

TILLAMOOK JOTTINGS.

Good progress is being made with the erection of the U. B. church.

Old Sol is paying Tillamook a visit and we hope he will continue the visit.

Mr. Leigh Jones, manager of the Truckee mill, was in the city on Wednesday.

Attorney H. B. Hendricks was in Tillamook's metropolis from Bay City on Wednesday.

Yellow Danvers half-long carrot seed and yellow Swede ruta baga seed in bulk at D. T. Edmunds.

Mr. William F. Balmer has been appointed administrator of the estate of Mrs. Margaret Balmer.

The subject for the services in the court house Sunday night will be "A valuable possession." Mr. E. T. Allen in charge.

Mrs. J. A. Todd went out on the stage Tuesday on a visit to relatives at McMinnville.

There will be preaching services in the Presbyterian church at Bay City, Sunday June 11, at 11 a. m. E. F. Allen in charge. Sunday school at 10 a. m.

Rev. C. G. and Mrs. LeMasters returned to the city last week from Portland where they had been attending the Christian Endeavor meeting.

The steamer Luella came in to Hobsonville for lumber this morning and will leave Friday afternoon for San Francisco. The Dewey is reported outside.

William Squires had a preliminary trial before Judge Sapington on Thursday for cutting the rope of a boom and was bound over to appear at the next term of the circuit court.

There will be a meeting in the court house tonight (Thursday, June 8) at 8 o'clock. Mr. E. T. Allen will present a chart illustrating the "Plan of the Ages." All are invited.

The team artist Heins drove to the city on Friday got mired up near Hobsonville and one of the horses went over the bank, but was not seriously injured. Mr. Heins walked home.

The schooner Chantena, which loaded 110,000 feet of lumber at the Pacific Lumber Co.'s mill sailed last week for San Francisco. The Donaldson is daily expected to load 150,000 feet of lumber at the same mill.

It seemed a little strange that the city council should table a proposed city ordinance in regard to profane and obscene language without discussing whether it was good, bad or indifferent.

F. C. Shanahan claims that the Ramlers are the best wheels to ride for none of those who rode these wheels were arrested for riding on the side walks. They must be sensible people, then, who purchase Ramlers wheels from Shanahan.

The newly formed Oregon Electric Lumber Company had a meeting at Bay City on Tuesday, when $3,700 of stock was subscribed and a board of directors was elected, viz.: President, J. Brower, J. W. McKinley, Frank Frane, R. Neim; secretary, Frank Long; treasurer, John Bodle.

When the Tillamook Wheelmen's Association becomes aware of persons swearing out complaints against cyclists for nothing but malicious purposes, or because they have a grudge against them, the association should—if it has any get up—immediately call these persons to account and expose them.

City Marshal Lahmon had a trial before Justice Goyme on Thursday to answer a complaint sworn to by Mr. A. Letcher for assault while being arrested for riding his bicycle on the side walk, the latter claiming the marshal used undue force in the discharge of his duties, having grabbed Letcher fiercely by the arm, drew his billy and then dragged him off to the recorder's office as though he was a felon ready to skip the country. The justice dismissed the case.

Angel's Dainty Dyes won't stain the hands. No other dyes can do what these will. They make home dyeing easy, pleasant and popular. No more unsightly hands or streaky goods and no staining of utensils. Our modern dyes do the work quick, clean and perfect and delight everybody. Each package dyes cotton, silk, wool or mixed goods in fast colors that won't fade or wash out. For sale at Sturgeon's Drug Store.

If the city marshal happens to be someone what indiscreet in a few instances there is no reason why the public should be indiscreet in criticizing him also. It is an unthankful office and a marshal is bound to get a number of enemies, particularly from the element favoring a wide open city. Let us be reasonable in criticism, and balance up the good traits of a man's character besides that of the bad traits. Then it is easy to form a proper estimation of a man, but we can never do so if we only look at one side, and that, perhaps, with prejudice. We can say without fear of contradiction that Tillamook City is a most orderly, well conducted town and the citizens are desirous that it shall continue so. For that reason then let us bestow some of the credit for this where it belongs, even if the marshal has not used the best discretion in some particulars.

Several of our citizen paid nominal fines for riding bicycles on the side walks this week, all of which were mere trivial affairs, for none of the cyclists knew they were violating the city ordinance in the particular for which complaints were sworn out against them; in fact, simmered down, we question whether some of the complaints were justifiable. We will go even further than this and say in some instances it looked more like a feeling of spite and persecution against certain individuals than anything else, for it is exceedingly repugnant to respectable citizens to be singled out for prosecution when dozens of others have done the same thing. That some people have allowed their better judgment to be predominated by a feeling of revenge is to be regretted, but it is a source of satisfaction to know that some of these have admitted their error. This being the facts of the case, we sincerely trust that the matter will drop here and no bitter feeling will exist through so trivial an unpleasantness.

Notice.

A meeting of The Tillamook Wheelmen association is hereby called to meet at the City hall Monday evening, June 12, at 7:30 p. m. All bicycle riders are requested to be present.

OAK NOLAN, President.

BARNEGAT.

Martin Reynolds returned home from Barnegat Monday.

Bert Biggs and family and Mrs. Esther Brammer went to the city Memorial day.

Mr. F. Reynolds and family went to Hobsonville Tuesday and returned.

Mrs. Squires, Mrs. N. Griffith and Ben Hauxhurst of Garibaldi, were over to view the landside Friday.

Josiah Biggs went to the hub on business.

"The best timetocla is at high tide," says H. R.

One of the men in R. camp lost his bearings a few nights ago while going from the mess house to the sleeping apartment and traveled through the brush all night. "A bad night for ramblers in the dark," says H.

Still the landside moves onward to the sea.

COULSONBURG.

It is no use to kick or swear, To throw your boots or pull your hair; You cannot change the sky of gray, To skies of blue one single day.

No let up to rain in these parts yet.

Mr. E. T. Coulson returned to his work in Hadley's logging camp last Sunday.

The surprise party at N. Coulson's Wednesday night was well attended considering the bad weather. The surprise was given in honor to Mr. and Mrs. Coulson, it being their 39th wedding anniversary.

The new cheese factory is running now, and from all appearances it is receiving quite a lot of patronage.

Mr. Jas. Hughey came in from Tillamook, Friday, with a load of milk cans for Mr. Borbar.

John Moon, of Blaine, is working for C. N. Johnson.

NESTOCTON

Mr. L. Knighten has gone to work for Mr. John Sheets.

Mr. L. P. Rey has been building a new barn and doing other improvements.

Our school is progressing nicely with Mr. Stanley Lamb for teacher.

Mr. Schlotter will slash some on his homestead at Skookum Lake this week and plant some garden.

Mr. Oberg has been having quite a time lately with the nose bleed.

Oh, for a few warm days to ripen the strawberries.

Those who enjoy a picnic and a ride on the new plank road will find Nestocton falls a very pretty place to go and spend the day.

Mr. Schields and B. Turner are getting out timber to build new barns. Nestocton is improving gradually and we think by the time the railroad gets here we will be up with the times.

BEAVER.

Beaver is all alive, improving as never before. Our new road down through J. D. Wallace and E. W. Brown's places is nearly complete with Squire Finley at the helm. By the first of next week it will be open for travel.

Last week several persons had something like scarletina, but they all are getting well again.

From what we can learn Blaine is going to take the lead, at least on the Christian Sabbath question. Saint and sinner refuses to haul or have hauled any milk to the cheese factory on Sundays. Many a cheese maker in this county would rejoice if all would follow suit.

Beaver had, indeed, three agreeable surprises on Tuesday of this week, as follows: Along in the afternoon it was whispered that Elder C. G. LeMasters, of Tillamook city, would address the people in the evening; the second was the unusual large audience that gathered at the new U. B. Church; and the third was simply this, notwithstanding the Elder had hitherto made for himself a good record as a speaker, but, bless you, this was a record breaker. The facts are, he outstripped himself, for in about one and one half hour he gave us all the cream of the sayings and doings of the late Christian Endeavor work held at Portland recently, and closed with an object lesson.

Weather Bureau Burlesque.

We have been recently shown a copy of an "inquiry circular" soon to be issued to its regular correspondents by the Oregon Weather Bureau, and as its contents may be of some interest to readers of THE HEADLIGHT, herewith please find appended contents of the same, near as memory permits.

Section. Circular No. 1. Portland, Ore., June, 1896.

Correspondents Western Oregon. GENTLEMEN.—In view of the present unprecedented and continuous accumulations of atmospheric humidity, resulting in a fall of vaporous condensations hitherto unknown in the state of Oregon, a further continuation of which in the judgment of this department will bring about far reaching and valuable benefits to our citizens, we therefore deem it essential to send you this inquiry circular, trusting that you will note carefully the questions therein contained, and as carefully answer them, in the interest of, and looking toward a proper solution of, the cause, together with conclusions, as to the ultimate consequences of the unparalleled atmospheric conditions that now enshroud us.

Question No. 1.—When did you see the sun rise last in your vicinity?

No. 2.—What time of day did it occur, also describe any attendant phenomena observed at the time?

No. 3.—Has it become apparent to you that the complexion of the female portion of the population in your neighborhood was gradually turning white or yellow; also that the general color of the landscape was assuming a greener hue than ordinarily. State clearly your observations in the lines of this question, especially and without excitement, that pertaining to the first sub-division of this question?

No. 4.—Has there been observed in your territory a geological transportation of altitudes toward lower levels, commonly termed "slides" of late, if so, are the fractures general, or confined to distant parts; also is the motion (usually downward) of such detached surface bodies, glacial, or rapid—or both?

Replies of correspondents to the above questions must be in all cases accompanied by sworn affidavits, mere allegations will not be noticed.

(Note explanatory of No. 3. Females from their constant indoor occupations and habits, are, as a rule, when compared with man, very light in their complexions. Shade then being conducive of whiteness, it must consequently follow as a scientific proposition, founded upon optical laws, that a continuance of dense cloud in our atmosphere will result in our females turning clearly white, extreme cases, probably yellow. A reasonable presumption following that females of hypochondriacal, or low spirited temperaments will turn blue.)

(Note explanatory of question No. 4, the "slides" alluded to in this important question are caused by the slipping of usually post tertiary, and some times marl deposits, upon strata formations of the old devonian age, at which time when great amphibia disported their huge forms amidst names of the cotemporaneous Paleozoic sea, this form of life extending through millions of years, their dead bodies creating an oily stratum, upon the then bottom of that vast mysterious ocean; upon this deposit came later formations, as the carboniferous, the marls, tertiary, vegetable soils, &c. This huge—we may properly term "grease spot," in the judgment of this department, underlies the soil and marls of all western Oregon. Now water as an effect of long continued rainfall, will percolate through nearly all surface formations, the liquid penetrating down to the layer of animal matters, a chemical action at once takes place, the oil softens, enters into a struggle to get on top of water, and the result is an upheaval or sliding away of the upper encumbrances.

Now the idea that we wish to sustain promulgated through the gathering of more data, &c., bearing upon the subject, is that soon all our forest tracts will have started, or will be in process of starting with a greater or less motion, away toward the rivers, the sea-board and ocean, where at proper points vast milling enterprises will only have in their glenning, the easy difficulty of separating the good from the detritus as it floats by on the ebbing tides. Now is it not truly wonderful that this should have been laid the foundations of a gigantic logging scheme in that old devonian age, two hundred millions of years ago.)

Inasmuch as this department has of late become anxious to establish its theory of a beneficent permanency to the aqueous cloud cap, now hovering over western Oregon, we trust that correspondents will be critical in their replies to this circular, and forward the same without delay.

B. S. PAGE, Section Director.

NEHALEM.

The schooner Albion is loaded and ready for sea.

Julius Lentke has purchased a De Laval cream separator; it will be set up in the creamery for a short time, so that those interested may see it operated.

Wm. Oliver is collecting milk and cream on the South Fork; "Doc" Alley is doing the same on North Fork.

Several farmers are just now planting late potatoes.

Miss Tracy Wilkinson, who taught school in the Pys district last year, will teach the Sandhill school this season.

Mr. Jake Ripley and family have moved down on to the Peterson place on the Miami.

Mr. Knight and family, of Bay City, have moved onto Felix Roy's place at Foley mouth, who will take a vacation this summer.

Miss Estella Hunt, a daughter of Mrs. C. W. Alley, was recently married to a Mr. Hill, of Warrenton, Clatsop Co.

The school-ma'ams are drilling their pupils in exercises for Children's day.

A body of Woodmen gave Sweet Brier Circle, No. 40, a very agreeable surprise at its last gathering on Friday by invading their hall with lunches and refreshments of all kinds. After refreshments were served Consul Commander Lundburg made a short address on the relation of camp and circle, followed by the Past Consul S. M. Batterson, a few well chosen remarks on wood craft by Clerk, S. Scovell, Woodmen song by Banker Cobb and instrumental music by Professor Linehart. The evening was pronounced a very enjoyable one by all. It is needless to say the Circle appreciated the surprise and asked the Woodmen to come again.

NETARTS

Mr. C. M. Celler, of Astoria, was at Netarts Sunday on business.

Messrs. Joseph Gupitt, Theo. Steinhilber and Geo. Allendorf went to Tillamook Saturday.

The sawmill is running and will soon have a cargo of lumber out.

Emmett Tillack, of Tillamook, was at Netarts Sunday.

Mr. Geo. Woodruff has sold out his interest in the logging camp to John Simmons, who will do the logging in the future for the Netarts saw mill.

W. H. Teneyck went to Nehalem Saturday last on business, returning Tuesday.

Leave This Week.

MANILA, June 6.—The Second Oregon is being brought back to Manila to prepare to embark on the transports for the journey home. The regiment is expected to leave the last of this week, and will go direct to Portland, where it will be mustered out.

The inhabitants of San Teresa did not leave town, but met Halls brigade as friends. A large number of the natives passed through the American lines, returning to Antipolo.

Hall's march was very difficult and there were many cases of prostration of American soldiers by the heat. The brigade arrives in Morong at 11 o'clock yesterday, and found that Colonel Wholley, with the First Washingtons, had captured the town the day before, killing 123 natives.

The Napidan and Covadonga, the iron-clads, shelled the place and were answered by artillery fire. One shell was put through the Covadonga.

A detachment of the Washington regiment, while on a scouting expedition lost one man killed and one wounded, and killed one officer and four men of the insurgents.

The court of cassation at Paris rendered a verdict in favor of revision of the Dreyfus case and ordered a court martial to sit at Reemes, 60 miles from Nantes for the trial of the prisoner.

Requests have come to the war department that no persons dying on transports coming to or going from the United States to Manila, shall be buried at sea. The secretary of war has taken this matter up and an order to that effect has been issued.

Germany, it is announced, pays Spain 27,000,000 pesetas for the Carolines, Pelew and Marianne islands, Spain retains three coaling stations, one in each group, and Germany undertakes to defend these stations in case of war. Germany, in addition, grants Spain the most favored-nation treatment in Germany and in the Colonial islands.

Representative David B. Henderson, of Iowa, has received enough pledges by telegraph and mail to give him 102 votes in the republican caucus when it meets in Washington for the election of a speaker of the house. As 93 votes constitute a majority of the republican representation in the house, Colonel Henderson has nine to the good, and more states to hear from.

The probable election of Henderson for speaker is not favorable to the Nicaragua canal. The manner in which his candidacy has been pushed would indicate that the powerful interests that have heretofore prevented action in the house for the canal have been at work with considerable success. While Henderson is quoted as being in favor of the canal, which is the most important thing, Henderson will be more apt to follow in the footsteps of Reed than any other of the men who have been candidates.

Chinese Marks on Tickets Said to Be Descriptions of Customers.

"Most people suppose," said an ex-Californian to a New Orleans Times man, "that the vertical row of hieroglyphics on a Chinese laundry check are merely so many numerals. As a matter of fact, they are nothing of the kind, but constitute a brief and spicy description of the individual who left the bundle. If you will take the trouble to notice it, you will see that the laundryman always goes through, exactly the same program. He takes the package, gives you a swift, comprehensive glance and then proceeds to decorate a slip of rice paper with from two to five India ink chicken tracks. What he has really written is probably something like this:

"Fat foreign devil who resembles a pig; squinty eyes and wart on the left side of his nose."

"You can carry around this flattering pen portrait, innocently imagining that it reads 'No. 4-11 44,' and when you call for your wash you will find that the Chinaman who receives the ticket will invariably look you over, making mental comparison before he reaches for the bundle. A Mongolian friend of mine out in 'Frisco put me on to the scheme and I took the trouble to ascertain whether he was telling me the truth. I got a laundry slip, copied it with a microscopic fidelity and submitted it to several expert native translators. They all agreed that it ran something like this:

"Ridiculous old man; very pompous; bald head like a speckled egg."

"You will observe that my hair grows rather high on my forehead and I have few freckles though, nothing to justify such an insulting description. However, it proved the point. The next ticket I got declared I was an elderly gentleman resembling Yun-Tai, the w'nd god," which pleased me immensely until I persuaded a native curio dealer to show me a statuette of the deity. Then I wanted to murder the laundryman. The Chinese are deep people, boys. They look as demure as guinea pigs, but all the while they are quietly sizing us up and having a big laugh in their sleeves."

There is every reason to believe that Simon Hedrichson and his son, Albert, were carried out to sea from the Columbia Tuesday of last week and drowned. They have fished several years for the Eureka & Epicure Company, but this season were working for the combine. Tuesday night they were seen drifting near the bell buoy off Peacock spit. The weather was very severe at the time and neither they nor their boat have been seen since. Hendrichsen had a wife and five small children living at Beaver, Or.

Our foreign commerce in the fiscal year 1899 will be even more remarkable than that of the wonderful year 1898. Our exports in 1898 averaged more than $200,000,000 per month, and were nearly $300,000,000 greater than those of any preceding year in our history. And this happened when the whole world, aside from the United States, was short of breadstuffs and was looking to the United States with an unusually good crop for its supply.

A disastrous fire broke out at Republic Wash. Sunday morning, and before the flames were brought under control the damage amounted to $250,000. At noon today the business portion of the town is a mass of smoldering ruins, while on three sides are rows of scorched buildings marking the path of the flames. The fire-fighting apparatus could not check the blaze, and it was "only used to save some of the buildings outside the fire zone that were smoking and breaking into flames at times. The fire started by the explosion of a gasoline stove in the Siegel building.

TIMBER LAND, ACT JUNE 3, 1878.—NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION.

United States Land Office, Oregon City, Oregon.

Notice is hereby given that in compliance with the provisions of the act of Congress of June 3rd, 1878, entitled "An act for the sale of timber lands in the States of California, Oregon, Nevada and Washington Territory," as extended to all the Public Land States by act of August 4, 1892.

ALBERT WOLD, of Silvana, county of Snohomish, State of Wash., has this day filed in this office his sworn statement No. 4093, for the purchase of the Lots 3, 4, 5 and 6, of Section No. 12, in Township No. 7 N. and Range No. 7 West, and will offer proof to show that the land sought is more valuable for its timber or stone than for agricultural purposes, and to establish his claim to said land before the Register and Receiver of this office at Oregon City, Oregon, on Tuesday, the 5th day of September, 1899. He names as witnesses:

John E. Husby, of Florence, Snohomish co., Wash.; John E. Husby, of Florence, Snohomish co., Wash.; Albert Wold, of Arlington, Snohomish co., Wash.; and Joseph Britton, of Arlington, Snohomish co., Wash.

Any and all persons claiming adversely the above-described lands are requested to file their claims in this office on or before said 5th day of September, 1899.
