BARNEGAT.

Mr. Boyington and family returned home last Friday.
Joe Hauxhurst and family are spending a few days in the city this week.
Miss Clare Biggs returned home from the city Thursday.
The Johnson Bros. returned to their logging camp Friday, so the logs will soon be rolling.
Some pleasure seekers have been visiting the beach the past few days.
James Wilson and Dell Berdock went up the Bay on Saturday and returned the same day.
Haying seems to be the order of the day in Barnegat.
The Headlight seemed to be a little late last week. Perhaps the editor is out coon hunting, lots of coons in our neighborhood.

NEHALEM.

Captain Dawson and Jupiter Pluvius conspired against the webfoot on the Fourth, which drove Nehalemites indoors to celebrate. The dance in the evening was very largely attended, and was a very enjoyable affair.
Mr. H. V. Alley and Mrs. C. L. Alley were visitors on the South Fork on Tuesday.
Haying is in full swing, although the weather looks not very promising just at present.
E. G. Wiat is on the river, putting the canery in readiness to run.
Miss Lois Foard, who is teaching District 28, went to Tillamook Monday, on a visit during vacation.
Mr. C. Himpel and family were looking over their newly acquired property on South Fork on Friday last. It will be a good thing to have a resident family on this place. It has been badly neglected for several years.
A telephone message from Nehalem this morning announced the death of Mr. L. B. Alley. He had been commissioner of this county, being elected in 1894.

SOUTH PRAIRIE.

The musical voices of mowers is heard in the land.
W. W. Conder and family, of Nestuccen, were with us after the Fourth.
School vacation in this district is on now for the next three weeks.
Mrs. Edith King's school, on Long Prairie, closed successfully last Friday. Miss Ida High is employed to teach in that district next term.
Mrs. Drew and family, of the Hub, visited friends on the Prairie last Friday.
Messrs. Delsman and Melchoir, constructors for the new barn on the Daniel place, completed their contract last week in an excellent manner, the main building is 58ft. by 100 ft. with a 12 ft. shed on one end. The barn contains stanchions for 39 head of cows, stalls for five horses, two grain bins, each 7 by 12ft., an apartment for the stowing of farm machinery, wagons, etc., and a calf stable 12 by 30 feet.
And now F. M. Lamb, the census enumerator of this district, is happy, his census schedules having been checked up at the office of the state supervisor and commended as correct, and complete and thorough enumeration of his district, etc., in a complimentary letter from that official. Doubtless Mr. Lamb's colleagues in this county and generally elsewhere have each been the recipients of a similar letter.

COULSONBURG.

The farmers of this place are all very glad to see the sunshine once more.
Mrs. E. T. Coulson and family, who have been living on Buley creek for the past few months, have moved back on their ranch.
Mr. D. F. Coulson is now camping on Wolf Creek, he thinks of building a house on his ranch soon.

New Blacksmith Firm.

W. V. Morgan is prepared to do all kinds of blacksmithing in the shop previously owned by Hulden & Case.

Notice.

I have three yoke of good work cattle to sell; well broke and in fine shape.
W. M. SCOTT, Woods, Ore.

MINISTERS ARE SAFE.

Empress Dowager Again Holds Reins of Government in China.
SHANGHAI, July 10.—News from official sources was received at 10 o'clock last night to the effect that the Empress had June 30 resumed the reins of government, and appointed Yung Lu Prime Minister. It is said that she sent a dispatch to Nankin by courier at the rate of 100 miles per day, thanking the Viceroy of the Yangtze Kiang Provinces for their loyalty, and recommending that they protect foreigners at any cost.
WASHINGTON, July 10.—The Secretary of State has received a dispatch from Mr. Goodnow, United States Consul at Shanghai, stating that it is given out by the Governor of Shan Tung that the Legations were standing on July 5, and that the outlaws were dispersing. Mr. Goodnow adds that this statement does not obtain general credence.

WASHINGTON, July 10.—General MacArthur cables the War Department that the Fourteenth Infantry and the Fifth Artillery will leave on Friday for Taku. Other troops are being sent to replace these.
TIEN TSIN, July 3.—It is reported from Chinese sources that foreigners at Peking have taken possession of the Prince's palaces, opposite and commanding the British Legation, and that the native Christians have been installed therein.

WASHINGTON, July 10.—Chinese official sources furnish another surprise today, in announcing that the Dowager Empress who had been reported within two weeks dead, fled, poisoned and hopeless, had resumed the reins of power. The date given is June 30, the same on which the wholesale massacre of foreigners is alleged to have occurred.
The telegram of Sheng, the administrator of telegraphs and railroads, to the Chinese minister at Washington, Wu Ting Fang, saying the Imperial Government is protecting the legations, appears to fit in with the dispatch from Shanghai of this morning, particularly with reference to the alleged directions given by the Dowager Empress relative to the protection of foreigners.
At the same time, people continue to ask why, if the legations are protected, the Ministers are not permitted to communicate with the outer world. Sheng's expressed fears that the food and ammunition of the legations are exhausted are counteracted by the news that Prince Ching, the commander of the Manchurian field force, is revictualing them, besides which it is now known that in the last resort there are available for food several hundred ponies, usually kept within the walls of the British legation.

Meantime, according to the legation of Japan here, the Japanese by no means share the general opinion that the advance on Peking must be indefinitely delayed. The officials assert that the Japanese have no intention of halting at Taku or Tien Tsin, but propose to advance on Peking during the present week. Their military authorities express the opinion that 20,000 of their troops, in addition to the internal forces already available, will suffice to force an entry into the Chinese capital.
Emperor William dispatched the German warship Bussard from Kiel for China this morning, while the German cruisers Geir and Seeadler have been ordered to proceed to China as rapidly as possible from their American and Australian stations, respectively.
It has been learned by the Associated Press that the Chinese legation here, though apparently unable to communicate directly with Peking, is getting news from there indirectly. The officials of the legation declare the present trouble is entirely the work of Prince Tuan, and that the Government, the Dowager Empress and the Chinese generally, are against the Boxers. The officials also say that they have reason to hope that the situation at Peking is improving, and that Prince Ching will succeed in protecting the foreigners.

They scouted the stories of the massacre of the people in the legations and the poisoning of the Emperor and Dowager Empress, and express opinion that Prince Ching and the loyal Viceroy could best be assisted by the promise of help in the formation of a strong government.
WASHINGTON, July 10.—In reply to instructions of the Secretary of War o

July 7, General MacArthur cabled the Adjutant-General the following, under date of July 9, 10:40 P. M.:
"Daggett's regiment (Fourteenth United States Infantry); Reilly's Battery (Fifth Artillery), will leave on the 13th for Taku on the transports Indiana, Flintshire and Wyfield. Taylor is in Samar, not available. For other infantry regiments for Chinese service I recommend the first one leaving the States. Manila is nicely cared for until the arrival of new troops without drawing on Anderson, Bullard or Sargent, which is now impracticable.
"In addition to one month's subsistence supplies with the troops, I send with Daggett to establish a depot, three months' subsistence for 5000 men. Regiments have 500 rounds of ammunition per man. Crozier carries 1,000,000 reserve and such miscellaneous ordnance supplies as can be spared from here. With a view to medical supply depot, stores for three months' for 5000 men are going with Daggett; there will be eight medical officers in China from the Philippines. Send three months' forage, 350 animals and partial supply of winter clothing for the Ninth Infantry. Shall keep Indiana and Flintshire in Chinese waters for local service therein. Order all large transports home to expedite transfer troops here. The foregoing arrangements can easily be changed if the department's wishes are cabled quickly.
"Seven companies of Hardin's regiment, Taylor's battery, have been sent to Samar, replacing Hughes' troops there, which have been concentrated in Leyte. I request authority to permanently transfer the Samar department to Southern Luzon. MACARTHUR."

THROUGH THE WHIRLPOOL.
Feat of a Chicago Dane in Niagara Rapids.
NIAGARA FALLS, July 9.—Peter Nieson, of Chicago, or "Mr. Bowser," as he styles himself, went through the whirlpool rapids of Niagara to-day, in the presence of about 10,000 persons, in his craft. The boat was towed to a rock about a mile above the rapids, and secured. The point was difficult to reach by officials from either the American or Canadian side, who might have been disposed to interfere with the adventurer.
Shortly after 3 o'clock Mr. Bowser was seen in his boat. A little later James Labland pulled up in a rowboat and towed the Foolkiller, with Bowser aboard, into the current. At 3:57 the start down stream was actually commenced, but the fickle eddies kept the Foolkiller drifting about until she got into the whirlpool current and started for the final plunge. He passed under the cantilever bridge, and the boat was going at the speed of a train. He waved his cap, and the crowd saw the boat on the crest of a smooth wave, and at times dive into the leaping spray and disappear. The strange craft turned over and over like a hoop, rolling and plunging until it passed a bend in the river, and the most perilous part of the journey had been passed. The craft kept on a crest of the waves until submerged again on the verge of the whirlpool.
Shooting into the whirlpool the Foolkiller swung around and went down like a fishing-bob, but rose again quickly. For the next 57 minutes Bowser and his boat circled around the whirlpool. Shortly before 6 o'clock the Foolkiller was carried out to the edge of the rapids, and a line was thrown by Bowser to the men on shore, who hauled him in. His first question was: "How is that for Bowser?"
Bowser warmed himself at a fire built on the shore and put on dry clothing, and appears to be little the worse for his mad ride.
"Had I known how bad the whirlpool rapids are, I would never have made the trip," he said.
The Foolkiller is 20 feet long and 4 feet deep, and is made of 2-inch pipe, with four air-tight compartments. The keel weighs 1250 pounds.
Pay Up.
Having sold out my stock of merchandise, those owing me will please call and settle their accounts, for I must have a settlement before August 1st, 1900.
L. OLSEN.
"How queer, Edgar, food is higher and dry goods are not." "Well, we'll fix that, Eliza; we'll eat less and buy clothes."

Cholera and Famine.

LONDON, July 9.—The secretary of State for India, Lord George Hamilton, has received the following from the Viceroy of India, Lord Curzon:
"The rainfall has been fairly general this week in Bombay, Decan, Berar, Khandeish, the central provinces, Gangeitic Plain and the Punjab, but has been much below the average for these tracts, except in southern Decan. Little or no rain has fallen in Rajpootana, Guzerat and Central India. The cholera mortality continues high in Bombay. The May mortality there was appalling. The number of persons receiving aid is 6,113,000."
The Governor of Bombay telegraphs to the Foreign Office as follows:
"There were 10,320 deaths from cholera and 6502 fatalities in the famine district during the last week in June. The total deaths among the number on the relief works is increasing rapidly in consequence of the drought. The number on gratuitous relief is increasing throughout the infected districts."
Two accidents made Sunday a sad day at Camp Geer, Salem. Roy D. Gage, of Company C, Third Regiment, lost his life by drowning, and Sam R. Scott, of troop B, suffered a broken leg. Gage and a number of his comrades went bathing in the Willamette near the camp about 1 o'clock, and while they were attempting to swim across the stream Gage was seized with cramps and sank. He rose several times and cried for help. His comrades did not at first take his calls seriously, but soon found that he was drowning and went to his assistance, but too late. The river was dragged all that day by members of Company C, but his body was not recovered.

All a fellow has to do to run a newspaper is to be able to write a poem, discuss the tariff and the money questions, umpire a ball game, report a wedding, beat a lawyer, saw wood, describe a fire so that the people will shed their wraps, make one dollar do the work of ten, shine at a circus, address horticultural societies, test whisky, abuse the liquor habit, measure calico, subscribe to charity, go to meals, attack politicians, defend the National platform, sneer at snobbery, wear diamonds, invent advertisements, overlook scandals, praise babies, delight pumpkin-raisers, heal the disgruntled, fight to a finish, publish doctor's resolutions, denounce a lawyer, set type, mould opinions, sweep the office, speak at prayer meeting, and stand in with everybody and everything.—Ex.

Husband—What! No ice this sweltering weather. Didn't the ice-man leave any? Wife—He left plenty, but that new girl has been keeping the refrigerator open all day to cool off the kitchen.
It was late. Suddenly a voice from the head of the stairs broke the stillness, "Grace?" "What is it, papa?" "Tell that young fellow not to knock over the milk pitcher on his way out."
"Oh, John, listen! Eatables have gone up in price." "Isn't that just my luck; we're living on credit now and I suppose that when I'm in condition to pay my bills things will be all down again."

"What ails Mrs. Nibber's eyes?" "I don't know what her oculist says, but I think she has injured them squinting through her window blinds to see what is going on in the neighborhood."
"I suppose you feel sure of your ground in the coming campaign?" "I should say so," answered Senator Sorglum. "I think I may say without boasting that I have enough laid by to hold my own without mortgaging any real estate."
"Jacky Jones never carries an umbrella; he says it's plebeian." "Plebeian!" "Yes, he says it looks as if you couldn't afford to get rained on."
"So, you are to be married next week, Miss Bunk?" "Yes, Mr. Timkins." "I congratulate you. You is the happy man!" "Why, Mr. Timkins, I'm surprised. He isn't happy till he gets me."
