BOULDER CREEK BUBBLES.

Mr. Lucas's brother has moved his family into E. O. Mills' house. Our school is progressing nicely under Miss Nash's rule. Rev. Blalock and wife visited at the Smith home last week. The county surveyor has been doing some work in our neighborhood lately. Will Thune has returned from the valley and is milking for John Borba. Mrs. Chopard visited her friend, Miss Lulu Bays, last Monday and Tuesday. Rev. R. Y. Blalock preached to a goodly congregation, at Wolf Creek school-house, last Friday night. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Jackson came up from Beaver the first of the week and are once more at home to their friends. Mrs. Maggie Nicklaus was down from the Mt. Hebo ranch Monday. Mrs. Roza Borba is suffering with sore eyes. Messrs. Mills & Dollarhide were seen on our street Monday. Morris Bays visited his sister, Mrs. Della Jensen, last Sunday week. Mr. Nicklaus and son Fred went out to Sheridan Monday. Miss Lucy Kinneman was in our neighborhood one day last week. Surveyor Austin made a bad break when he came out here, so near election time, without supplying himself with a few cigars to be distributed. Of course it made no difference to your correspondent, as she neither smokes nor votes, but there are other Boulderites who do, you know. Mr. George Lucas has been plowing for John Borba lately. Mr. Hughey brought a band of milk cows out to his ranch a week or so ago. The political pot is boiling briskly, and so are some of the voters.

BLAINE.

Rev. Mills, of Beaver, was seen on our streets on his way to Sheridan. Our school is progressing nicely with Miss Payne as teacher. Since the weather has cleared up the crops are beginning to grow fine. Rev. Dollarhide, of Beaver, was a caller on Herb Chapman this week. Our city at present is a very lively place; not a vacant house to be had. Mr. J. R. Dillows left here Monday for Amity where he will leave his family and then go to California. Herb Chapman is working in the logging camp. Mr. Henderson and Mr. Stewart, of Sheridan, rented the Moore and Dillow places, where they intend to raise cattle. Mr. Seth Moon will soon start his cheese factory. Conviction looks very strong as our constable was seen with a load of honey and the queen of bees has a search warrant out. Quite a number from Boulder creek and Beaver attended the service here last Sunday. John Moon is working for George Smith.

NEHALEM.

Miss Lois Ford closed a successful term of school in the Union Peak district on Friday last, and commenced teaching in the Pye district on Monday, where she has been engaged for a five months term. Mrs. H. A. Bloom is preparing to leave on Thursday next, to join her husband in Hoquiam, Wash. Mr. A. Crawford is putting in crops on the place rented of W. Oliver, on the South Fork. L. M. Batterson made final proof on his homestead, on Necahni mountain, on Saturday last. Domingo Goularte came in on Tuesday to get some legal work done. Surveyor Austin is visiting with friends on the North Fork. He has also been doing some work for B. A. Todd.

KILCHIS RIVER.

Ralph Ackley, of Tillamook, made a trip up to the Mapes tannery for harness leather one day last week. Orie Mapes made a business trip to Hobsonville last Friday. The Kelchis River School is progressing nicely under the management of the new teacher, Miss Edith Hargrave. There is an attendance of eighteen pupils, eight girls and ten boys.

BARNEGAT.

Mr. James Wilson and D. L. Baker have moved to Barnegat, where they expect to haul logs this summer for Biggs & Quick. The steamer Louise came down Monday eve with the Johnson brothers and their logging outfit. They will log on the Sampson place this summer. Grandma Hauxhurst came home Sunday from the city, where she has been visiting with her children through the winter. Bill Johnson made two trips to Hobsonville this week, getting supplies for his camp on the Sampson place. Bert Biggs, Quick, Wilson and Baker went to the Hub Wednesday and returned Thursday. Captain Hunt, of Cape Meares, went to the city Thursday and returned Friday. Logs will soon begin to roll at Barnegat as there are two logging camps. Barnegat school will start May 7th with Miss Maud Belshe as teacher.

NETARTS.

Mr. C. F. Hobart is working on the Benseidit road for the past week and will continue to do so for some time. Let the good work go on. Robt. Jackson and C. B. Wiley went to the Hub Saturday. John Hodgdon returned home from South Prairie the last of the week where he has been spending a few days visiting with his son and family. Quite a number of children at the head of the bay are down with the la grippe and bad colds. The road from Netarts to South Prairie is in a very bad condition, as there was no work on the road last season it leaves it in a very bad shape.

MAFEKING TO HOLD OUT.

Boers Made a Daring Attempt to Cut Off British Convoy Near Thabanchu Monday.
 LONDON, May 1.—A dispatch from Mafeking, dated April 20, says: "The Boers have been busy for several days, blowing up the railway southwards. There was little firing during the past week. The town will respond cheerfully to Lord Roberts' request to hold out for another month. Fever is rife, but otherwise the health of the garrison is good and all are well."
 New York, May 1.—A dispatch to the Tribune from London says: "A significant item of intelligence has been received from Cape Town. The Express correspondent in that city says it is asserted on good authority that General Hunter has been sent to Kimberley to command a strong column intended for the relief of Mafeking."
 LONDON, May 1, 1:55 p.m.—The following dispatch has been sent by Lord Roberts to the War Office: "Bloemfontein, April 30.—The Boers made very persistent attacks around Thabanchu Saturday and Sunday. But the position which the Eighth (Ruddle's) division holds is strong, and he had the assistance of Gordon's and Dickson's brigades, the cavalry under French and Smith-Dorrien's Infantry brigade, and a body of mounted infantry under General Hamilton. Pole-Carew's Division returned from De Wet's Dorp yesterday."
 Lord Roberts also reports additional casualties sustained during the fighting of April 27 around Thabanchu, consisting of Lieutenant Geary and two men killed and one officer and three men wounded.
 Neither the commander-in-chiefs nor the correspondents' dispatches throw any light upon the plans being adopted to oust the Boers from the neighborhood of Thabanchu, and how long it will be before a determined effort will be made to reassert British supremacy is only a matter of surmise.
 In the meantime the Boers are remarkably aggressive in view of the large forces opposing them. A special dispatch from Thabanchu, dated yesterday, says they made a daring attempt to cut off a British convoy, which got into broken ground between Thabanchu and De Wet's Dorp, opening fire from the adjacent hill. In the nick of time General Bradson, with a strong force of yeomanry returning from Wepener, arrived on the scene and extricated the convoy.
 The same special correspondent describes the positions of the forces at Thabanchu as follows:
 "General Ruddle is covering the advance camp, facing the Boer position to the east, where they are strongly entrenched. General Ian Hamilton and General Smith-Dorrien occupy strong positions on the road to the north."
 Another dispatch says a column under General Hamilton located the Boers to the northwest and an artillery duel ensued without result. All accounts tell of much artillery firing, with scarcely any casualties. It is hardly likely that two such forces can much longer patiently face each other without more stirring occurrences. General Brabant's column is expected to join General French shortly.
 A number of Boers are reported to have been seen retiring north, but this is scarcely authoritative. Stringent measures are being adopted to prevent the Boer guerrillas from securing supplies from other centers. The little news from Thabanchu is absorbing all interest.

Forest Grove Is Excited.

FOREST GROVE, April 30.—Nothing in the history of Forest Grove has happened to arouse excitement of the people to so high a pitch as the death, or murder, of Mrs. Hatch. Citizens are fairly wild, and it is the only subject discussed on the streets and in the homes.
 A coroner's inquest was held Saturday, to which Sam (not Dan) Fletcher was subpoenaed as a witness. Fletcher testified to having occupied the bed with Mrs. Hatch Thursday night, and said that she got up and cooked breakfast for him in the morning. After eating breakfast he left.
 The 12-year-old son of Mrs. Hatch testified that he got up at 9 o'clock Friday morning and that the stove was cold and there was no evidence of any meal having been cooked.
 It is alleged that Fletcher's statements were contradictory, and a rehearing is being held today behind closed doors. The State is represented by Deputy District Attorney Bagley, of Hillsboro, and James McCain of McMinnville, who is a noted criminal lawyer, appears for Fletcher.
 The stomach of the dead woman has been removed and placed in the hands of expert medical men, who will examine the contents. It is not expected that a report will be made for several days. Until all evidence possible is obtained the result of the inquest will not be made public.
 Several men who have been paying attention to Mrs. Hatch, will be examined by the coroner's jury in order to ascertain exactly the character of their relations with the woman. It is understood that the former husband of Mrs. Hatch denies being the father of certain of the children which were born in wedlock.
 The body of Mrs. Hatch was sent to McCoy today for burial. She formerly lived there with her husband. When they decided to separate the property was divided, each taking half. Mrs. Hatch moved to Forest Grove, and the husband married again. His wife is living in Polk County, and he is in Alaska.
 A daughter committed suicide a few years ago by taking strychnine. A married son lives at McCoy, and there is a married daughter elsewhere. Mrs. Hatch was nearer 47 years old than 37 as at first stated.

Sometimes there is more true generosity in a kind word than there is in giving a dollar to a public charity.

Loss of $17,000,000.

OTTAWA, Ont., April 27.—Over five square miles of territory burned over, more than 2000 buildings destroyed, seven lives lost, 7000 men, women and children homeless, and a property loss of $17,000,000, according to the latest estimate, insured for about half its value, are the results as viewed tonight of the destruction which swept this city and Hull yesterday and today. Although under control for many hours, the flames were not entirely extinguished until about noon today.
 On the Ottawa side fully two-thirds of Dalhousie Ward is devastated, and an estimate by residents of the district places the number who were without roofs of their own last night in this district at 5000. The destroyed property in this district included some of the finest residences in Ottawa, as well as a great many of the humblest.
 The fire area was viewed by hundreds of people this afternoon and evening. One of the most remarkable things about the scene was that no smoke was to be seen. There were no half-burned buildings or smoldering logs anywhere. All of Hull's principal buildings, with the exception of the Catholic Church, are things of the past.
 The buildings and land in the place were valued at $2,000,000, and of this amount over $1,000,000 may be put down as a loss. Then in stocks, fixtures, equipment, household effects and wearing apparel there is a loss of nearly $3,000,000. The vast piles of lumber which went up in smoke may be reckoned at $2,000,000 more.

Hanna and M'Kinley Partnership Dissolved.

WASHINGTON, May 1.—Recent and important developments in the National Capital indicate that the administration denials of the past are divided on political as well as legislative matters. It is apparent that President McKinley and Senator Hanna have not been working together in perfect harmony for the past few weeks. While the Ohio Senator has given support to Administration measures in the Senate up to this time, it is known that he has done so in order to prevent friction in the party ranks and to keep from the public the fact that Mr. McKinley and himself are much wider apart politically than they have been since their early acquaintance in Ohio and in National political affairs.
 The disagreement between the President and Mr. Hanna is now practically an open secret and there is a possibility that the public will be made fully aware of all the facts regarding the dissolution of their partnership before the present National campaign closes in November. Mr. Hanna will not be chairman of the next Republican National committee. Major McKinley is not anxious to have him serve in this capacity. Mr. Hanna is more than anxious to relieve himself of the responsibility of conducting another campaign for the present occupant of the White House.
 The difference between these two men, as before stated, is so wide that it cannot be possible for them to come together this year. Mr. Hanna, shrewd politician that he is, may never make his reasons public for declining to further the interests of the man he is said to have made President of the United States. Major McKinley is also another clever politician. He will probably decide that it will be unwise for him to make public the reasons for the failure of Mr. Hanna and himself to continue their political operations together in the future.
 The dissolution of partnership is, of course, not unexpected by those who have known the strained relations that have existed between these two distinguished gentlemen within the past few months. Major McKinley is of the opinion, it is said, that his campaign will be much safer in the hands of another man than Hanna this year, and he will therefore request either Representative Dick, of Ohio, or National Committeeman Payne, of Wisconsin, to take charge of his campaign. So far as Mr. Hanna is concerned, it is said that this action on the part of the President will be highly satisfactory to him. He is anxious, at least the excuse is made for him, to get out of active politics. That he will have an opportunity to do so is not doubted when the dele-
