2.55 and the lowest, 1.30. After the social, dancing was engaged in for a short time.

Bay City

Mr. McCoy has been spending the week in Tillamook.
Mrs. Robt. Watt and Mr. John Watt spent Sunday in Tillamook.

A number of our citizens have been to the county seat, making their Xmas purchases.
The Truckee Lumber Co. has been repairing their wharf this week.

The union Christmas services will be held in the M. E. church Friday eve.
A walk will soon be made connecting the Cooperage wharf with the land so passengers can reach Bay City at any stage of tide.

BEAVER

Jos. Bixby is clearing off his ranch.
Beaver, no doubt, will be greatly benefited by having two stores.

J. R. Finley has just finished putting an addition to his stable.
Grace Getchel is visiting with Dora Daniels at the home of C. Mills.

E. Nest Haig and Robert Richards are thinking of going to Klondike.
Marcus Swab, who has been sick, is much better.

Mrs. Clay Daniels, of South Prairie, is visiting her parents, C. Mills and other friends.
Charley Johnson, A. W. Bunn, R. P. Bukeys and Mrs. Mary Follans new residences are nearly completed.

South Prairie.

A new minister on the prairie—Sisael, Jr.
A wedding also Fred Lowery and Miss Anna Leberer. The young couple have our best wishes.

The sale at Mr. Harts Saturday was well attended. Mr. Heandly makes an excellent auctioneer.
We regret to learn that Mr. Rogers has given up erecting a creamery on this prairie, will not some one else undertake the enterprise?

Barring the above, everything out here seems to have crawled under shelter of the rain for the present, but when the sun shines again and people begin to kick the cover off and come out, we may have more items.

There will be a regular Masonic communication of Tillamook Lodge No 57, A F & A M in the Masonic hall on Monday Dec. 27, 1897, at 2 in the afternoon for the purpose of installation.
Sojourning brethren and their families are cordially invited to attend the installation.

By order of the Lodge,
Geo. H. Handley, Sec.

An Invitation.
The ladies of Tillamook are respectfully invited to attend the bowling alley any afternoon or evening in the week, and special on Wednesday afternoons and evenings.

Important Notice
Subscribers to the HEADLIGHT will please take notice that at the beginning of the year, the date line giving time of expiration of their subscription, opposite their names, on the address, will be removed. Last year a sneaking mean advantage was taken of our subscribers by certain interested parties, when we filed our list with the County Court and the private accounts of the office were copied and thereby became the property of others, who had no business with them. To protect our subscribers from such sneaks we remove the date lines. Please take account of the expiration of your subscription and settle when you are able.

The HEADLIGHT

Don't forget the Racket store when you want Xmas goods.

Don't make your Xmas purchases until you have looked over Lamb's stock of presents including the only beautiful bound gift books in the Tillamook market.

We publish in this issue of the HEADLIGHT for the first time a new and carefully prepared description of Tillamook County written by the editor. Send it to your friends whom you would induce to come to this country.

Go to Geo. W. Phelps, Netarts Ore., for your flour as he has just received from San Francisco a large consignment of the first class flour that he is selling at $4.60 per lbl. or $1.15 per sack.

Prizes will be given at the new bowling alley for the best score for 30 games. The prizes will be on exhibition by Christmas time. The first prize will be a fine steel engraving, framed, and the second will be a box of good cigars.

J. P. Allen has arranged the office of his hotel formerly occupied by Kay and Todd, in handsome shape, "The Alderman" with Mr. and Mrs. Allen at its head will continue to grow in popularity and will easily keep front rank amongst our hotels.

The new steam tug Miami came up the slough on Friday last week and moved to the Tillamook Mill and Lumber Company's Dock. The carpenters are now at work building her cabin and putting the finishing touches on the hull. The Miami is a staunchly built boat and will be a great acquisition to this bay and the smaller harbors along the coast.

Accident to Abe Severance.

Abe Severance met with a serious accident last Saturday, while engaged about the mill at Netarts. In handling a log on the ways, the log accidentally slipped and swung around, striking Mr. Severance, and crushing him against the side of the building, dislocating his shoulder and otherwise injuring him. He was brought over to town on Saturday evening for medical treatment, and it is hoped he will soon recover from his injuries.

Friends in Astoria.

Rev. Joseph Shell, who has so long and deeply interested himself in securing better transportation, received recently an encouraging letter from the Astoria Budget, from which by permission we quote the following:
Rev. Joseph Shell,
Sacred Heart Church, Tillamook, Or.
My Dear Sir:
Your esteemed letter and enclosed copy of the 6th inst., has been received and I hasten to answer, hoping that you will overlook the delay.

The Astoria Progressive Commercial Association has so far failed to take any action on the Tillamook transportation proposition, but I expect at the first of the year they will have matters in working shape and take up the matter to a successful determination.

Your letter to Elmore, Sanborn is a healthy one and I have little doubt but that it will bring them to time.
The Budget has on different occasions published the condition of affairs between your city and Astoria and will continue to use its influence to bring about proper transportation facilities. I also hope that you will be successful in your earnest endeavors for the people in Tillamook county. You have worked hard and I am sure the people appreciate it. With best wishes for a prosperous season, I am
Yours truly,
Jno. E. Gratko.
