E. W. Brown is still quite ill.

Mrs. Getchel is still convalescing.

Finley and Long's blacksmith and repair shop is nearly completed.

Charley Ray, our popular candidate for commissioner, passed through on Monday, going to and from Tillamook. Anyone that will notice the business like way he is improving his own ranch surely ought to feel proud to know that we can have him for our commissioner by voting him in.

J. R. Finley is a model citizen, S. S. superintendent and is respected and loved by all who know him. He served as a Justice of the Peace in Ohio, which office he filled for years and resigned when leaving. He is our present postmaster and no one who knows him around Beaver is ever heard to intimate the least thing against him, a man of exceptionally clear sense of right and wrong, just of the right type for a Justice of the Peace. Hurrah for J. R. for J. P.

Every one who signed work on our church house should turn out now and help rush it to completion while our boss carpenter is working.

C. Mills and W. Kinsman made a flying trip down to Woods Monday, they say the valley from Beaver on down has a wonderful spirit of enterprise, and the amount of improvements in the way of clearing, fencing and building is delightful to behold.

W. S. West, our genial hotel proprietor is getting considerable custom, no doubt if many invalids in the valley knew how healthful and pleasant a location Beaver is, the hotel here would be continually crowded.

Novice: "Does learning the bicycle require any particular application?"

Old Hand: "No; not that I know of. An'ica is about as good as anything."

Martin Reynolds has a fine lot of spruce timber for sale, all in a body and within easy distance from town. Loggers will do well to see him, as he offers a bargain. 4-21-f.
