GATHERED BY OUR CORRESPONDENTS A Brief Glimpse at Last Weeks Happenings

Barnegat.

Mrs. Nodine and daughter returned Tuesday. She has been stopping at the light house a few weeks.

Mr. Quick, Bert Biggs' son and Earnest Geinger made a trip to Bay City Wednesday to hear Elder Gue deliver his lecture on the Cuban question.

The school of Bay City spent Saturday on the beach.

Miss Bessie Brodhead of Bay City and two friends were on the beach Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hanxhurst of Short Beach are visiting at Bert Biggs.

Bert Biggs went to town Sunday to meet the school teacher who is to teach a three months school at Barnegat.

Coulsonburg

Messrs. G. T. Coulson and Gas Chopard were seen in our burg on Sunday.

John Brady returned to the logging camp at Tillamook on Monday.

Joe Hollett, wife and baby, of Blaine, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. N. Coulson on Tuesday.

C. U. Johnson and son Roy made a trip to Tillamook this week.

Miss Mista Swadd will return home Saturday to attend school at this place.

E. Rowland, of Browns, called at N. Coulson's Friday.

Road work under the management of Seth Moon is being done in a substantial way.

Rev. R. P. Bukey was the guest of N. Coulson Tuesday and Wednesday.

Our school teacher Mr. Dyer went to Tillamook on Monday and returned Tuesday.

Sheriff Alderman and two deputies called on N. Coulson Friday. Mr. Coulson was delighted to see them as soon as he found out they meant no harm.

E. T. Coulson returned to his work at Bay City Tuesday.

Emma

E. H. Sloan and wife arrived home from Tillamook Monday. They had rather a wet trip.

Sam Bauer has gone back to Oregon City to cook in a hotel.

E. H. Sloan, J. D. Chitwood and J. S. Sloan were doing some private road work last week. They were making new roads.

The Salmon river men have been doing quite a lot of free road work on the old Salmon river road. They have been working for nearly two weeks.

Our public school is progressing nicely. The school is preparing to have public exercises on the 4th of July.

R. D. Sales is now prepared to carry passengers through from Hobsonville to Nehalem.

Sand Lake

Our school is progressing finely under Miss Della Oakes' charge.

Some much needed work is being done on our roads.

The cranberry beds are looking fine. The heavy bloom promises a good crop.

Mr. King has quite a force weeding out some of his beds.

D. Rabedie has sold his home to Mr. Finigan who we understand will make his future home there.

We are looking for candidates of all descriptions here this week. No use coming. Every fellow knows how tother fellow is going to vote. They will be mixed.

T. J. Harris has gone out after his daughter Nannie. He expects to trade for a place while he is out.

Hebo

Memorial day was observed here with appropriate exercises. Not only were the soldiers graves decorated but every grave in the cemetery.

The lumber for the new school house is most all on the ground and the house will be built in a short time.

Our school teacher deserves much credit for having her school so well trained for memorial day exercises.

Many people in this community were much disappointed on the 28th., by D. DeK Bowman not showing up as per the HEADLIGHT.

D. W. Talmage of McMinnville spoke at Hebo on Wednesday of last week.

Woods

(From the Ocean Wave)

Mr. T. J. Harris, of Sand Lake, left for the valley, Wednesday last.

Miss Ethel Southmayd, who has been attending school at Newberg for nearly a year, returned to Woods Tuesday.

Krels Bros' raft of nearly 100,000 which was started up to Woods mill last week is stuck on the mud flat in the Little Nestucca, where it will stay for a full moon tide. They will start up a new raft today.

Monday evening as Mr. Jasper Smith was returning home from the speaking his hack and team went off over an embankment near F. Norberg's place, precipitating its six occupants out and upsetting the hack. Miraculously none of the parties were badly hurt, only receiving a few scratches and bruises. Mr. Smith having listened to a speech, the Spanish being a principal topic, imagined one of their torpedes had exploded.

Oretown

Gerlie Gardner has gone out to Dolph to spend the summer.

Last week the Oretown post office was moved into the new building opposite Mr. Atterbury's house. It looks like town down here now.

Mr. James Hooper has gone out to his future home near Gaston.

Ida Fletcher has gone out to Ballston to work during the summer.

Mr. Young who has been visiting at Mr. Atterbury's, has returned to Sherwood.

The directors visited the school at this place last week.

Mamie Wilson, who is very sick in Portland, will come to the coast soon.

The people of the Little Nestucca country celebrated Decoration day in a manner not soon to be forgotten by old or young. Whole families from far and near gathered at the Oretown school house at 1 o'clock P. M.

The room had been tastefully decorated with flags and flowers, giving to the entire room a lovely holiday appearance.

As the last persons were gathered in, the Woods band played a well adapted selection. The singing, at intervals during the exercises, was exceptionally good. After the program was completed, Mr. Bowman, editor of the HEADLIGHT, delivered an address, both stirring and patriotic, which awoke in the breasts of old and young the desire to serve our country. He touched delicately on the old questions of strife and grew more eloquent as with appropriate words and well chosen thoughts, he spoke of the present war with Spain, painting the pictures so vividly that none could fail to understand. Mr. Bowman has the thanks of the community for his kindness in helping us remember this day and we hope he will come again.

A procession was then formed which wended its way to the grave yard where all the graves were remembered by the relatives and friends of the departed.

The program is unavoidably crowded out on account of lack of space.

Republican Meeting at Woods.

Woods, Oregon May, 29, 1898.

Last Saturday evening, Editor Bowman of the HEADLIGHT spoke to the people of this place on the political issues of the day. When he arrived here he was surprised to find that the fusionists, with a gall worthy of an ox, had, without consulting him, announced for the evening a joint discussion between himself and Hon. Mr. Weatherford. Mr. Bowman was naturally indignant and politely told the pops that when he wanted a joint discussion he usually proposed the matter himself and selected both his subject and his opponent. He did not know Mr. Weatherford or what were his usual subjects of discussion. The republicans he said sent him out to make speeches and not to wrangle with populist orators. As a number of populists and democrats, misled by the announcement of a joint discussion had come to the meeting, it was finally decided to allow Mr. Weatherford the first hour and Mr. Bowman the rest of the time. The pops were jubilant and predicted a Waterloo for Mr. Bowman. The republicans listened patiently while Mr. Weatherford delivered his speech, which contained the usual populist arguments. Mr. Bowman then took the floor, and for over an hour, poured red hot shot into the ranks of our political foes. He took up the populist arguments and refuted them to the satisfaction of every fair minded man present. He didn't leave the pops a leg to stand on. The speech was cheered from start to finish and when it was ended a jubilant lot of republicans and a sore lot of democrats and pops went home to meditate on what they had heard. Much good was done to the republican cause.

GID SHAW.

The celebration of Memorial day at Woods was a great success. The Woods brass band turned out and rendered some excellent music. A select choir sang patriotic songs and D. DeK. Bowman of the HEADLIGHT delivered an address full of patriotism. His remarks on the present war with Spain were especially apt and stirring and aroused in all a determination, if need be, to fight for their country. The address was entirely devoid of partisan politics and was appreciated by everybody. G. S.

Boiling Democrats.

The Tillamook Leader in its last issue published the names of the voters who signed the petition nominating J. D. Edwards for County Judge, and pretended to give their political complexion. We had not intended publishing the names at all for we consider it as strictly a man's own business who he nominates or votes for, but the article published in the Leader is so outrageously incorrect that we think it only just to the parties who's political affiliations it mis-states to publish the truth. In the following list the true political party of each voter is given, as judged from his votes, actions and declarations in the past.

Republican—Jacob Blum, Charley Blum, R. W. Mills, C. H. Blake, A. A. Apsley, O. E. Dennis, Albert Harris, E. P. Wells, A. A. Harris Albert Marolf G. W. Bohyfelt,—11.

Populist—I. C. Quick S. B. Dailey C. R. Hodgdon, L. P. Rey, J. Marolf, Willard Johnson, P. Norburg, Tom Quick Lewis Morris, D. B. Quick, Z. Wells, J. F. Martin,—14.

Junbifull—E. K. Gilbert, John L. Brady F. Burkhalter, G. W. Chance, George Himes—5.

Democrats—P. D. Shackelford, Jas. Kodad, L. Simmons, J. H. Holgate, Wm. Curtis, S. Schuffman, Theo. Kingsley, J. W. Tompson, Jas. Steel, Jasper Buckles, H. Lowrey, Chas. F. Barton, A. C.
