

COUNTY ITEMS.

GATHERED BY OUR CORRESPONDENTS

A Brief Glimpse at Last Weeks Happenings

Emma

E H Shouse went out to the valley this week with a load of clams.

J D Chitwood brought in his daughter Lula and his son Harry from Dalles this week.

Nick Affolter is in Oregon City as a witness for his brother Arnold who is proving up on his homestead.

Ben Greenville, of Clackamas County, has been visiting J D Chitwood. They are friends of old times.

Our school picnic proved to be a grand success on the Fourth of July. The success of the pupils were beyond the hopes of the patrons of the school. There were many people out, and the day passed pleasantly.

Haying has commenced and the crops are heavy. The recent rains did some damage. The grass that fell down was injured.

Coulsonburg

Every thing is in a thriving condition. M D Swab is harvesting for C N Johnson.

E T Coulson has taken a job of slashing for Joe Dixley, of Beaver.

Miss Abbie Coulson who has been working at Joe Donaldson's for the past few weeks, spent Friday and Saturday with her parents at this place.

Our school is progressing finely.

Mr. and Mrs. D F Coulson, of Blaine, called on friends here this week.

Strawberries are still plentiful in these parts.

Several of our citizens have been attending the revival meeting, at Beaver.

Messrs N and E T Coulson made a trip to Beaver Creek Saturday and returned with a fine lot of trout.

Wilson River

Miss Annelia Freeman returned Monday from the revival meeting, at Beaver.

Mrs. I G Freeman is the proud possessor of a fine new Singer sewing machine.

On Monday, a dark colored man went from house to house, selling eye glasses and telling women and such persons who could not punish him, that he wished Spaniards would come and demolish business houses in Seattle and New York. He must have been drunk or an enemy to our country.

Haying has not begun in earnest in this place yet.

Nehalem

The tug "Maggie" with the "Dewey" in tow went out on Saturday.

The last raft Bloom and Ek took down went to pieces, but all the logs were recovered.

Mr. Eason is cutting hay for C W Alley, and others on the South Fork, with his new Champin mower.

There is a little bridge work needed done between the South Fork and Saguaw. Several teams were prevented getting down on the 4th for lack of it; and the Tillamook County Pomona Grangers will want to get down with their teams next month.

John Tuttle was in town Saturday, he drove up the beach with his ponies.

Dr. Wise is on the river doing dental work.

The county court took no action in regard to Felix Ray's petition for a ferry at his place—one is needed had enough.

Woods

The steamer Miami came into the bay and up as far as Ocean Park last week and took on several tons of cheese from Chas Rays cheese factory.

Woods and Ocean Park, both gave a dance on the night of the Fourth. The Park got the crowd and Woods got souped.

Peter Belaque has moved back to Woods.

Mrs. Mary Woods has moved back to Woods and will reside here in the future.

Dan & Tash have opened a photographic gallery at Ocean Park and invite the public to call and examine their goods. All work guaranteed.

The steamer Kiawanda makes regular trips between Woods and Oretown daily.

Hon J. R. Hibbard from Silverton is camping at the Park for a few weeks.

The celebration at Woods the 4th was a success. The oration by Hon. T. J. Lucy was well appreciated by the large audience.

"Butter Milk" Bill is building a new skill road at the rocky grade and will log there the rest of the season.

W R Robbelle one of the leading merchants of Woods has purchased Gid Shaw's sorrel trotting mare.

Ocean Park gave a dance Saturday night and every one reported having a good time.

Uncle John Barker, of Woods, was celebrating at the Park the 4th. He is negotiating with parties here for the purchase of property and contemplates going into business here in the near future.

Gov. Geer's son and two sisters have been camping at the Park for several weeks.

Uncle John Malaney has been busy the last few weeks looking after campers.

We would like to catch the fellow that got away with the Ocean Park fire works on the night of the 4th.

Peter Petee was at Woods last week and took on his usual load of fire water and fell in the river but assistance came in time to save him from drowning.

Mr. Vigil left for Portland last Wednesday where he will remain three or four weeks and when he returns will move his furniture and reside there in the future.

NETARTS

J M Morgan's family have gone to the valley to stay through harvest.

Mrs. D L Mills and daughter, Elva and son Henry of Hubbard, Marion County are at Netarts. Mrs. Mills is a sister of Geo W Phelps of this place.

Captain Geo Hunt and Mr D R Hurlbut of Cape Meares Lighthouse were on the beach one day last week.

W C Bailey of Netarts Lumbering Co. has moved to Tillamook to reside for a time.

Geo W Phelps has been on the sick list for several days past.

Bay City

Joe Warren is home again.

Mr. Lovewell, of Nehalem, visited here last Friday.

Mrs. Mont Babblage, of Seaside, returned home on last trip of Str Elmore.

F R Smith and family spent Sunday in Bay City.

Mr. Petseys and daughter Allie have returned home from the valley.

Mrs. Henry Kerry and children are visiting at home.

Mrs. S W Potter's sister, a physician from Arm Arbor, Mich., is making a visit here.

Win. Hendrix and family have moved to Eastern Oregon.

Campers are passing through Bay City in great numbers these few days.

Patriotic services will be held in the M. E. Church next Sunday morning. Rev. Dixon, of Tillamook will assist. The League will conduct the evening service which will also be of a patriotic nature.

Barnegat.

Mr. Monroe made a trip to the sand spit Tuesday with his little steamer.

George Hunt returned home Tuesday after taking in the sights in Tillamook on the Fourth.

Miss Mann, Miss Sarr and John McConnell came home on the launch Irene Tuesday.

George Squires of Garibaldi is over on his place making hay this week.

Miss Madeline Wade and Flora Perkins are visiting relatives and friends this week at Barnegat.

The beautiful Fourth has gone and haying is the order of the day.

John Simmons of Burnt Prairie is here fixing up his camp to begin hauling log for Mr. Harter.

Some campers have been rusticated on the beach this week.

Tracy Elliott and family were visiting on the beach this week.

Start the day right with Schilling's Best coffee. It has an unusually charming aroma and flavor.

Schilling's Best tea, baking powder, coffee, flavoring extracts and spices are all money-back—right here.

May 17, 1898.—Notice is hereby given that in compliance with the provisions of the act of Congress of June 3, 1878, entitled "An act for the sale of timber lands in the States of California, Oregon, Nevada and Washington Territory," as extended to all the Public Land States by act of August 4, 1894, of McMinnville, county of Yamhill, State of Oregon, has this day filed in this office his sworn statement No. 307, for the purchase of the 1/2 of 1/2 of Section No. 2, Range No. 7 West, and will offer proof to show that the land sought is more valuable for its timber or stone than for agricultural purposes, and to establish his claim to said land before the Register and Receiver of this office at Oregon City, Oregon, on Friday, the 16th day of Sept., 1898. He names as witnesses: William G. Hill, of McMinnville, Yamhill county, Ore.; John W. McCullough, of McMinnville, Yamhill county, Ore.; George W. Franklin, of McMinnville, Yamhill county, Ore.; and all persons claiming adversely the above-described lands are requested to file their claims in this office on or before said 15th day of Sept., 1898.
