

IN LOW
PRICES

IN LOW
PRICES

Our Annual Clearance Sale is over but our period of low prices of all kinds of goods is still on. Our shelves are full of staple articles of all kinds and our will soon be here. Everything in the line of Groceries, Provisions, Flour, Feed, Clothing, Hats, Caps, Boots and Shoes.

IMMENSE SPRING STOCK

The best goods for the least money.

Our old friends will find us always up to date in goods and away down in prices.

Cohn & Co.

The Leading Merchants.

COUNTY ITEMS.

GATHERED BY OUR CORRESPONDENTS A Brief Glimpse at Last Weeks Happenings

Boulder Creek

Gus Chopard went to Beaver Thursday.
Mr. Griest was down at Beaver Monday.
Rev. C. Mills of Beaver, was in this vicinity on business last Thursday.
Miss Lulu Bays visited Friday and Saturday with Miss Grace Getchell.
Mr. Bundy has been plowing his garden on the old Brown place.
Charley Smith is grubbing and so we can't hope for any good weather at present.
Mr. Getchell is at Beaver, helping to care for Mr. Ephraim Brown, who is still in a very critical condition.
The smoke from burning logs and the sound of the ax and saw, give evidence that an industrial wave has struck this part of the world.

South Prairie.

Hattie Maroli is visiting with her aunt at Beaver.
John Ely, now stopping temporarily at his brother Frank's, is on the sick list.
Scott Loomis, of Long Prairie, has leased the old Daniel homestead for a term of years.
Bertha Lederer has returned from a long visit at La Grande, Ore. We welcome you home again, Bertha.
Chas. Wells and the Quick boys are busily engaged in hand-logging on the John Neger place.
Mrs. Dora Daniel is visiting a few days at the hub. Clay is meantime—corroboratingly 'batching'.
If you have them not, order through your congressman, The Agricultural Report, now called the "Year-book" for 1896. Also dairy bulletin.

Sand Lake

Our mail carrier has made his last trip to Hembree, he now carries the mail to Sandlake.
There was a pleasant party at Thomas Shillinglaw's on the 14th, inst.
A. J. Hembree has lost a large number of sheep from a band he brought in late last fall.
L. A. Hoyt was at the hub this week and brought home two deck loads of flour.
Miss Zoe King is visiting at Tillamook this week.
A panther killed one of Mr. Hembree's sheep in M. Sommers field last Saturday.

Emma

We have had a few pleasant days this week.
E. H. Sloan is getting a long line with his road work.
D. C. McNeil is in from Dallas doing some work on his ranch. E. H. Sloan has been helping a few days.
Harry Chitwood and Elmer Jackson are helping Ted Harris build a house.
Misses Mattie Harris and Rena Ryan visited at J. D. Chitwood's last Sunday.
Theo. Arndt is pegging away at his house, it will take him some time yet to get it ready to move into.

Oretown

C. Christensen has gone to Portland on business.
Linden Whiteman expects to start for Klondike in the near future.
A dance was held at the Bay on St. Valentine's night and one at the home of Mr. Gardner on Washington's Birthday.
Emil Shiller has obtained work on a dredger and will soon start for Klondike.
A petition is being circulated to change the Post-office to the home of Mr. Atterbury.
A movement is on foot to start a cheese factory in Little Nestucca. We hope it will be a success. Let the good work go on.
It is said that there are 19 candidates in the south end of the county for the office of County Commissioner. This is one of the most important offices in the county and the people will do well to select a man of good sound judgment and business capacity.

Bay City

Rev. Potter returned home via North Yamhill last week.
Mr. Nicolletus has been on the sick list.
Mr. McCoy was a passenger out on the Elmore.
A number of Bay City people have transacted business in Tillamook the past week.
Rev. Griggs will conduct a mid week service in the Presbyterian church on Thursday evenings.

BEAVER

Mr. E. W. Brown is still very sick.
Mr. Kene and Perley Hiett went to Salmon River, Monday to buy cattle.
Gus Chopard passed through our village Monday enroute to Hebo to burn down some trees on Mr. Getchell's ranch.
Mrs. Grace Johnson, whose husband was accidentally killed recently, has many friends here and at Blaine whose hearts truly sympathize with her in her bereavement.
Messrs. J. R. Finley and P. Hiett surveyed and blazed out the route for road up West Creek as far as the summit between here and Sandlake. They report a good grade all the way. No trouble in getting a good grade through the mountains and nothing pays better, in road making than to look prudently before you make a road the best possible grounds on which to make it.
There seems to be more plowing done around Beaver than usual this spring.
Hastons shingle camp is getting out excellent shingles and cedar posts.
Richards & Hagg's sawmill is doing good work which is being manifested in the valley by way of bridges, culverts, fencing, new buildings etc. Were we to see Beaver seven years back it would look ratty, sure enough.

Coulsonburg

Mr. Frank Switzer passed through here Sunday.
Messrs. N. and E. T. Coulson went to Blaine, Sunday.
The Misses Kinnaman, of Beaver passed through our burg enroute to Blaine; they returned Tuesday.
Coulsonburg will have a larger population in the near future, as Mr. R. David has taken a ranch here.
Mr. and Mrs. N. Coulson returned home Tuesday after having paid a pleasant visit friends and relatives at Blaine.
E. T. Coulson lost a two year old colt Saturday night.
Mr. C. N. Johnson made a trip to the county seat this week.
New citizens on Beaver creek—Mr. Curt Chance and family have moved on their new ranch.
Tom Coulson commenced work for F. D. Vincent.
The debate between the Hebo Literary society, and the representatives of the Beaver society took place at the Hebo school house, Saturday evening Feb. 28th. The question for debate was resolved that, The United States Should Recognize the Cuban Insurgents. The affirmative was A. W. Bunn, R. O. Richards and E. Kinnaman; negatives, C. C. Cross, Mr. Rhoades and Mr. Lawrence. The decision was in favor of the affirmative. The Beaverites report a very good time and express themselves as being highly entertained.

Woods

(From the Ocean Wave)

Mr. Gil Shaw of this place, left for the valley last week. He will return with a new team, and freight for our merchants.
Mr. L. E. Sanders, who was shot in the hand while hunting at Sand Lake a few weeks ago is getting along as well as could be expected under the circumstances.
A party was given in honor of Miss Grace Allen's sixteenth birthday at the Riverside hotel, last Wednesday evening. Music and games were the amusement of the evening. Miss Allen received several nice presents.
Mr. J. C. Parrott, of Perrydale, has purchased a one half interest in the little steamer Kiawanda which will be fixed up in tip top shape and run on the river this coming summer. Mr. Parrott was in town some time ago making arrangements for a house for his family. He will probably rent some stock ranch also, as he has a goodly number of cattle.
A baptismal service was administered by Rev. Putter last Sunday at two o'clock P. M. in the little creek near Mr. Brock's residence. A goodly number of the neighborhood were present. A dam was thrown across the creek and while the water was rising to a sufficient depth to admit of immersion, the congregation joined in a few appropriate hymns, after which Robert Waymire and Mrs. Hudson were baptised by immersion. Rev. Putter preached Sunday night which closed his meetings at the Union school house.

Hebo

Mr. Roy Mattoon left last Sunday for the Dalles.
Although we have had an unusually mild winter some are hesing to buy hay.
Rev. R. P. Bukey preached at the Three Rivers school house to an appreciative audience.
The boys who raised the disturbance at the school house last Saturday night will confer a favor on the community if they will not fight near the house hereafter.
A meeting of the advocates of bimetalism will be held at the Three Rivers School house Sat. March 5th, at 1 o'clock P. M. to formulate plans for the coming campaign.
On account of being misinformed we stated last week that the Hebo literary society had been challenged by the Union literary society, but learned later that it was The Sea Breeze Literary society instead. Which was met and defeated by our boys on the 29th, of Feb.

There was a clash between a Baptist minister and the Sea Breeze Literary Society last week over the possession of the school house Thursday evening, but as it was known that it was the evening for the Joint debate with the Hebo people, the directors decided in favor of the Literary Society, and the sermon took place at the house of Mr. Nelson.

Nehalem

The opening buds indicate an early spring.
Wm. Tohl contemplates the purchase of a cream separator this spring; others would do likewise, were shipping facilities more regular and reliable.
Another Nehalemite for the Alaska gold fields—Peter Langhardt—who goes North on the sloop "Annie Katerina", in which he has purchased a 1/4 interest.
Ben Higgenbotham has disposed of his creamery plant to Wm. Rogers of Long Prairie.
Oscar Bergman is quite ill at his logging camp in the South Fork; neighbor Woodmen have been detailed to attend to his wants.
The 22d dance at Charley Eason's was an enjoyable event, and well patronized.
C. H. Wheeler, of the firm of Himple & Wheeler, has again left for Astoria and Portland.
Blackburn Bros. arrived on Friday, with ten horses, and a complete logging outfit. They will log the Kinney and Kebbe timber on the South Fork, and will run a camp of about 16 men.
H. A. Bloom & H. V. Alley have completed their bridge work on the North Fork.
Mrs. H. A. Bloom, whose health is much improved, has been visiting neighbor Orclers on the South Fork the past week.
Mr. & Mrs. Wm. Oliver will shortly move into their property purchased of Clement Madson. South Forkers are pleased to have them for neighbors.
Fred Zaddack is a dandy at balancing chairs, but he will gather more blooms, if he confines his feates to terra firma.

Our Tonsorial Parlor have again changed hands, and the razor and clippers will now be manipulated by Messrs Dean & Starr.
Dave Zaddack has given up his contemplated trip to the frozen North, and will either go into Blackburn's camp, or log timber with his brother, on the latter place.

Barnegat.

Steamer Louise made two trips to the Sand Spit last week.
Billy Martin and wife are spending a few days on the Sand spit before leaving for the gold fields.
Mr. Boyington, second assistant at Cape Meares came in overland last week.
Mrs. Maggie Harris of Tillamook, visited Clure Biggs last week.
Mr. Lue Reifenberg and wife, of Bay City, visited at the Cape Sunday.
Mrs. Boyington and family came in on the Elmore which arrived here on Sunday.
Leon Hubbard came in on the Elmore, returning home from Mare Island. Welcome home Leon. "Be it ever so humble, There's no place like home."
Miss Cecil Halloway, of Garibaldi is visiting her Aunt Mrs. Geo. Morris.

Wilson River

At last the sun shows its face without a veil.
Two lamps were purchased from the Methodist Church in Tillamook, and are now placed in the Latimer school house, making the edifice quite light for evening services.
Mrs. E. Glad's eyesight is failing considerably; she is almost in fear of becoming blind.
Miss L. Hauke had her dress badly torn on the wire fence while walking on the side-walk north of town. Is it necessary to have wire-fences on the side walk, so as to catch every skirt that is passing?
Mr. Kelso found one of his horses dead one morning last week.
Mr. F. Barnes, from Woods, was down and inspected Mr. B. Alderman's place on Kileis River with a view to renting it.
The road by the Wilson river bridge is in a bad condition, and is quite troublesome to those who are hauling heavy loads.
Little Annie Goldstrom got one foot badly scalded, a few days ago.
Gust Wickland & Charley Swenson are each going to build a barn in the near future.
Mrs. J. Wilson is expecting to start for this east in a few days.
R. Powers is still around buying up cattle.