Last week through the kindness of the Sisters of St. Alphonsus' Academy we were permitted to examine the examination papers and samples of work of the pupils, who attended school last term.
The samples examined included free hand drawing, needle work, hem-stitching, crochet work and plain sewing and also examination papers in German and the English branches. Lack of space prevents us giving a full description of the work done, but some of it was really wonderful in excellence considering the short space of time in which the pupils have attended the school. We can not too highly recommend the excellent work done by the St. Alphonsus corps of teachers.

War News . . .

During the week, or since the destruction of Cervera's fleet by Sampson, nothing of very much importance has taken place at the front, except the exchange of Lieut.
Hobson and his men, who are now free again among their own countrymen, the exchange being made July 7th.

At Santiago there has been a truce for several days pending the surrender of the place. During this time Shafter has strengthened his position and has received reinforcements both in men and guns.
General Linarez, of the Spanish at Santiago, refuses to surrender the city, unless his army are allowed to march out unmolested. Shafter fixed the time when the bombardment would commence, unless an unconditional surrender was made and from latest reports from there the bombardment had begun in earnest, the few Spanish guns replying were soon silenced.
Sampson attempted to assist with his fleet, in the bombardment from outside the harbor, but on first trial failed to be of any assistance.

Latest reports from the great naval fight at Santiago give the Oregon nearly all the glory of winning the fight. She was responsible for the entire destruction of the fleet, and only with her assistance was the capture of the Colon made sure.—It is thought the Colon, Viscaya and Marie Teresa, of the vanquished navy can be saved to the United States.—The prisoners taken in the battle are now safely lodged at Portsmouth N. H., Cervera among the lot—Watson's squadron is expected to sail at any time for Spain. No news has been received from the Philippines, except that our troops are safely landed at Cavite.—Spain is getting tired of the war and would bring it to a speedy end but for Uncle Sam's demands as conditions of peace, which are: "1st—The possession of Cuba and Porto Rico, with a port in the Canaries. 2nd—An indemnity of $210,000,000. 3rd—The retention of the Philippines as a guarantee of the payment of the indemnity." These terms to them are impossible.

LATER—Shafter has received large reinforcements and will have his large gun in position before Santiago to-day noon.

Two Voices.

A Southern Volunteer.
Yes, sir, I fought with Stonewall,
And faced the fight with Lee;
But if this be—Union goes to war,
Make one more gun for me!
I didn't shrink from Sherman
As he galloped to the sea;
But if this here Union goes to war,
Make one more gun for me!

I was with 'em at Manassas—
The bullies boys in Gray;
I heard the thunderers roarin'
Round Stonewall Jackson's way,
And many a time this word of mine,
Has blazed the route for Lee;
But if this old nation goes to war,
Make one more gun for me!

I'm not so full of fightin', Nor half so full of fun,
As I was back in the sixties
When I slaughtered my old gun;
It may be that my hair is white—Such things, you kn w, must be,
But if this old Union's in for war,
Make one more gun for me!

I hain't forgot my raisin'— Nor how, in sixty-two,
Or throatslants, with battle shouts,
I charged the boys in Blue;
And I say: I fought with Stonewall,
And blazed the way for Lee;
But if this old Union's in for war,
Make one more gun for me!

His Northern Brother.
Just make it two, old fellow,
I want to stand once more Beneath the old flag with you
As in the days of yore
Our fathers stood together
And fought on land and sea
The battles fierce that made us
A nation of the free.

I whipped you down at Vicksburg,
You licked me at Bull Run;
On many a field we struggled,
When neither victory won,
You wore the gray of Southland,
I wore the Northern blue;
Like men we did our duty
When screaming bullets flew.

Four years we fought like devils,
But when the war was done
Your hand meet mine in friendly clasp,
Our two hearts beat as one.
And now, when danger threatens,
No North, no South, we know,
Once more we stand together
To fight the common foe.

My head, like yours, is frosty—Old age is creeping on;
Life's sun is lower sinking,
My day will soon be gone.
But if our country's honor Needs once again her son,
I'm ready, too, old fellow,
So get another gun.

Although there are in the neighborhood of 250,000 words in the English duced to 50 cents."
