A double wedding which occurred near Malinta, O., last week was decidely unique. Two daughters of Henry Dipcomb had for some time been receiving the attentions of a couple of young men from Pulton county. The daughters are the attentions of a couple of young men from Fulton county. The daughters are Frances and Mary, the former finally becoming engaged to George Laflam and the latter in time to his boon companion, David Reudice. The sisters were very devoted, while the two young men have been from boyhood inseperatable chums.
