Where Are the Benefits?

If 50 cent silver dollars should double the prices of farm products, it is questionable whether the farmer would gain anything. In that case it is not easy to see how the farmer would gain anything by the free coinage of silver. Even the wages of labor, the last to rise in an epoch of depreciated currency and inflated prices, would finally, after much distress of the workingmen, straggle up to the common level.

But whether the farmer should receive $1.00 for 100 bushels of wheat and pay out $200 for the necessities of living or should receive $200 for the same wheat and pay out $100, in both cases the balance on hand would have just the same purchasing power. But in accomplishing the degradation of the monetary standard, which could do neither the farmer nor the wage earner any good, an enormous depreciation of values and confiscation of accumulated earnings, involving public and private credit in a maelstrom of destruction, would inevitably ensue. Are the farmers and workingmen of the country willing to invoke such a catastrophe?— Philadelphia Record.

There has been no time since the resumption of specie payments in 1879 when the depositors in savings banks could not get back as good money as they earned and put in. Do they want even to "chance it" on getting 51 cent or even 75 cent silver dollars?

DIED.

BENDIXEN—On Friday June 17, 1898, near Tillamook, Mrs. Mary Bendixen aged about 32 years. Mrs. Bendixen had been ill for a long time and no effort nor expense were spared to save her life, but all to no avail. She was buried on Saturday. Rev. A. R. Griggs preached the funeral sermon.

By request we publish the followi g songs from an old hymnal now out of print:

Will You Go?

Will you go and seek for the lost ones here,
For the ones who have gone astray,
Will you lead them back to the shepherd's fold
From their wanderings in sin's dark way?

CHORUS.

Will you seek them now,
Will you show them the way?
Some one may be lost that you might lead
home
To that bright land of perfect day.

Will you go and speak to the sinner, blind,
And who walks in the midnight gloom,
Will you bear some light to their darkened
mind,
Will you tell them of their coming doom?

(Chorus)

Will you tell them, if they will only believe,
That their souls will be truly blest?
For the Savior said that they shall receive Precious blessings of peace and rest.

(Chorus)

Will you go and tell them that the Savior died
And provided for them the way,
If they fully trust in the Crucified
He will pardon their sins today?

Beautiful Land of Light.

There's a beautiful land, a land of light,
A country just over the sea,
Where the night of life with its gloom and strife
Fades into glorious day.

CHORUS

There's a beautiful land of light
Where darkness will be no more,
There's a beautiful land of light
On Jordan's happy shore
