

COUNTY ITEMS.

GATHERED BY OUR CORRESPONDENTS

A Brief Glimpse at Last Week's Happenings

BEAVER

Rev Gregory is meeting with good success in his meetings. Many are being converted. People from several different towns attended the meeting last Sunday. The meetings will continue over July 4th., when Bishop Castle will be present. If the weather remains fair, we expect the largest crowd here the 3rd and 4th. that we ever had. Those coming to remain over the 4th, should come prepared to camp. Let all those who are interested, come and enjoy themselves.

Oretown

Gerlie Gardner has returned home from Dolph. Three horses belonging to Shaffer & Hoskins escaped from the pasture of the former and have gone to the valley. Mr. Shaffer is following them up with the hope of overtaking them. Mr. Stephens, the county assessor, was in our midst last week making assessments. Mr. Roger's family have gone to Coville county, Washington. They traded their place to Rev. Balles, who will move in soon. Messrs. Gardner & Hellenbrand have gone to the valley for a threshing machine. R. S. Daly fell and dislocated his shoulder a few days ago.

The MeLa and Oretown schools closed last Friday. The two schools united and held exercises and a picnic at the Oretown school house, which was festively decorated with evergreens, flowers and flags. Dinner was served at 12:30 after which was an interesting programme. The recitations were well spoken and the music good. The room was well filled with friends and patrons of both schools who were well satisfied with the efforts of the children. The teachers, Miss Ellis & Mr. Hoskins, will return to their homes in the valley in a few days. Mrs. Cutting has gone down to Portland to be with her daughter, Mamie Wilson, who is lying very ill at the home of her Aunt.

Barnegat.

Mr. Bert Biggs, Mr. Quick and Mr. Harter paid Tillamook a visit Sunday. Mr. Anderson and his family, of Garabath, visited at the Light House last week. Mrs. Katie Harbut visited Miss Clara Biggs Sunday. Mr. Simmons, of Burnt Prairie, visited Mr. Harter's logging camp. The laundryman, of Tillamook, visited the beach Sunday. Mr. Trowbridge and daughter Ida visited the Light House last week.

Nehalem

The schooner "Seven Sisters" sailed in last week and loaded at Himple & Wheeler's mill. Wm. Blackburn has gone out to Portland to bring in his family. J M Mills is driving team in the camp of Blackburn Bros. Mrs F Zaddach is quite ill and has been so for some time. C W Alley has moved his family back on the ranch. The Woodmen and Circle committees are rustling like beavers, making preparation for the 4th. Mail-carries Sales went out to Astor in last week. His son carrying the mail in his absence. Mr. and Mrs. Bloom and Mrs. Lane were visitors at C. Pyes on Sunday. H. V. Alley, wife and mother were visiting on the south fork the past week. Mrs. Mont Babage, of Seaside, passed through on her way to visit her parents at Bay City. She came in on her bicycle. Wm. Blackburn is expected in this week with his family. C. W. Alley and Wm. Briscoe are logging on the claim of Joe Duncan. A general good time is anticipated at our celebration on the 4th. Everyone is cordially invited to come and participate. Miss Lucy Lamason, of Forest Grove, is visiting with Nehalem friends. Miss Wilkinson, who has charge of the Eye District school, is teaching a class in election with marked success. Editor Johnson, of the Tillamook Leader, was on the river a couple of days last week. Nehalem will be without a paper soon. Editor Watson will move to Tillamook as soon as Tohl & Co. will let him. J. Wertz, of Tillamook, is canvassing along the River with a history and map of Cuba.

NETARTS

Carl Baker came in from McMinnville Thursday last. He will teach the Cape Meares' school this summer. Mrs. Woodrum, of McMinnville, came over the mountain Saturday to remain here during the summer. Bat O'Hara returned last week from a two month's sojourn in Portland. His many friends are glad to see him back.

The Schooner "Free Trade" sailed on Wednesday last week. The Tug Miami towed her out to sea, but not without the aid of the Schooner's sails, as she did not have power enough. Hon. J. W. Maxwell and family, of Fairview, are spending a few days on the beach. Henry Sampson passed through here the other day on his way to his ranch on Tillamook sand spit to put up his hay.

Bay City

Mrs. O. Young was a passenger in on last Steamer Elmore. Mrs. Selon Schifman's mother, from Kansas is making a visit here. M. Petreys went to the valley Monday. Gramma Watt and her granddaughter accompanied him. Mrs. Lem Parker returned home via Forest Grove Thursday. Her sister Mrs. Sheldon accompanied her. Mrs. W. S. Cone went to Michigan for a visit last week. Miss Luella Ford is making her home in Bay City at present. The Ladies Aid gave a strawberry and ice-cream social Tuesday eve.

Woods

Woods people are making preparations to celebrate on the 4th. Peter Blake, wife, and son are visiting at Woods for a few days. The Steamer Miami is reported in the bay, she is loaded with freight for McIntosh and Chas. Ray, and will load cheese from McIntosh and Ray's factories.

The Little Steamer Kiawanda is in the hospital for treatment, she is suffering from a dislocated shaft but is expected out again soon. Gid Shaw has moved to Ocean Park where he will open a restaurant and bakery. Campers are coming to and going from Ocean Park daily. The Park is a little town of tents now. The trout and flounder fishermen are reporting good catches. Krebs mill is running on full time now. Mr. Melaney has his new feed barn finished.

Mr. Baker, engineer for Krebs saw mill was a visitor in the Park Sunday. Mr. Geo. Savage of Salem is camping at the Park. D Fletcher, Hansen and Lawrence Saunders intend starting for Walla Walla Wednesday where they expect to work through harvest.
