

COUNTY ITEMS.

GATHERED BY OUR CORRESPONDENTS A Brief Glimpse at Last Weeks Happenings

Nehalem

A number of our citizens are away this week attending circuit court.

The Harrison came in on Thursday and brought in Chinamen and supplies for Kinney's cannery, which started up on Sunday.

The lumber saw Dewey is expected in at any time.

Rev. Potter preached his farewell sermon on Sunday prior to his departure to attend conference.

The base ball match vs. North-Forkers played at Saginaw on Saturday, resulted in the defeat of the boys; however, the North-forkers were aided by several of the Nehalem men thereby having an advantage.

Miss Madeline Wade and Miss Ethel Hoskins, of Foley, were visitors at C. Pyle's on Saturday and Sunday, and the boys gave a dance for their benefit on Saturday night. Come again girls.

Frank Kerrimans has been on the river several days in the interest of Kay & Todd. No chance for blues where little Frank is.

Your correspondent was on the Foley road last week. District No 2 is still profiting by John Hickys experience and ability as road builder. No one can help contrasting his work that he has done with that done (or not done) in No. 1 District.

Miss Blanche Morgan, who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. C. Pyle, returned home via the Organ rout, on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Eason have an addition to their family in the form of a 13 lb boy. Charles has not face enough to hold the smile, and grandpa Jack steps about 13 feet high, a foot for every pound.

Woods

The Klawanda is making regular trips between Woods and the Bay.

This little village looks lonesome this week. Every body has gone to court.

Rev. Skeels held song services in the dance hall last Sabbath, the singing was good and a large crowd in attendance.

Judge Boise spent a few days in our burg last week before going to court.

Miss Clara Cox left for her home at Silverton last Monday after working about two years for Mrs. Callier in the river side hotel.

Hardy Rock and others from Oretown were visiting at the Park Tuesday.

Uncle Geo Collins and Gid Shaw butchered a sheep last Monday and in five minutes from the time that they caught it they had it dressed and hung on the hooks to cool. Uncle Geo. says that he is 62 years old and that he can kill and dress a bullock in less time than any man in the state.

Eggs are bringing 20 cents per doz at the Park.

The salmon catch is pretty light so far this season.

Barnegat.

Miss L. L. Woodard, of Forest Grove closed a successful term of school at Barnegat Friday and left Saturday for her home at Forest Grove.

Mr. Hughes and family were camped in our beach last week.

The beach has been lined with pleasure seekers the past week.

Mr. Steinhilber and family are rusticated at Barnegat, also Miss Lu Bunn.

Miss Maile Tarr, who has been spending the summer with Mr. Boyington and family at Cape Meares left for her home Sunday.

John McConnell of the lighthouse visited Harter's logging camp Sunday. Glad to see you around Uncle John.

Mr. Harter went to Bay City Saturday on business.

Oretown

Pearl Penner and Alex Fraser were married at the home of the bride's parents on Wednesday Aug. 17.

The County surveyor and three viewers are working on the County road between Mr. Craven's place and Slab Creek. They are making some good changes but partiality is plainly shown.

Rev. Holt, Travis and Griggs held services last week in the schoolhouse. There was not a large attendance owing to the fact that Rev. Griggs had changed the date of his announcement.

Mr. Mauritzen who used to live at Estella Falls on the little Nestucca River has opened a small store in the old store building on Mrs. Dunn's place.

George Young from Sherwood is visiting at the home of Mr. Attenbury.

Some complaint is heard in the neighborhood about the failure of the HEADLIGHT to reach here, Saturday as it should.

Mrs. Jean Harvey has gone up to the Cascades where her husband is working.

Ingenious Tillamook Belle.

A Tillamook belle expedited matters with her bean very materially one evening last week. He is a Blooming Swain and he has been paying her marked attention. He called as usual and when he had been seated he was asked to sign an instrument.

"What is this?" he demanded, "A protocol" said she.

It ran as follows: "This indenture is to certify that I, _____, have been paying assiduous court to _____ and that my intentions never having been made known officially I accept this means of declaring myself and hereby sue for peace. I grant the victor _____ full privilege to retain a cooling station in my heart which she has captured by forces of arms and legally holds as a prize of war. I surrender my soul to her keeping and agree to leave the final terms of capitulation to a commission consisting of Rev. _____ and other witnesses who shall meet to settle the affair some time before the snow flies.

"Failing in this I agree to evacuate Porto Easy Chair in the ballcock of Normal and surrender Morro Castle de Heartsease and forever expatriate myself and pay cash damage as the courts of equity may stipulate.

"As God is my witness I heretofore place my hand and the great seal of a sincere kiss, so help me Most High and Holy."

He signed and the white winged dove of peace hovers about the happy twain like a celestial visitant doing home guard duty. The protocol did the business.

"Peace hath its victories no less renowned than war."

Miss Perie Wing, of Washougal, was drowned at Seaside Aug. 15, in sight of nearly 1000 people who were unable to render her any assistance.

When pretty Miss Arnold, of St. Louis, put up her rosebud lips and asked the hero of the Merrimac expedition to kiss them there was no longer any chance exercise of Holson's choice.—Springfield Daily News.

The undersigned with it distinctly understood that we do not want any hands running down on the Kelsch River, or any more yarns about taking them up for oak and then turning them loose in the dead timber;

Krupp is building five centimeters (two-inch) paper field guns for the German infantry. They are so light that a single soldier can easily carry one while the resistance of the paper is greater than that of steel of the same caliber.

People from near and far who go to the Oregon Industrial Exposition this year will see sights novel, interesting, amusing, and instructive. Fares will be reduced on all lines, and all who make the trip will be well repaid for the trouble.

"Things have changed," says the Boston Herald, since Major Shafter, now General Shafter, was captured by General 'Joe' Wheeler's cavalry and sent to Libby prison. The man who would have prophesied that wheeler would be serving under Shafter thirty six years later would have been considered daft."

An Oregon townsite man has reserved one block in his seaside resort for the members of congress and newspapermen. The lots are presented on condition that the recipients build suitable cottages and live in them during the summer months. The scheme is too Utopian to succeed. Politicians, like fleas, never tarry long in one place, and newspapermen are too poor to build summer cottages.

Selecting space for exhibits is now the order of the day at the Exposition Building, Portland. The hundreds of exhibits requires space according to their nature and size, and the exhibitors are looking over the big building with a view of selecting space that will exhibit their products to the best advantage. On applying to Supt Baker all exhibitors will be furnished with blank applications for space.
