Our County Ticket.

The County Convention held last Saturday, was one of the most successful and harmonious conventions ever held by any party in this county. From the very first it became evident that the discordant element in the party, which has in the past done so much to introduce discord into the councils of conventions and to defeat the tickets after they were nominated, was in fact there was no organized opposition to the evident will of the majority. From first to last the session of the convention was harmonious and no disposition was expressed by anyone, save a disposition to do that which was best for the party and the people of the county.

The ticket nominated we consider an exceptionally strong one, from top to bottom, there is not a man on the ticket who is not worthy of the support of the people of this county. From the beginning the HEADLIGHT has advocated the utmost harmony, and harmony exists beyond our most sanguine expectations. From the beginning we have advocated the placing in the field of the strongest possible ticket and again our most sanguine expectations have been fulfilled.

G. W. Sappington, the candidate for County Judge, has for the past two years been Justice of the Peace in this district. In all our years of public life, many of them spent as an attorney at law, we have never known a Justice of the Peace who has given such good satisfaction to all parties as did Justice Sappington. He has a good knowledge of law, is of an eminently fair and judicial mind, and is a man of excellent judgment and character—just the man needed for County Judge.

Homer Mason, the candidate for Clerk, is well and favorably known to every old citizen of this county. He possesses, to an exceptional degree, the qualities of mind and heart and the business qualifications that fit him for the office to which he aspires. Homer is just the man for a painstaking, careful and obliging official.

H. H. Alderman, the candidate for Sheriff, has amply demonstrated his ability to fill the office to which he aspires. For two years past he has practically been Sheriff of this county. He performed all the clerical work of the office and most of the outside work, even while Mr. Jackson nominally held the office, and his work was done to the satisfaction of everybody. Mr. Alderman's popularity was indicated by the large majority by which he received his nomination, and he will be just as popular when election time comes.

For County Treasurer, a most popular candidate was selected, Howard Cary is one of our boys whom everybody likes. He has filled the office of City Treasurer to the satisfaction of everybody and will perform equally well the duties of treasurer of Tillamook County to which he will surely be elected.

Mr. Stephens, as candidate for County Assessor, to succeed himself, is the right man in the right place. The Assessor's office is a difficult one to fill to the satisfaction of everyone, but Mr. Stephens has done as well as anyone could do. Mr. Stephens is an honest, careful and deserving official and ought to be re-elected.

The office of County School Superintendent is one of the most important offices in the county, and requires a man well skilled in the art of teaching. Who so well fitted for this as a man fresh from a school where teaching the art of pedagogy is made a specialty. Geo. B. Lamb is a man of exceptionally fine attainments and character and a candidate of which Tillamook County may be proud. He is a native son and a worthy one.

J. E. Tuttle the candidate for Coroner is one of our rising young men, who by his own exertion has made for himself a place among men of business. He is popular and is bound to succeed in his candidacy.

A. M. Austin, County Surveyor, was very properly nominated to succeed himself. Mr. Austin had no opposition and was nominated by acclamation. Mr. Austin is a good man and a good surveyor.

Chas. Ray, the nominee for Commissioner is one of the solid business men of the county. He is a man of excellent character, good judgment and withal has a mind of his own which he is not afraid to assert when occasion demands. Every one regardless of party is satisfied with Mr. Ray's nomination and predicts his election.

Hon. J. W. Maxwell, candidate for Representative is too well known to require commendation. He has been tried and found to be true to the interests of this county. He can do more for the county than any other man whom we could possibly send to Salem. He is a thorough republican and can be trusted to do his duty in the legislature.

The candidates for Justices and Constables partake of the excellent character of the balance of the ticket, they are all right and will be elected.

War Inevitable.

The latest dispatches state that the United States has withdrawn her minister from Madrid and war seems to be inevitable, if not already declared and begun. If ever nation went to war in a just cause ours is a just one. Never since the time when Abraham Lincoln and the gallant boys in blue struck the shackles from the limbs of the slaves in this country, has such an appeal been made to the humanity of any nation as the appeal made by suffering Cuba to this nation during the last three years. Cruel, blood thirsty Spain, with a record of a thousand years of infamy behind her, has even outstripped herself in cruelty by her heartless butcheries and starving of innocent women and children in Cuba. The horrible atrocities of the war in the Netherlands and the chambers of the inquisition have been transferred to the shores of the liberty loving Western Continent and re-enacted, if on a smaller, yet on a more cruel scale, at the very doors of the United States and the world has looked on in wonder that this nation did not rise in its might and crush Spain as one would crush a rabid dog that had invaded his home.

For four hundred years the world has beheld in horror the cruelty, the perfidy, the merciless butcheries conducted by Spain on the Western continent. From the conquest of Mexico and Peru with their awful atrocities, down to the present war in Cuba her record has always been the same. The history of her dealing here has filled the hearts of all students of history with shuddering horror.

As a result of her misrule, cruelty and perfidy, she has lost every colony she held in the Western world, except Cuba and a few other insignificant islands. From holding all of South America and about one-third of North America she has descended to this, and the time has now come when, her cup of iniquity full, she must be hurled from her last possession on a continent which she has filled with carnage and woe. It is fitting that the United States should be the nation to end Spanish misrule in America. No other nation on earth would have endured what we have endured. Fifty millions of our property has been destroyed; a traffic of $100,000,000 per annum ruined; our citizens have been imprisoned; one of our best warships with most of its gallant crew lies in the mud at the bottom of Havana Harbor where it was sent by a Spanish mine, and, as the world believes, with the knowledge of Spanish officials, and our flag has been hoisted, hissed and trampled into the dust. It is time our patience was exhausted; the time of retribution has come at last and that it will be swift and terrible no one who has any knowledge of the relative strength of the two nations can for a moment doubt.

Our Duty to Cuba.

Quite regardless of the responsibilities for the Maine incident, it is apparently true that the great majority of the American people are hoping that President McKinley will promptly utilize the occasion to secure the complete pacification and independence of Cuba. There are a few people in the United States—we should not like to believe that more than one hundred could be found out of a population of seventy-five millions—who believe that the United States ought to join hands with Spain in forcing the Cuban insurgents to lay down their arms and to accept Spanish sovereignty as a permanent condition, under the promise of practical home rule. It needs no argument, of course, to convince the American people that such a proposal reaches the lowest depths of infamy. It is much worse than the proposition made by a few people in Europe last year that the victorious Turks should have the commendation and support of the great nations of Europe in making Greece a part of the Turkish empire. For the Turks had fairly conquered the Greeks, and if Europe had kept hands off, Greece would have been reduced very quickly to the position of an Ottoman province. But in Cuba it is otherwise. The insurgents, with no help, have held their own for more than three years, and Spain is unable to conquer them. The people of the United States do not intend to help Spain hold Cuba. On the contrary, they are now ready, in one way or in another to help the Cubans drive Spain out of the western hemisphere. If the occasion goes past and we allow this Cuban struggle to run on indefinitely, the American people will have lost several degrees of self-respect and will certainly not have gained anything in the opinion of mankind.—From "The Progress of the World," in American Monthly Review of Reviews for April.

Mrs. A. Inveen, residing at 725 Henry St., Alton, Ill., suffered with sciatic rheumatism for over eight months. She doctored for it nearly the whole of this time, using various remedies recommended by friends, and was treated by the physicians, but received no relief. She then used one and a half bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which effected a complete cure. This is published at her request, as she wants others similarly afflicted to know what cured her. The 25 and 50 cents sizes for sale by S. J. Sturgeon.

Two years ago E. J. Warren, a druggist at Pleasant Brook, N. Y., bought a small supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He sums up the result as follows: "At that time the goods were unknown in this section; to-day Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a household word." It is the same in hundreds of communities. Whenever the good qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy become known the people will have nothing else. For sale by S. J. Sturgeon.

In Case of War with Spain. Do you want the News while it is News.

At the present time there is still quite a strong probability that war will be declared between the United States and Spain. If such should be the case our people will wait for news from the front with breathless suspense. As things stand at present, it will be impossible to get the news at Tillamook until it is at least 36 hours old. That will not be satisfactory to our people. We must have the news and have it quickly. After consulting some of our prominent business and professional men, we have concluded to publish a daily edition of the HEADLIGHT while the war shall continue, provided that the people of Tillamook show sufficient interest in the matter and will give the necessary encouragement. It costs considerable money to publish a daily newspaper, however small that paper may be. We must have at least 150 subscribers to meet expenses. The daily we propose to publish will be a 4 column, 4 page paper. It will contain in brief all the important associate press dispatches, including of course all the war news and also a complete account of the present campaign in Oregon, together with all local news and the usual proportion of editorial and miscellaneous matter. It will be issued about three o'clock in the afternoon of each day except Sunday. The price of the daily will be 15 cents per week. We do not want any money now, all that we want to know is this: In case of war do you want a news service of the kind suggested or do you not? If you do now is the time to say so. We are not anxious enough to burden ourselves with a daily newspaper to send out agents to bore you to take it. We have published daily papers and know, not only that there is no profit in a small daily, but that it entails an enormous amount of work, but in order to accommodate our readers we will publish it if we get the necessary number of subscriptions promised. In order to test public sentiment we will give all a chance to express themselves, by signing and forwarding to us the following coupon, immediately.

Editor Headlight: Being desirous of securing a quick news service, I hereby agree in case Hostilities should break out between the United States and Spain, to become a subscriber to the Daily Headlight at 15 cents per week for at least 2 months or less in case the war shall be sooner ended. Name P. O. Address

The above coupon will not appear again. So please sign at once and forward to this office so that we may prepare for business.
