Her Opinion of Him

If there is anything exasperating in this life it is the lawyer who delights to bullyrag and otherwise hospitefully use a witness, more particularly when that witness is a woman, observes the Washington Star. It is on account that there is general rejoicing when that kind of an attorney is sore hip and thigh by one of his supposed helpless victims. Of such is the following tale:

The woman was on the stand and she was a very nice motherly respectable woman who kept a cheap boarding house, and it was the desire of one of her guests to be dishonest that brought her to the court to make him pay his board.

"How old did you say you were, madam?" inquired the lawyer, who had no reverence on earth for an elderly lady, but was no more anxious to lose a board bill than a younger one.

"I did not say, sir," she responded, flushing to the roots of her hair.

"Will you be kind enough to say, madam?"

"It's none of your business."

"Objection sustained," smiled the court.

"Um," said the lawyer, rubbing his chin; "how much did you the amount was the defendant owed you?"

"Twenty-five dollars."

"And for how long was that?"

"Five weeks."

"That's $5 a week, isn't it?"

"Yes, sir."

"Five weeks at $5 a week is $25, I believe you said?"

"Yes, sir."

The witness was patient, but her temper was not improved under the strain.

"Isn't that an extravagant price to pay for board in that locality, madam?" inquired the attorney, severely.

"He didn't pay it, sir," answered the woman, beginning to turn.

The lawyer gave a little start of surprise, then became indignant at the very thought of a witness talking like that.

"Don't be facetious on the witness stand, madam," he said' assuming a tone of warning. "This is a serious matter, madam. I have asked if your prices were not exorbitant and you have seen fit to answer lightly, madam. Now, madam, I ask you in all earnestness if you mean to tell this court that your prices are moderate and that if I should come to your house to board you would charge me $5 a week? Answer directly, madam," and the attorney sat back in his chair and assumed an imperial manner.

The witness was not at all abashed.

"No, sir," she said, simply, "I would —"

"I thought not. I thought not," interupted the attorney, bending over and rubbing his hands.

"No, sir," continued the witness, "I would not charge you at all. I would make you pay in advance."

Then the court forgot its dignity and everybody laughed except the attorney.

She had serve acceptably as treasurer of the club for little over a year, and that was an exceptionable record, observes the Chicago Post.

"Don't you have difficulty in balancing you books?" they asked

"Oh, dear, no," she replied. "Why, it's the easiest thing in the world. I just add up what I have received and subtract from that what I have paid out to show what is due the club, and then I make my husband give me a check for the amount. There's really nothing hard about keeping books when you know how.

A HISTORIC HOTEL

The Favorite Hostelry in Ante-Bellum Days—Often Patronized by Abraham Lincoln—From its Veranda Stephen A. Douglas Delivered a Great Speech—Again the Scene of an Important Event.

From the Tri-County Scribe, Plymouth, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Campbell Thompson run the historic Cuyler House at Plymouth, Ill., a hostelry where Abraham Lincoln often slept, where "Dick" Yates, Lyman Trumbell and Richard Oglesby bought refreshments for the inner man in ante-bellum days, and from the veranda of which Stephen A. Douglas delivered one of his great speeches.

This article has not so much to do, however, with this historic hotel, as it has with the landlord's thirteen-year-old laughing, bright-eyed, rosy-cheeked daughter Ollie.

As one sees her to-day, the picture of perfect health, it is hard to believe that nearly nine of the thirteen years of her life were spent on the bed of invalidism, that for months she never walked, and for years suffered the pain, misery and distress of inflammatory rheumatism in its worst form.

Able physicians were employed but no permanent benefit resulted.

Mrs. Thompson heard of a wonderful cure which had been effected by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, and was influenced by it to purchase some of the pills for her daughter.

Before she had taken half a box, there was marked improvement in her condition; when she had taken two boxes she was completely restored to health. To-day, there is not a healthier child than Ollie Thompson.

The case came to the attention of the editor of the Tri-County Scribe, and a reporter was detailed to learn the story of this remarkable cure from Mrs. Thompson's own lips. She said:

"Ollie was a hearty, well-developed child from the time she was born until she was three years old. In 1887 she was taken down with inflammatory rheumatism. For nine years she was never entirely free from the disease, and much of the time was in an alarming condition. At times, she could not walk, and her spine was drawn out of shape so that she could not stand straight. One of the doctors said if she became well she would be a cripple for life.

"Dr. Grigran, of Augusta, was the first doctor who had her case. He doctored her through two serious times of the disease, and finally told us he could not cure her. We doctored her most all the time, but when she was ten years old she had an unusually severe attack, and we called in Dr. Kreider, of Prairie City, where we were then living. He tried hard to cure her but finally gave it up. He said, 'I can do nothing further, the case is the worst I have witnessed.'

"We nearly gave up hope then, but called Dr. McDaniel who doctored her after we came to Plymouth, but no benefit was derived.

"Then I heard how Uncle Wesley Walter had been cured by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. Knowing the condition he had been in, I thought if the pills cured him they might help Ollie. Consequently I bought a box for her, and before she had finished it she was much better. She continued taking them, and when the second box had been used she was well, and has never had rheumatism since.

"I cannot say too much for the Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for I believe Ollie would have been dead long ago if she had not taken them." VICTORIA THOMPSON.

Educational Men for Educational Offices

We teachers are opposed to the practice of filling the higher executive offices in our school system with the members of other professions—clergymen, lawyers and physicians. This fashion is becoming altogether too common in some quarters for the good of the cause. We hold that educational offices should be filled with educational men, just as judicial offices are filled with lawyers, and clerical ones with preachers. What would be thought of the election of a teacher to the supreme bench, or to a bishopric? And yet this would be no more unjust to the legal and the theological fraternity than would the ends of justice and the interests of religion be more likely to suffer than are those of education by elevating to its place of trust and responsibility those who are not adepts in that field, but whose specialty lies in other directions. We emphatically protest against a policy which proclaims that everybody is a good enough educator although perhaps a failure in everything else. We insist that teaching will never become a profession, will never be regarded as such nor respected as such while its most responsible places are made stepping-stones or hon es of refuge for those who are looking for something else or have failed in other callings.

The most appropriate sphere for a rigid application of our civil service reform is just here in the domain of education. Let teachers and superintendents be selected on the score of merit and fitness alone; let them hold their offices for a term of years, or during good behavior, and the "noble army" of incompetents and "deadbeats" will soon disappear from the ranks of educational workers and we shall begin to realize results adequate to the pressing of national needs. Such a reform would be the prophecy and the pledge of every other reform. Until we reform our education and the mass of those who are set apart to promote it, we shall look in vain for any substantial improvement in the administration of civil affairs generally. If brain-power and heart-power are not needed in our educators, they are surely needed nowhere else. The very last place for ignorance, incompetence and indifference is at the head of either a school or a school system.

Indigestive poisons are the bane of the dyspeptic's life. When sick, see if your sickness is caused by indigestive poisons. If so, take Shaker Digestive Cordial. This is the only certain way of being permanently cured, because it is the only way that gets rid of the poisons. You know that fermented food is poisonous. You known that poison is unhealthy. Shaker Digestive Cordial clears the stomach of fermenting food, and purifies the blood and system of indigestive poisons. It cures indigestion and the diseases that come of it. Headache, dizziness, nausea stomach-ache, weakness, flatulence constipation, loss of appetite, irritability, etc. These are a few of the symptoms, caused by indigestive poisons, cured by Shaker Digestive Cordial.

HOW TO FIND OUT.

Fill a bottle or common glass with urine and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys. When urine stains linen it is evident of kidney trouble. Too frequent desire to urinate or pain in the back, is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

WHAT TO DO

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy fulfils every wish in relieving pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passages. It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to get up many times during the night to urinate. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists, price fifty cents and one dollar. You may have a sample bottle and pamphlet both sent free by mail. Mention HEADLIGHT and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co. Binghamton, N Y.
