Come to Tillamook City on the Fourth and see the first train of the Portland, Nehalem & Tillamook Railroad Company arrive in the city with all the big, mossbacks capitalists of Portland.
Mr. W. N. Vaughn informs us that he met people at the re-union of pioneers in Portland he had not seen for 50 years, and we are glad to hear he had a jolly time hobnobbing with city duds.
The best saw on earth. Use the Great Western saws and you will soon be convinced of this fact, for they are recognized to be the best saw now on the market. For sale at McIntosh & Nair's hardware store.
Will Campbell was brought to the city from Hobsonville on Monday with his hand and fingers badly cut. He had tried to hold a saw at the mill, and failing to do so, had his hand and fingers severely cut almost before he was aware of what happened.
There are only twenty-seven towns in Oregon with more population than Tillamook City. Let Hoquarton Slough be straightened out and Tillamook bar improved, we will gamble that but few incorporated cities in Oregon will surpass Tillamook City in population.
Rev. B. F. Peck, with his wife and family, came in on the steamer on Sunday from Davenport, Wash. Mr. Peck exchanged pulpits with Rev. S. A. Smith, of the M. E. in this city, and who left on the steamer Thursday. Mr. Peck will preach Sunday morning and evening.
The steamer Sue H. Elmore came in on Sunday and left again Thursday. She took out the Pacific Lumber Co.'s saw mill, which is being removed from this county to be located in the next state. Her cargo also consisted of 94 boxes of butter, 217 cases of cheese, 4 bales of seal skins and 1 barrel of seal oil.
It is about the time of year for fakers to be infesting Tillamook with their wares talking people to death, rubbing Wizard Oil and quack doctor truck into those who are foolish enough to believe what these fakers, with the gift of gab, preach. Don't be suckers for these fakers, for they only go away with the impression that fools and their money soon part.
Representative B. L. Eddy left today for Portland to lay before the river and harbor committee the claims of Tillamook for bar and bay improvements. The Port of Tillamook Commission selected Messrs. Thayer and Eddy to represent this county, but as the former will not be able to go out, the responsibility rests with Mr. Eddy to extol the resources of Tillamook and to impress upon the committee the necessity of improvements.
We are sorry to announce that M. M. Dollarhide, son of Rev. R. H. Dollarhide, died at Witter Springs, Cal., on the 18th inst., where he had gone a few months since for the benefit of his health. A few weeks ago word came to this city that he was growing worse, when his father left to bring him home, but the grim reaper frustrated these plans and another of our respected young men was gathered home. He was 25 years of age on the 18th. The sympathy of the community is with the bereaved family.

The commencement at St. Alphonsus academy on Friday attracted a large audience, who appreciated the excellent entertainment given by the pupils of this institution. The instrumental selections were nicely rendered and the characters in the theatrical pieces were well sustained. The entertainment was in every way a success, and reflected credit upon the pupils and the academy. Father J. J. Berri, in presenting premiums at the close, made a few brief remarks.
Messrs. Theodore and Andrew Warncke, of Glencoe, Minn., came in on the steamer Sunday. They had intended locating in Idaho, but meeting Prof. B. O. Snuffer on the car, he managed to get them interested in Tillamook by reading every line of the special edition of the Headlight to them. They have bought the A. W. Hall place, and left on the stage Tuesday to settle up their affairs in the East previous to locating here permanently. It is expected when they return a number of persons will accompany them.
We did not know whether it was a dog fight, bull fight or a lynching bee that was going Tuesday at noon when so many persons became so suddenly interested in something that was on the tapis. It proved that two young men had had blood one for the other and were on their way out of the city limits to fight it out. But instead of making this bad blood more vicious, would it not have been more manly of the crowd to have acted as peacemakers, especially as the boys did not know what they were fighting about, anyway?
Captain W. C. Langfitt, Captain W. P. Day, Assistant Engineer R. Warrack and Secretary R. C. Hart, of the U. S. Engineers and lighthouse departments, came in on the steamer Sunday on an official visit. They went to Cape Meares lighthouse on Monday, and before leaving for Portland that evening they dined and wined with the members of the Port of Tillamook Commission and city fathers at the Allen house, Host Allen serving an excellent spread. This was Captain Langfitt's first visit to Tillamook, and like Captain Harts, he was favorably impressed with the county and obtained some idea as to what impeded the industrial development of the county.
Secretary Reid, of the Portland, Nehalem & Tillamook Railroad Company, has received a letter dated at Spokane, Wash., and signed by H. W. Cottle, reading as follows: "God helps those that help themselves." Portland will never get a railroad to Tillamook by simply patting someone on the back. To build a railroad they must take their coats off and build it, or start it; otherwise it is simply wind or a paper railroad. Why not make it a popular subscription from $5 up, have the papers full of it, urging it on, and when you raise, say $200,000, and begin work on it, then there will be no trouble in getting the railroads to take hold and finish it. If a railroad starts to build in there they will want to own it, but as long as it is simply on paper they care nothing about it." Comment is hardly necessary, but it is fair to ask the question, Suppose a person did put a few hundred dollars to help build the road, how much would it be worth on the dollar after it was subscribed or the railroad was absorbed by a railroad company? Everybody seems now of the opinion that Portland has made a fizzle building a railroad to Tillamook on wind, and any new dodge like the above to enable a few irresponsible persons to handle and appropriate people's money to suit themselves won't work. Having built a railroad to Tillamook on paper and with a large amount of wind, it would now be perfectly in order for the city of Portland to undertake the improvement of Tillamook bar and the construction of the Nicaragua canal. But we don't want to be too sarcastic with a city like Portland that is devoid of an enterprising spirit, and has not the push to secure another valuable feeder.

CLOTHING, HATS, SHOES, Furnishing Goods, Groceries, Flour and Feed.

CLOTHING that LOOKS WELL is not always the kind to buy, but they must be the kind that WEAR WELL.

In other words they should be as GOOD AS THEY LOOK. OUR IDEA OF GOOD QUALITY is perhaps different from some others, Not Cheaper, But Better for the Money, is what we think should first be considered.

We want to SELL YOU YOUR CLOTHING, and therefore do not wish to palm off on you some inferior article for the Genuine, but appeal to your judgment, knowing you to be reasonable.

A Poor Cow costs its owner as much to keep as a good one, and therefore IS DEAR AT ANY PRICE.

Likewise A Poor Suit of Cloths cost nearly as much to make as a good one, and therefore quality must be taken from the Material Alone, in order to make the whole cheap, leaving the Suit Not Worth Having.

But when you combine quality of material with the making you obtain a good suit, one you can guarantee, and one which will be a pleasure to sell, and a pleasure for anyone to wear.

You can wear one of these suits for years, knowing they will not fade, bag or rip, while perhaps your neighbor's which is of the cheap John grade, is sunburnt, faded, bagged, twisted and knuck-kneed within a few weeks.

We have cheap suits, which we will sell you with the profit off, so you will have as good for the money as any one can sell you.

We recommend the better quality. We would advise you to buy the better quality and to buy from your home merchant, one who expects to remain here, who pays taxes, and one who has his capital invested here, and will be here to stand good for his guarantees.

If you do not wish to trade with us, you have others who are taxpayers and permanent residents, trade with them.

It is the money of the taxpaying merchant that helps to pay County Officers Salaries, build Roads, Bridges, pays for Butter, Eggs, Cheese, Wood, &c.

It is the taxpaying merchants that employ clerks, carpenters, painters, buys lumber, builds buildings, and improves the county generally.

It is the taxpaying merchants names you see at the head of every subscription list for charitable, benevolent or patriotic purposes for public improvements.

Are they entitled to your patronage? We think they are.

What applies to our clothing, applies as well to our whole stock. Come and see for yourselves.

Ride an Iver Johnson, the distinctive Cycle of the Future.

A Bicycle that is honestly made, is as good as the best.

A Reliable Wheel that can be sold at a low Price.

Honest Cycles at Honest Prices.

Ralph Ackley,
Agent for Tillamook Co., Oregon.

We feel we are in a warm corner when the hose company is called so often to extinguish fires east of the Headlight office. But Sunday's blaze was only a chimney on fire at Mr. Barns'.
It is not often that Lem comes up from Hobsonville, but he did so Friday night. He scooted off next morning before daylight, so that no one had a chance to take a snap shot at him.
There's nothing wrong about aspiring to become county or state officials, but the trouble with some people they aspire all their lives to fill public positions and don't want to give other people a show. But it's a little too soon for the Headlight to talk politics and give timely and wholesome advice.
