Kitchen Musicians.

KETTLE.

I am the Kettle that hums and sings
And sounds like the flutter of fairies' wings;
Without me the cook could not get along,
For all her goddies would be cooked wrong.

FRYING PAN.

I am the frying pan, don't you see?
Nothing is fried without little black me;
Sausages, eggs, potatoes, ham,
And often bacon, an oyster or clam.

BOILER.

I am the boiler for chops and steaks,
And for many good things the butcher makes.
I am most important, for don't you know,
If you eat fried meat you never will grow?

ROASTING PAN.

I am the pan that roasts the lamb,
The turkey, the beef, and sometimes a ham;
They are basted brown and look so nice
They are better than any sugar or spice.

BAKING PAN.

I am the pan that bakes the cake;
The biscuits, too, that the good cook makes;
They rise and brown as only they can
That are baked and raised and browned in my pan.

GRIDDLE.

I am the griddle that cooks the snaps
That are made of ginger and other flaps
Called "Jack"; and griddle cakes, too, I cook,
That make the mouth water if you but look.

CHORUS.

No kitchen can do without us all,
However big or however small;
Without us you would have nothing to eat,
But with us you have many a treat.—Ex.

A Tongue Limberer.

If your tongue needs a certain amount of acquired elasticity, practice reciting the following little piece of blank verse:

If you stick a stick across a stick,
Or stick a cross across a stick,
Or cross a stick across a stick,
Or stick a cross across a cross,
Or cross a cross across a stick,
Or cross a cross across a cross,
Or stick a crossed stick across a stick,
Or stick a crossed stick across a crossed stick,
Or cross a crossed stick across a cross,
Or cross a crossed stick across a stick,
Or cross a crossed stick across a crossed stick,
Would that be an acrostic?—Ex.

An Unconscious Humorist.

From a verbatim report of a negro field hand's song.

De parson wear a Number Twelve
(Shout, mo'ners, shout!),
En when he devi' git him
He'll stomp de fire out!

Oh, dat fire!
Hot ez hot kin be,
Parson, when you gits dar,
Stomp it out fer me!

De parson wear a Number Twelve
(Sinner, whot yo' doom?)—
De debil say: "You go away—
You take up to much room!"

Oh, dat fire!
Hot ez hot kin be;
Parson, when you gits dar,
Stomp it out fer me!

The Boy Is Father of the Man.

"Nappy-oh, Nappy!"

It was the voice of Mrs. B. calling to her son, and there was no answer, says Life.

"Oh, Nappy! Nappy-e-e-e-e-ee!" and the olive trees on the sides of the mountains looked down upon the quaint old town of Ajaccio rustled in the breezes which wafted the echoes out over the waters of the blue Mediterranean.

Who of us has not heard a mother's voice calling to her child?

And who has ever forgotton the wonderful crescendo of a woman's voice on such an occasion?

Again she called, and faint, and far off, as hidden in some cave of the hills, came the long-drawn-out response:

"Ma-a-a-a'm"

"What are you doing there, you naughty boy?"

"Nothin'."

"Yes you are, to. You're in that closet, eating my blackberry jam."

"No'm, I ain't neither——"

The boy came out of the preserve closet wiping his mouth with his coat sleeve.

"I ain't, neither," he repeated, and then let his voice fall away until it were as if the angles whispered: "I've done et it."

Thus do we see in this simple anecdote from the early life of Nepoleon Bonaparte how truly the tree will grow as the twig is inclined.

The Weakness of a Woman.

A woman who has suffered eighteen years, who has been cured after a life of misery and lives again in the sunshine of happiness, speaks to other women in words of no uncertain meaning.

Just a woman's story.

Not strange because it happens every day, not romantic or thrilling, but just a story of misery and suffering such as only women know.

For eighteen years, Sara E. Bowen, of Peru, Indiana, carried a burden of pain. Night and day, without respite, she suffered the most dreadful experience that ever fell to the lot of woman.

That she did not die is almost beyond belief.

That she is well to-day is a miracle.

Mrs. Bowen's trouble requires no description beyond the symptom, which every woman will instantly recognize.

In describing them Mrs. Bowen says:

"For eighteen years I suffered with weakness peculiar to my sex.

"I was a broken down piece of humanity; a shadow of a woman.

"My brain was tortured until I could remember but little. I could not sleep or eat and was reduced in weight to a mere skeleton. What little I did eat could not be digested in my weakened state, and caused me untold misery.

"My skin was muddy, my eyes were heavy. I was dizzy all the time and totally unfit for even ordinary housework.

"Doctors prescribed for me without avail. Medicine was recommended and taken in quantity but it did no good.

"Time and time again I was at the brink of despair. Day by day my trouble grew worse, and dark indeed was the day before my deliverance.

"A friend of mine told me about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People and what they had accomplished for others in my condition.

"It was the first glimpse of the sun of happiness through the dark clouds of misery.

"I bought a box and took them. Even then I felt their effect. I bought more and continued to take them until I was well and strong.

"They liberated me from the most terrible bonds that ever tortured a woman. They brought me new life when death was welcome.

"I recommend them to my friends, and I do not hesitate to say to every suffering woman in the world that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will cure her."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are a specific for all forms of weakness. The blood is vitalized and becomes pregnant with the elements of life. The nervous system is reorganized, all irregularites are corrected, strength returns and disease disappears. So remarkable have been the cures performed by these little pills that their fame has spread to the far ends of civilization. Wherever you go you will find the most important article in every drug store to be Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People.

Quits.

Said a young and tactless husband
To his inexperienced wife,
"If you would give up leading
Such a fashionable life,
And devote more time to cooking—
How to mix and when to bake—
Then, perhaps, you might make pastry
Such as mother used to make."

And the wife, resenting, answered
(For the worm will turn, you know),
"If you would give up horses
And a score of clubs or so
To devote more time to business—
When to buy and what to stake—
Then, perhaps, you might make money,
Such as father used to make."

EXPRESSION OF PUBLIC OPINION.

But for which the Editor Does not Hold Himself Responsible

☞ This department of the HEADLIGHT is devoted to communications received from the people and all are invited to contribute to it. The subjects treated must be subjects of general interest. Under no consideration whatever will anything of a personal nature be admitted.

A man stands no chance of being elected to the mayorship of a city unless he enjoys the confidence and esteem of his neighbors. Geo. W. Humphrey is the popular mayor of Sexton, Ohio, and under date of Jan 17, 1896, he writes as follows: "This is to certify to our appreciation of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. My family and neighbors have tested it, and we know it is an excellent remedy for coughs and colds.—George W. Humphrey." Sold by S. J. Sturgeon.

Hereafter the HEADLIGHT and Oregonian will cost $2.00 instead of $1.50 as heretofore.

I desire to attest to the merits of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as one of the most valuable and efficient preparations on the market. It broke an exceedingly dangerous cough for me in 24 hours, and in gratitude therefore, I desire to inform you that I will never be without it and you should feel proud of the high esteem in which your Remedies are held by people in general. It is the one remedy among ten thousand. Success to it.—O. R. Downey, Editor Democrat, Albion, Ind. For sale by S. J. Sturgeon.

HOW TO FIND OUT.

Fill a bottle or common glass with urine and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys. When urine stains linen it is evident of kidney trouble. Too frequent desire to urinate or pain in the back, is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

WHAT TO DO

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy fulfils every wish in relieving pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passages. It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to get up many times during the night to urinate. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists, price fifty cents and one dollar. You may have a sample bottle and pamphlet both sent free by mail. Mention HEADLIGHT and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co. Binghamton, N. Y.
