If railroad gossip and procrastination cost anything, we believe the citizens would be saved a lot of time chewing the rag about it.
Messrs. Sid Anderson and Frank Trout will put in a small saw mill on the Wilson river and furnish people with lumber in that vicinity.
Mr. B. C. Hadley returned to the city from Portland on Friday, and the gossips missed it this time, for he did not come back in double harness.
Mrs. D. M. Oliver and son Edgar arrived home on Tuesday from California, where the latter was down sick with typhoid fever and Mrs. Oliver went to nurse him.

The game supper given on Thursday of last week by the W. of W. lodge in this city brought together a large audience, which proved a social and fraternal success.
Captain Dodge left overland on Friday for Umpqua to take command again of the steamer Harrison, which went ashore on a sand spit at that place and lost her rudder.
Mrs. Sturgeon returned on Tuesday from Portland, where she had gone to bury the infant child of her late daughter, Mrs. Newman, which died in this city last week.
Since Cupid has been shooting his arrows into the "Happy Seven" he has reduced the number to five. Who will be the next victim to promise "To love, to honor, to obey?"
Mr. Henry S. Westbrook, of Benton, Ark., wants to board with a republican farmer in this county for awhile, and if any farmer wants to accommodate him they should write him.
Rev. C. P. Metzler, who has arrived from New York, to become pastor of the Presbyterian church in this county, will preach at Bay City on Sunday morning and in this city in the evening.
The Acme Club will have a Thanksgiving meeting this (Thursday) evening, when drive whist and probably the light fantastic toe will be seen on the floor. The ladies will provide the supper.
The monthly meeting of the W. F. M. S. will be held at the residence of Mrs. Lamar, in Tillamook City, on Saturday, Dec. 2nd, at 3 o'clock p.m. All ladies are cordially invited to be present.
Did you see those pretty medallions in Sturgeon's window? For artistic pictures they are a novel of perfection, and they make most beautiful articles for a Christmas present. Call and see them.
Mrs. Sarah Brush and niece, a sister to Mrs. Peckham, arrived last week from South Dakota, and we have no doubt they will find the climate of Tillamook far more congenial than the blizzards of the Dakotas.
Tillamook lodge, No. 94, I.O.O.F., elected the following officers on Tuesday evening: N.G., Frank Severance; V.G., J. S. Diehl; recording secretary, George Cohn; financial secretary, Otto Heins; treasurer, Peter Brant.
The advice of bankers in Portland for a number of years not to put money in saw mills only under the most favorable conditions, which the destruction of the electric saw mill brings to mind, appears to be good advice still in this county.
The advertising habit is the best habit a business man can have, for it beats the gambling habit of smithereens for a sure thing in making money. The business man with the advertising habit invariably freezes out the man who has not the advertising habit.

At the regular meeting of Star Lodge, A. O. U. W., on Monday evening, Bro. C. N. Drew, who has been recorder of that lodge for several years, was presented with a gold badge, an emblem of the order, by the members for the interest he has taken in the lodge and as a token of respect and honor.
Don't forget the social to be given at Mrs. Drew's by the Presbyterian ladies on Friday evening, Nov. 30. There will be a musical and literary program, after which refreshments will be sold. These may be ordered from a puzzling menu, part of which was published last week. Everybody invited.
Business men save 25 per cent by having their job work done at the Headlight office, because we do business on a cash basis. We don't run store bills and then force business men to give us job work to straighten out the account, for that is too much like an unbusiness way of doing business, as one of the victims remarked.
At a public meeting on Tuesday evening, called for the purpose of nominating a ticket for the city election, which will take place next Monday, the following persons were nominated:

Married, on Friday morning, by and at the residence of Justice Sam Downs, Mr. William Stephens and Miss Nettie McKinley. Hadley, accompanied by Misses Rose Wertz and Maude Hadley, driving them as far as the toll gate.
I have been in the jewelry business in Tillamook city for the last 14 years, and some of our people are wearing watches and jewelry bought from me when I first came here, which proves beyond a doubt the articles to be as I represented. Don't you think that is the place to purchase your watches and jewelry for Christmas presents? All goods warranted as represented or money refunded.
—A. LETCHER.
Mr. Chas. Thompson, who has leased the Tillamook hotel and re-named it The Palace, is going to a good deal of expense in putting the place in first-class shape, and when complete will be an attractive and well furnished hotel, and run on the European plan. It will probably be the 10th of next month before Mr. Thompson is ready to open up, and as he believes the city is entitled to an up-to-date hotel, he is doing his utmost to make it so.

"Bleeding Kansas" evidently is not as prosperous as it is painted, even though it did go republican, for in a letter from that state asking for information about Tillamook to be sent to thirty persons, it says: "Find enclosed list of names of people of means who are dissatisfied with their present location" and who intend coming to Oregon next spring and locate in Tillamook if they find the county will suit them. If they have means and want to be happy, prosperous and satisfied no better country can be found for dairying than Tillamook.
The electric light plant of our city has changed hands, and the new owners, Messrs. J. E. Sibley and G. W. Kiger, are having the plant put in first-class order and will remove it to a new location as soon as arrangements can be made. The rate for lights are now based upon the same rate as those paid in towns of like size to this. The new company means business and intend to furnish good lights and an all-night service. One person will be given the same rate as his neighbor. What the people want is a good service and a good light, which the new company assure us they will give.

lights, but concluded not to venture on the outside.
The electric saw mill, or the Oregon Electric Lumber Company, was incorporated in this city on the 25th of April, 1899, and the amount of capital stock to be subscribed was to be $6,000, divided into six thousand shares of the value of $1 each. Robert Watt, Frank Long and J. W. McKinley were the incorporators.
From what we can learn the stockholders in the electric saw mill have subscribed something like $10,000, and out of the wreck probably $1,000 will be realized. Some twelve or fifteen persons were interested, who had stock ranging from $2000 to a few hundred dollars in it, and as some of them had put all the money they possessed in the venture, it is a serious loss to them.
Mr. G. W. Brower, a mill man of long experience, and for several years connected with the Brower & Thompson saw mill in the Eastern part of Multnomah county, was the inventor and designer of the electric saw mill, who succeeded in inducing a number of citizens in this county to put up the money for the purpose of experimenting with a new departure in operating saw mills. Aside from the fact that it cut perfect lumber, the electric saw mill cannot be said to be a success, for after it was erected many parts were found weak and not capable of performing the work. Some of these were rectified and the mill commenced cutting lumber, but it could not be cut out very fast because the saws were too small. Some of the stockholders had long since come to the conclusion that the mill would have to be re-designed and re-built before it could have been made a success, but whether they would have put up the money for this had the mill not been destroyed we are not able to state. One thing is certain, they have faith that someone will make a success of it yet. The above loss includes $1,100 which Mr. Brower was entrusted with to purchase machinery while in San Francisco, which, it is said, he invested in mining stock.

Death of Mrs. Thorell.
Mrs. Thorell, who has been quite sick for several months, died on Friday, and the remains were buried on Sunday afternoon at the Oddfellows' cemetery. The funeral service was held in the Adventist church. Rev. S. A. Smith preaching the funeral sermon. There was a large congregation of sympathizing friends and neighbors present. Revs. F. H. Neff and J. M. Tresenriter also took part in the services. Mrs. Sophia Augusta Thorell (nee Steborg), was born in Sweden, Sept. 9th, 1850, and died Nov. 23rd, 1900, aged 50 years, two months and 14 days. She came to the United States in the year 1865, and was married to Chas. Bowman in the year 1869, who died in 1873, leaving her a widow with one ten weeks' old daughter, two sons having died just before their father. She married John Thorell Feb. 9th, 1878, at Geneseo, Ill., who survives her. Her last marriage was blessed with four sons, the eldest of whom died when but a child. She leaves three sons and one daughter, who unite in mourning their loss with the husband and father. She leaves besides a brother and sister, one in Kansas and the other in Illinois. She was converted and united with the S. D. Adventist church six years ago, being baptized in that faith five years ago, in which faith she died. Her last testimony being "Christ is my life and I die with the hope that I shall have part in the first resurrection."
