Beaverites can well feel proud to know that they get the mail so quickly from Portland. Thursdays Oregonian reaches us next morning at 9:30 A. M. Tillamook City does not get it until about 4:00 P. M.

AMACHER—At her home near Spence, Ore., Susan Amacher a native of Switzerland aged 60 years and 10 months. Funeral services took place at 3: P. M. on the 14th; appropriate remarks were made by the writer from the 1st and 2nd verses of the 14th chapter of St. John. She died a happy triumphant death, such as no one but the real Christian can comprehend. She even rejoiced as her end drew near to leave this world, so full of disappointment and to be forever at rest. She leaves a husband and 4 children to mourn their loss. They have the sympathy of all who know them.

Call not back the dear departed Anchored safe where storms are o'er, On the border land we leave her; Soon to meet and part no more.

When we leave this world of changes When we leave this world of care, We shall find our missing loved ones In our fathers mansion fair
C. Mills.

Oretown

A tramp who seemed to be unbalanced in his mind has been hanging around in this neighborhood demanding food and clothes.

Work at the cheese factory commenced May 9. Mr. Luper runs the milk wagon from Slah Creek, Mr. Gardner from West end, and Mr. Poiset from the east.
