TILLAMOOK JOTTINGS.

Dr. Wise, resident dentist.
Mr. T. J. Harris was in from Sandlake this week.
Mr. M. A. Cady was in from Blaine on Wednesday.
Mr. Claude Thayer returned home on Sunday from Portland.
Mr. Chas. Pye was in the city on Wednesday from Nehalem.
Mr. J. F. Dawson, a cattle man, is in the city from Sheridan.
Mr. Clark Hadley returned from Portland on the stage Sunday.
Mr. L. C. Thompson came in from Yamhill county on Monday.
Captain W. H. Stark, of the steamer Lagona, was in the city yesterday.
Sheriff Alderman went out on Sunday to attend a case in the next county and returned on Wednesday.
Consult B. C. Lamb, the local railroad agent, if you want to save money on a railroad ticket.
Mr. M. M. Reed and family arrived in this city from Gregory Landing, Mo., to locate in this county.
A glove contest is to come off at the opera house on Saturday between W. E. Martin and John Paquet.
"Giant" Rhubarb Roots, 15 cents each, $1 for 10, postpaid. Address E. A. Chamberlain, Woods, Or.
Messrs. F. W. Preston, of Warrenton, and R. Carruthers, of Astoria, cattle buyers, were in the city on Saturday.
The latest in millinery, belts, neckwear, furnishing goods, etc., will be displayed at Mrs. Sturgeon's upon arrival of next boat.
Mr. J. F. Brower was in the city Wednesday and informs us that the electric saw mill is likely to start up in about six weeks.
James Kimball and Paul Burkenfeldt, for getting into a pugilistic encounter on the street, were each fined $6 after pleading guilty.
Strong, well-rooted Sharpless Strawberry Plants, 20c. per dozen, $1 for 100, postpaid. Address, E. A. Chamberlain, Woods, Or.
It is expected that it will take about three months to dredge out a channel at Drystocking bar four feet below zero and sixty feet wide.
Mr. and Mrs. P. McIntosh left the city on Thursday of last week, the former on a business trip and the latter to visit friends for several weeks in Portland. Mr. McIntosh returned this morning.
Go to McIntosh & McNair's for stoves and heaters. Latest improvements and designs. Call and see us if you want hardware, wagons, buggies or farm implements.
Mammoth Sage, yields many times more than the ordinary varieties; strong one year old plants 15c. each, 3 for 30c., prepaid. Address E. A. Chamberlain, Woods, Or.
Captain P. Schrader went out on the stage to return to Portland to look after the building of the new steamer. Mr. J. Smith and Mr. W. West were also passengers on the stage this week.
We are glad to hear that the city council at its next meeting will give Mr. T. H. Goyno the necessary number of votes to make his election as city attorney legal, and that now everything is likely to proceed with the best of feeling and good will.

A divorce suit was filed on Tuesday in which Sarah T. Smith sues her husband, Allen N. Smith, on the grounds of ill-treatment. The parties were married in the Cherokee Nation, Indian Territory, about September 1881, and lived together until April, 1899.
The owner of the wrecked lumber schooner Lila and Mattie is expected in this city from San Francisco to look after his interest in connection with the disposal of the wreck. All the information the owner received from the captain was that the schooner was on the sands.
Eighty acres of good land for only $250, being Se 1/4 of Ne 1/4 and Ne 1/4 of Se 1/4, sec 16, tp 2 S, R 10 W, being 1 1/2 mile east of Netarts Bay. This is covered with very heavy spruce timber, with some hemlock. Also eight lots in this city to exchange for Tillamook property.—H. W. Cottle, Escondido, Cal.
Mr. W. D. Gladwill, one of the new settlers in the south part of the county, was in the city on Tuesday. What surprises him most is the small amount of feeding to be done in the winter with tons of hay left over. He expects to purchase the Mowers place and erect a small cheese factory.
Elder J. B. Lyster is expected in this city to hold a series of meetings at the Christian church about the 1st of May. The rev. gentleman held services here about twelve months since, and his discourses were highly interesting and logical. We understand an effort is being made to secure him as pastor of the Christian church.
Mr. Samuel Haze and son, of Lafayette, Oregon, and formerly of San Francisco, arrived here on Tuesday and has gone to work for Ralph Ackley. He is a skilled harness maker, and does carriage trimmings and upholstering. A skilled harness maker in the city will be appreciated. He will move his family here as soon as the roads will permit.
We received a letter last week containing the names of 21 persons living in Minnesota who wanted to know something about Tillamook county before starting for the Pacific Northwest. It may be that the special edition of the Headlight will be instrumental in inducing this batch of dairymen to locate in this county, for we fired a copy of that issue at each of them.
Mr. L. Hiner has disposed of his interest in the Tillamook machine shop to Messrs. H. Haden and A. K. Case, who have taken charge of the business. It is the intention of the new firm to enlarge the plant, and being practical machinists and blacksmiths will make preparations to do most of the heavy work here in the city, which previously had to be sent to Astoria or Portland. They propose also to put in a foundry, which will not only be a valuable acquisition to their plant, but a great convenience to those who want castings in this county. Being thorough practical machinists, with plenty of enterprise, we predict that the new firm will turn out a success.
Every editor makes enemies. A little squib, aimed at no one in particular, will hit some hollow-headed individual, and he at once declares himself "agin" the paper. The paper may have given him many complimentary notices, but the imaginary thrust puts him on his dignity, and he at once establishes himself as a critic, but he hasn't enough nerve to go to the editor with his supposed grievance. Just notice and you will see that the men who are "agin" their own paper are, as a rule, men who would not be missed if they would leave the community forever. On every question of local interest the home paper stands ready to make a fight for the best interests of the greatest number of the citizens at its back.—Ex.

Rev. R. K. Ross and Mrs. Ross were tendered a farewell reception on Tuesday in Todd's hall by the ladies of the Presbyterian church, which a large number of members and friends attended. Mayor D. J. Wiley presided, who expressed regret that Mr. and Mrs. Ross were about to leave them, and after the reception the audience was entertained with songs by Misses Pauline Alderman, Blanch McNair, Lily Baker and Mrs. Allen, and recitations by Misses Frankie Drew, Ruth Eddy and Annie Edie. Then the ladies served refreshments and a pleasant time followed. Mr. B. L. Eddy made a few remarks, wishing that heaven's blessing would rest upon Mr. and Mrs. Ross in their new field of labor, when a cordial leave taking followed. They left on the stage Wednesday for Portland, where in all probability Mr. Ross will become pastor of Westminster church.

Our Nehalem correspondent writes: At the regular Republican Primary held at the usual time and place, presided over by the Committeeman Jas. S. Gray, the following delegates were elected: Jas. L. Gray, Wm. Batterson, N. P. Alley, Chas. Pye, D. C. Peregoz, and Herman Tubessing, N. P. Alley was nominated for Road Supervisor, and Chas. Pye for Committeeman.
The Newell and Tohl gang, who held the primary ahead of time two years ago and defrauded twenty-five straight Republicans out of their vote, being hopelessly in the minority this time, brought fifteen democrats and populists into the primary, and still being beaten on the first ballot for chairman, bolted, taking all the dems, and pops, with them, and held another meeting in Tohl's store, and elected another set of delegates as follows: Henry Tohl, P. D. Newell, Fred Zaddach, Ed. Lane, D. H. Vedber and H. V. Alley, and nominated J. R. Hicks, a life-long democrat and an appointee from the democratic ranks as a judge of election, for Road Supervisor.

Every delegate to the republican convention should remember that an efficient lot of county officials is a credit to the county and a protection to the taxpayers' pocket, and that, and for no other reason, is why the Headlight has been so pronounced in favor of the officials seeking renomination, viz.: H. H. Alderman for sheriff; Homer Mason for county clerk; J. S. Stephens for assessor; W. H. Cary for treasurer; G. B. Lamb for school supt.; and A. M. Austin for surveyor. As Commissioner Wheeler does not appear to want the nomination, it is not our purpose to boost untried men for county commissioner. If the convention makes a mistake and nominates a tax-eater for commissioner the republican party will be held responsible for the increase in taxation in this county, so it is imperative that the person who is nominated to this position be a citizen with backbone—one who has not only made a success of his own business, but who has the ability to help make a success of the county's affairs as well.

Someone has let the cat out of the bag and shown which way the anti-Tongue politicians want to make the convention jump on Saturday by this paragraph which was sent from this city to the Evening Telegram: "As Tillamook has no candidate for congress, it is hard to say who is the favorite, but it lies between Tongue and Hewitt, with a slight percentage in favor of Tongue." Now to be critical and sarcastic, Was this paragraph written for the purpose of pandering to a certain faction, to tickle their fancy or to work a graft? What nonsense, to say that Tongue has only a slight percentage over Hewitt. Obliterate a small faction and Hewitt could not get a corporal's guard throughout the county, for the sentiment of Tillamookers is so overwhelmingly in favor of Tongue that none of the aspirants can get the thin edge of their political wedge in to accomplish anything. It is only disgruntled politicians, those who cannot pull the wires to suit themselves, and those who pander to them for graft, who are opposing Tongue in this county for personal reasons. We ask any intelligent body of Tillamookers, who are broad minded, if it is not to the best interest of the county to keep Tongue in congress?

It is as hard for the Republican party to let go of Protection as it was for the Democratic party to let go of Slavery. Yet the former is as clearly an economic evil as the latter was—though it lacks some of the grosser evils on the moral side. Protection, however, is doomed, as Slavery was; and this effect to protect some of the people under the flag of the United States against others—and at the expense of others under the flag of the United States, reveals the error and enormity of the whole system. Even when you examine its work and its results at home, what is Protection but an invocation of the powers of Government to rob the whole people for the benefit of a particular interest? There has been no such revelation of the true character of Protection to the people of the United States as they have in this Puerto Rican outrage.—Oregonian.

If some people would only put the same amount of energy in their occupation as they put in politics, there would be fewer political hums around, henchmen to do their dirty work, and those who are too lazy to make an honest livelihood for themselves but who want to chew at the taxpayers' expense all the time.

The Headlight is not a tool in the hands of any political faction in this city. When we recommend certain individuals for public office we do so because we think it is to the best interest of Tillamook and the taxpayers' pockets. Political-wire pullers have no strings on the Headlight.

We understand it is the intention of the Newell delegation from Nehalem to nominate Mr. Henry Tohl for county commissioner. If, however, that delegation is not seated it will have a hard proposition before it, or even it was we doubt whether Mr. Tohl can make it.
