Success in "Striking" Titles.

The value of a striking title in an article or story is understood by no American periodical so well as The Ladies' Home Journal, writes a New York correspondent. It has made its titles famous by their uniqueness. Its "side-talks with girls," "Heart to Heart Talks," and "Unknown Wives of Well-Known Men" have been ridiculed and paraphrased from one end of the country to the other.

The title of "The Inner Experiences of a Cabinet Member's Wife" is attracting attention. John Magruder's new love-story is given the title of "A Heaven-Kissing Hill"—taken from Shakespeare, really, but who but the Journal would have thought of it? Marion Crawford's new story is called "The Dead Smile"—a title good enough to sell a yester.

"The Men I Never Married" is ticked to a new star. "The Men Under Thirty-five" made the reputation of Lillian Bell in this magazine. "Literary Passions," under which M. T. Howells wrote in the Journal, served at once to attract attention. Julian Hawthorn sends a strong story to the magazine, but with a poor title. It is immediately rechristened "There Are no Wolves in Ireland." Yes, in the title adopted by this clever magazine fits the story and is really the best caption for it.

"A Minute of the World" started that story on its success. "Mr. Beecher as I Knew Him" was an imitable title for Mrs. Beecher's memoirs of her husband. "The Gentleman Who is Going to Die" is the caption for a fresh comedy story by Clara Morris. Talk about cleverness in titles, what magazine is such a pastmaster in the art as The Ladies' Home Journal? And a newspaper man knows how difficult this art of title-making is, but nothing is so valuable in attracting the eye of the public.

According to a celebrated anatomist there are upwards of 5,000,000 little glands in the human stomach. These glands pour out the digestive juices which dissolve or digest the food. Indigestion is want of juice, weakness of glands, need of help to restore the health of these organs. The best and most natural help is that given by Shaker Digestive Cordial.

Natural, because it supplies the materials needed by the glands to prepare the digestive juices. Because it strengthens and invigorates the glands and the stomach, until they are able to do their work alone. Shaker Digestive Cordial cures indigestion certainly and permanently. It does so by natural means, and therein lies the secret of its wonderful and unvaried success.

A School Girl's Nerves.

From the "New Era," Greensburg, Ind.

Mothers who have young daughters of school age should watch their health more carefully than their studies. The proper development of their body is of the first importance. After the confinement of the school room, plenty of out-of-door exercise should be taken. It is better that their children never learn their a, b, c's, than that by learning them they lose their health.

But all this is self-evident. Everyone admits it—everyone knows it, but everyone does not know how to build them up when once they are broken down. The following method of one mother, if rightly applied, may save your daughter:

The young lady was Miss Lucy Barnes, the fifteen-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Barnes, who lives near Burney, Ind. She is a bright young lady, is fond of books, although her progress in this line has been considerably retarded by the considerable amount of sickness she has experienced. She has missed two years of school on account of her bad health, but now she will be able to pursue her studies, since her health has been restored.

Her father was talking of her case to a newspaper man one day recently. "My daughter has had a very serious time of it," said Mr. Barnes, "but now we are all happy to know that she is getting along all right and is stronger than ever." Asked to relate the story of his daughter, Mr. Barnes continued: "About three years ago, when she was twelve years old, she began to grow weak and nervous. It was, of course, a delicate age for her. She gradually grew weaker and her nerves were at such a tension that the least little noise would irritate her very much, and she was very miserable. There was a continual twitching in the arms and lower limbs, and we were afraid that she was going to develop St. Vitus' dance."

"She kept getting weaker and finally we had to take her from her school and her studies. She was strong and healthy before, weighing eighty-five pounds, and in three

A few months ago, Mr. Byron Every, of Woodstock, Mich., was badly afflicted with rheumatism. His right leg was swollen the full length, causing him great suffering. He was advised to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. The first bottle of it helped him considerably and the second bottle effected a cure. The 25 and 50 cent sizes are for sale by S. J. Sturgeon.

A Baltimore shoemaker uses the following appropriate cut curious rhyme on the back of his business card:

MAN AND HIS SHOES. How much a man is like his shoes! For instance, both a sole may lose; Both have been tanned; both are made tight by cobblers; both get left and right; Both need a mate to be complete, and both are made to go on feet. They both need healing, oft are sold, and both in time will turn to mold. With shoes, the last is first with men, The first shall be last; when The shoes wear out, they're mended, new; When men wear out, they're mended, new! They both are trod upon, and both Will tread on others, nothing loth; But both have their ties, and both incline, When polished, in the world to shine; And both get out. Now, would you choose To be a man or be his shoes?

Mr. Ward L. Smith, of Fredericktown, Mo., was troubled with chronic diarrhoea for over thirty years. He had been fully satisfied that it was only a question of a short time until he would have to give up. He had been treated by some of the best physicians in Europe and America but got no permanent relief. One day he picked up a newspaper and chanced to read an advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. He got a bottle of it, the first dose helped him and its continued use cured him. For sale by J. S. Sturgeon.

Notice of Time. I have given my son, Charles Doughty, who now is 18 years old, his time. He now is privileged to contract with employers and receive his wages in like manner as if he had reached his majority. In consideration of this I am in no wise responsible for his contracts or agreements, implied or otherwise to pay money.

HOW TO FIND OUT.

Fill a bottle or common glass with urine and let it stand twenty-four hours: a sediment settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys. When urine stains linen it is evidence of kidney trouble. Too frequent desire to urinate or pain in the back, is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

WHAT TO DO.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in relieving pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passages. It corrects inability to hold urine and stinging pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to get up many times during the night to urinate. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists, price fifty cents and one dollar. You may have a sample bottle and pamphlet both sent free by mail. Mention HEADLIGHT and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The proprietors of this paper guarantee the genuineness of this offer.

Fernandina, Fla., Feb. 28, 1893 Mr. J. George Suhner, Druggist, City.

Dear George:—Please send a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I would not feel easy if I knew there was one of this valuable Remedy in the house. I have given it a fair test and consider it one of the very best remedies for croup that I have ever found. One dose has always been sufficient, although I use it freely. Any cold my children contract yields very readily to this medicine. I can conscientiously recommend it for croup and colds in children.

Yours respectfully, Geo. E. Wolff. Sold by S. J. Sturgeon.
