

THE GENUINE SIMONDS SAW.

If you want the Best Saw made, get the Simonds. Do not be deceived in saws which are represented just as good as Simonds. The Saw which took the Grand Prize at the Paris Exposition.

Hardware, Tinware, Heating Stoves & Ranges,

PAINTS, OILS, GLASS, SASH and DOORS.
Guns, Ammunition, Fishing Tackle, etc., etc.

WADE & BRIGGS,

Corner Main and Stillwell Avenue.

TILLAMOOK JOTTINGS.

Rubber and oil clothing at Todd's. Buy your logger's shoes of J. A. Todd & Co.

Mr. F. R. Beals returned to the city on Tuesday.

Mr. J. K. Craven was in from Oretown on Wednesday.

Mr. Alex. McDonald was in from Nehalem on Friday.

Mr. B. Paulsen and family came in from Astoria on Tuesday.

12-gauge Exelsor Shells at Ralph Ackley's for 45c. per box.

See Snodgrass, the gunsmith, for all kinds of gun repairing.

12-gauge Exelsor Shells at Ralph Ackley's for 45c. per box.

Born, on the 11th inst., to the wife of Mr. Chase, a daughter.

Mr. A. B. Allison and wife came in from Grass Valley on Tuesday.

Finest dairy farm in Tillamook county for $2,000.—"C." Ben Riesland.

Girls, "You had better hurry!" the Merry Seven have set the pace.

Gold soldering done in a first class manner at the new jewelry store.

Eight acres on city limits: fine garden land: $800.—"C." Ben Riesland.

See Mrs. Todd for millinery, dress silks, ladies' underwear and mackintoshes.

Who's the next young lady to promise that she will "Love, honor and obey?"

Mrs. Rob. Krebs and Mr. S. Scovell were in the city on Monday on business.

The Sue H. Elmore came in with freight and a large number of passengers Tuesday.

Rev. Gabriel Sykes, the new pastor of M.E. church, occupied the pulpit on Sunday.

The hose and hook and ladder teams must be getting rusty for the want of a drill.

One of the wheels of the stage on Tuesday looked as though it had met with an accident.

Star Lodge, No. 76, A.O.U.W., will hold an adjourned meeting next Saturday evening.

"Snakes!" Yes, in his head, was what made quite an excitement on the street Friday evening.

Never write life insurance in any company but the Old Mutual.—"C." Ben Riesland, agent.

Don't get excited over oil lands you only see on a plat. That's the way people buy a pig in a poke.

Snodgrass files saws and fits keys. Re-boring shotguns and training rifles a specialty. At Ackley's.

Dr. O. H. Davenport, the dentist, will be at his office in future on Thursdays, Fridays and Saturdays.

Time is what you want. The best way to get it is to have your work done at the new jewelry store.

A large quantity of Dry Spruce Lumber for sale or trade. At a bargain. See J. R. Harter, Tillamook City.

We have money to loan on farm property at a low rate of interest.—Apply to Beals Brothers, Tillamook City.

After being on the outside for several weeks Mr. Clark Hadley returned Wednesday to attend the wedding of his sister.

After being closed down, to enable A. K. Case and L. Hiner to fix the engine, the electric lights illuminated the city on Monday.

Miss Rose Thiel came in on the steamer on Tuesday from Astoria. She is connected with the Central hotel in that city and is well known by a number of Tillamook people.

12-gauge Exelsor Shells at Ralph Ackley's for 45c. per box.

Just received, 10,000 loaded shotgun shells at Ralph Ackley's. We lead in quality and low prices. 12-gauge Exelsor Shells at 45c. per box.

The best saw on earth. Use the Great Western saws and you will soon be convinced of this fact, for they are recognized to be the best saw now on the market. For sale at McIntosh & McNair's hardware store.

Mr. Henry Buttman, deputy fish warden, came in from the South part of the county on Monday and has since gone to Nehalem. He predicts that hatcheries will be established on the Nestucca and Wilson rivers next year.

Mrs. L. A. Campbell and Mrs. G. S. Muster, both of Kentucky, will come in on the next steamer to visit Tillamook county, with the intention of making this their future home, being Mr. H. B. Karr's mother and aunt.

Next Sunday Mr. Thornguest will preach as usual in the Christian Church morning and evening. The subject for evening is the third in the advertised special course: "Repentance, its nature, how produced, and what it leads to." All invited.

The Tillamook Creamery Company has been advised that its cheese took the highest award for cheese at the State fair recently held at Salem. Tillamook cheese is also at the top of the market and is an object lesson for Clatsop county cheese makers.—Astoria News.

Keep your eye on Tillamook for people are finding out that this is a good county to locate in. As soon as Tillamook can obtain adequate shipping facilities and can be brought into closer touch with the "outside," there will be a busy time in getting on the ground floor by manufacturing industries.

The lumber schooner Antelope, which was loaded in this city by the J. A. Taft Co., left here on Tuesday with 160,000 feet of lumber for San Francisco. She was towed out to sea on Wednesday by the Elmore. She has been chartered by Mr. Taft to load two more cargoes of lumber in this city.

The Oriel House at Astoria, which is patronized by Tillamook people when they have to remain in that city, is now under new management, and being nicely atted up and the nearest hotel to the wharf where the Tillamook steamers lands passengers, the Oriel House is a good place to stop at.

Since Lamb's warehouse on the dock has been painted it gives the place quite a business-like appearance. The new warehouse has accommodation for about 300 tons of mixed freight, which is a fine improvement on the dock, as well as in line with the spirit of progress which permeates the air in Tillamook city and county.

The Albany Herald says the way political lines are shaping themselves in Oregon indicates that the next election of United States Senator will be a three cornered contest, with Senator Joseph Simon, Charles W. Fulton and H. W. Scott as the candidates. If things shape themselves right the Headlight believes Harvey will capture the toga.

It is reported that Mr. J. S. Anderson, of Novelty, Mo., who was in this city last week, will return within two months for the purpose of establishing a national bank in this city. He appears to have interested some of our local people to take stock. We believe that if the dairy men who have land to clear up could get money for that purpose at a low rate of interest there would be a great inducement for them to do so, and once a movement like this is started it becomes infectious, for as soon as one dairyman gets a few acres of land cleared up his neighbor will want to do the same, thus creating a demand for money and labor.

We are pleased to announce the arrival of Dr. J. E. Bartel, formerly of Portland, in this city. He appears to be up-to-date, is a pleasant, agreeable gentleman and in the prime of life. Dr. Bartel has joined forces with Dr. Nichols, who is favorably and well known. They will occupy rooms over J. S. Sturgeon's Drug Store. We wish prosperity to the new doctors.

We are sorry to hear that the lumber barge C. H. Wheeler sprung a leak on Point St. George, and was unable to control the leak with her pumps. When she arrived at San Francisco she had 5 feet of water in her hold and steam pumps had to be used to keep the water down. After unloading she was to be placed in the dry dock for repairs.

Those who have the interest and development of Tillamook county at heart have neglected one important matter. They have not come in close touch with Senator J. H. Mitchell since his election. As he has a power of strength at Washington by all means get him interested in the improvement of Tillamook bar and then, with Congressman Tongue, it will mean another friend at court for Tillamook.

The passengers who came in by stage on Tuesday were thoroughly disgusted with the profanity of two prostitutes. Drinking, smoking and making the air ring with their filthy language is what the passengers had to endure. We have enough already to contend with in trying to induce people to come and locate in this county, but we do not want them to be subjected to such a disgusting spectacle. Another thing, are we going to allow such creatures to infest this city and make the environments so bad that it becomes a source of alarm to those who have children to rear? By all means let an effort be made to keep the moral standard of Tillamook City above the average, but if we allow laws to be ignored there are plenty of people, devoid of morality, who will and do take advantage of a lax system of enforcing the law.

From Astoria comes a report that the Northern Pacific Railroad Company recently offered A. B. Hammond $3,500,000 for the Astoria & Columbia River Railroad. The offer is said to have been declined, though the impression prevails that Mr. Hammond is still considering it. Along with the story of the reputed offer comes a statement to the effect that the West will soon witness a clash of railroad interests, the like of which has never before been seen in this country. If this is true, the Headlight is in hope that the railroads will start into their fight soon and get through quick, for in the conflict it is safe to predict that Tillamook, the long neglected Coast county, will become a bone of contention and a battle royal as to which road, or roads, will give Tillamook county railroad connections and thus put a stop to further prostration. Sic 'em! Sic 'em! Sic 'em!

Just one word of kindly advice to those who aspire to political office. If you have been in the habit of bucking the Headlight for some trivial or personal thing, don't come round previous to a convention and think you are entitled to the support and recommendation of the Headlight. In our experience we have come across a number of men of that character, who are nothing but small caliber politicians. The editor of the Headlight remembers his friends and they can rely upon him staying with them whether they are at the top or the bottom of the ladder. As in the last county election, the Headlight will attempt to mould public opinion as to measures as well as candidates to come before the next republican county convention for its consideration, approval or disapproval. In doing so it is only natural to suppose we shall be unable to please every faction until the morning. We would advise show outfits to avoid the Wilson river road, for it is a regular hoodoo to showmen, the previous show traveling that road met with a like experience as that which befel the band wagon on Monday.

Dr. J. E. Bartel, an able physician, formerly of Portland, has joined forces with Dr. F. C. Nichols, of this city. Dr. Bartel is a German student, also graduate of the Starling Medical College of Columbus, Ohio, and has a successful career of twelve years of active work to his credit. He has put his state license on record in this county and will make his home in this city. Dr. Nichols, a graduate of Rush Medical College, Chicago, is already too well and favorably known through his undoubted ability to need introduction through these columns. These two should certainly make a strong team. They are both in the prime of life and up to date, and by joining forces can be in constant consultation with each other.

The Headlight says a petition has been forwarded to Washington asking that F. J. Weatherly be appointed postmaster at Woods; and intimates that he may expect to get it—"in the neck." This is another time Bro. Baker is mistaken. No such petition has ever been forwarded to Washington. J. F. Weatherly is in Portland, and is not interested in any post office petition either.—Ocean Wave.

We are sorry to hear that the lumber barge C. H. Wheeler sprung a leak on Point St. George, and was unable to control the leak with her pumps. When she arrived at San Francisco she had 5 feet of water in her hold and steam pumps had to be used to keep the water down. After unloading she was to be placed in the dry dock for repairs.

Those who have the interest and development of Tillamook county at heart have neglected one important matter. They have not come in close touch with Senator J. H. Mitchell since his election. As he has a power of strength at Washington by all means get him interested in the improvement of Tillamook bar and then, with Congressman Tongue, it will mean another friend at court for Tillamook.

The passengers who came in by stage on Tuesday were thoroughly disgusted with the profanity of two prostitutes. Drinking, smoking and making the air ring with their filthy language is what the passengers had to endure. We have enough already to contend with in trying to induce people to come and locate in this county, but we do not want them to be subjected to such a disgusting spectacle. Another thing, are we going to allow such creatures to infest this city and make the environments so bad that it becomes a source of alarm to those who have children to rear? By all means let an effort be made to keep the moral standard of Tillamook City above the average, but if we allow laws to be ignored there are plenty of people, devoid of morality, who will and do take advantage of a lax system of enforcing the law.

From Astoria comes a report that the Northern Pacific Railroad Company recently offered A. B. Hammond $3,500,000 for the Astoria & Columbia River Railroad. The offer is said to have been declined, though the impression prevails that Mr. Hammond is still considering it. Along with the story of the reputed offer comes a statement to the effect that the West will soon witness a clash of railroad interests, the like of which has never before been seen in this country. If this is true, the Headlight is in hope that the railroads will start into their fight soon and get through quick, for in the conflict it is safe to predict that Tillamook, the long neglected Coast county, will become a bone of contention and a battle royal as to which road, or roads, will give Tillamook county railroad connections and thus put a stop to further prostration. Sic 'em! Sic 'em! Sic 'em!

Just one word of kindly advice to those who aspire to political office. If you have been in the habit of bucking the Headlight for some trivial or personal thing, don't come round previous to a convention and think you are entitled to the support and recommendation of the Headlight. In our experience we have come across a number of men of that character, who are nothing but small caliber politicians. The editor of the Headlight remembers his friends and they can rely upon him staying with them whether they are at the top or the bottom of the ladder. As in the last county election, the Headlight will attempt to mould public opinion as to measures as well as candidates to come before the next republican county convention for its consideration, approval or disapproval. In doing so it is only natural to suppose we shall be unable to please every faction until the morning. We would advise show outfits to avoid the Wilson river road, for it is a regular hoodoo to showmen, the previous show traveling that road met with a like experience as that which befel the band wagon on Monday.

Dr. J. E. Bartel, an able physician, formerly of Portland, has joined forces with Dr. F. C. Nichols, of this city. Dr. Bartel is a German student, also graduate of the Starling Medical College of Columbus, Ohio, and has a successful career of twelve years of active work to his credit. He has put his state license on record in this county and will make his home in this city. Dr. Nichols, a graduate of Rush Medical College, Chicago, is already too well and favorably known through his undoubted ability to need introduction through these columns. These two should certainly make a strong team. They are both in the prime of life and up to date, and by joining forces can be in constant consultation with each other.

The Headlight says a petition has been forwarded to Washington asking that F. J. Weatherly be appointed postmaster at Woods; and intimates that he may expect to get it—"in the neck." This is another time Bro. Baker is mistaken. No such petition has ever been forwarded to Washington. J. F. Weatherly is in Portland, and is not interested in any post office petition either.—Ocean Wave.

We are sorry to hear that the lumber barge C. H. Wheeler sprung a leak on Point St. George, and was unable to control the leak with her pumps. When she arrived at San Francisco she had 5 feet of water in her hold and steam pumps had to be used to keep the water down. After unloading she was to be placed in the dry dock for repairs.

Those who have the interest and development of Tillamook county at heart have neglected one important matter. They have not come in close touch with Senator J. H. Mitchell since his election. As he has a power of strength at Washington by all means get him interested in the improvement of Tillamook bar and then, with Congressman Tongue, it will mean another friend at court for Tillamook.

The passengers who came in by stage on Tuesday were thoroughly disgusted with the profanity of two prostitutes. Drinking, smoking and making the air ring with their filthy language is what the passengers had to endure. We have enough already to contend with in trying to induce people to come and locate in this county, but we do not want them to be subjected to such a disgusting spectacle. Another thing, are we going to allow such creatures to infest this city and make the environments so bad that it becomes a source of alarm to those who have children to rear? By all means let an effort be made to keep the moral standard of Tillamook City above the average, but if we allow laws to be ignored there are plenty of people, devoid of morality, who will and do take advantage of a lax system of enforcing the law.

From Astoria comes a report that the Northern Pacific Railroad Company recently offered A. B. Hammond $3,500,000 for the Astoria & Columbia River Railroad. The offer is said to have been declined, though the impression prevails that Mr. Hammond is still considering it. Along with the story of the reputed offer comes a statement to the effect that the West will soon witness a clash of railroad interests, the like of which has never before been seen in this country. If this is true, the Headlight is in hope that the railroads will start into their fight soon and get through quick, for in the conflict it is safe to predict that Tillamook, the long neglected Coast county, will become a bone of contention and a battle royal as to which road, or roads, will give Tillamook county railroad connections and thus put a stop to further prostration. Sic 'em! Sic 'em! Sic 'em!

Just one word of kindly advice to those who aspire to political office. If you have been in the habit of bucking the Headlight for some trivial or personal thing, don't come round previous to a convention and think you are entitled to the support and recommendation of the Headlight. In our experience we have come across a number of men of that character, who are nothing but small caliber politicians. The editor of the Headlight remembers his friends and they can rely upon him staying with them whether they are at the top or the bottom of the ladder. As in the last county election, the Headlight will attempt to mould public opinion as to measures as well as candidates to come before the next republican county convention for its consideration, approval or disapproval. In doing so it is only natural to suppose we shall be unable to please every faction until the morning. We would advise show outfits to avoid the Wilson river road, for it is a regular hoodoo to showmen, the previous show traveling that road met with a like experience as that which befel the band wagon on Monday.

Dr. J. E. Bartel, an able physician, formerly of Portland, has joined forces with Dr. F. C. Nichols, of this city. Dr. Bartel is a German student, also graduate of the Starling Medical College of Columbus, Ohio, and has a successful career of twelve years of active work to his credit. He has put his state license on record in this county and will make his home in this city. Dr. Nichols, a graduate of Rush Medical College, Chicago, is already too well and favorably known through his undoubted ability to need introduction through these columns. These two should certainly make a strong team. They are both in the prime of life and up to date, and by joining forces can be in constant consultation with each other.

The Headlight says a petition has been forwarded to Washington asking that F. J. Weatherly be appointed postmaster at Woods; and intimates that he may expect to get it—"in the neck." This is another time Bro. Baker is mistaken. No such petition has ever been forwarded to Washington. J. F. Weatherly is in Portland, and is not interested in any post office petition either.—Ocean Wave.

We are sorry to hear that the lumber barge C. H. Wheeler sprung a leak on Point St. George, and was unable to control the leak with her pumps. When she arrived at San Francisco she had 5 feet of water in her hold and steam pumps had to be used to keep the water down. After unloading she was to be placed in the dry dock for repairs.

Those who have the interest and development of Tillamook county at heart have neglected one important matter. They have not come in close touch with Senator J. H. Mitchell since his election. As he has a power of strength at Washington by all means get him interested in the improvement of Tillamook bar and then, with Congressman Tongue, it will mean another friend at court for Tillamook.

The passengers who came in by stage on Tuesday were thoroughly disgusted with the profanity of two prostitutes. Drinking, smoking and making the air ring with their filthy language is what the passengers had to endure. We have enough already to contend with in trying to induce people to come and locate in this county, but we do not want them to be subjected to such a disgusting spectacle. Another thing, are we going to allow such creatures to infest this city and make the environments so bad that it becomes a source of alarm to those who have children to rear? By all means let an effort be made to keep the moral standard of Tillamook City above the average, but if we allow laws to be ignored there are plenty of people, devoid of morality, who will and do take advantage of a lax system of enforcing the law.

From Astoria comes a report that the Northern Pacific Railroad Company recently offered A. B. Hammond $3,500,000 for the Astoria & Columbia River Railroad. The offer is said to have been declined, though the impression prevails that Mr. Hammond is still considering it. Along with the story of the reputed offer comes a statement to the effect that the West will soon witness a clash of railroad interests, the like of which has never before been seen in this country. If this is true, the Headlight is in hope that the railroads will start into their fight soon and get through quick, for in the conflict it is safe to predict that Tillamook, the long neglected Coast county, will become a bone of contention and a battle royal as to which road, or roads, will give Tillamook county railroad connections and thus put a stop to further prostration. Sic 'em! Sic 'em! Sic 'em!

Just one word of kindly advice to those who aspire to political office. If you have been in the habit of bucking the Headlight for some trivial or personal thing, don't come round previous to a convention and think you are entitled to the support and recommendation of the Headlight. In our experience we have come across a number of men of that character, who are nothing but small caliber politicians. The editor of the Headlight remembers his friends and they can rely upon him staying with them whether they are at the top or the bottom of the ladder. As in the last county election, the Headlight will attempt to mould public opinion as to measures as well as candidates to come before the next republican county convention for its consideration, approval or disapproval. In doing so it is only natural to suppose we shall be unable to please every faction until the morning. We would advise show outfits to avoid the Wilson river road, for it is a regular hoodoo to showmen, the previous show traveling that road met with a like experience as that which befel the band wagon on Monday.

Dr. J. E. Bartel, an able physician, formerly of Portland, has joined forces with Dr. F. C. Nichols, of this city. Dr. Bartel is a German student, also graduate of the Starling Medical College of Columbus, Ohio, and has a successful career of twelve years of active work to his credit. He has put his state license on record in this county and will make his home in this city. Dr. Nichols, a graduate of Rush Medical College, Chicago, is already too well and favorably known through his undoubted ability to need introduction through these columns. These two should certainly make a strong team. They are both in the prime of life and up to date, and by joining forces can be in constant consultation with each other.

The Headlight says a petition has been forwarded to Washington asking that F. J. Weatherly be appointed postmaster at Woods; and intimates that he may expect to get it—"in the neck." This is another time Bro. Baker is mistaken. No such petition has ever been forwarded to Washington. J. F. Weatherly is in Portland, and is not interested in any post office petition either.—Ocean Wave.

We are sorry to hear that the lumber barge C. H. Wheeler sprung a leak on Point St. George, and was unable to control the leak with her pumps. When she arrived at San Francisco she had 5 feet of water in her hold and steam pumps had to be used to keep the water down. After unloading she was to be placed in the dry dock for repairs.

Those who have the interest and development of Tillamook county at heart have neglected one important matter. They have not come in close touch with Senator J. H. Mitchell since his election. As he has a power of strength at Washington by all means get him interested in the improvement of Tillamook bar and then, with Congressman Tongue, it will mean another friend at court for Tillamook.

The passengers who came in by stage on Tuesday were thoroughly disgusted with the profanity of two prostitutes. Drinking, smoking and making the air ring with their filthy language is what the passengers had to endure. We have enough already to contend with in trying to induce people to come and locate in this county, but we do not want them to be subjected to such a disgusting spectacle. Another thing, are we going to allow such creatures to infest this city and make the environments so bad that it becomes a source of alarm to those who have children to rear? By all means let an effort be made to keep the moral standard of Tillamook City above the average, but if we allow laws to be ignored there are plenty of people, devoid of morality, who will and do take advantage of a lax system of enforcing the law.

From Astoria comes a report that the Northern Pacific Railroad Company recently offered A. B. Hammond $3,500,000 for the Astoria & Columbia River Railroad. The offer is said to have been declined, though the impression prevails that Mr. Hammond is still considering it. Along with the story of the reputed offer comes a statement to the effect that the West will soon witness a clash of railroad interests, the like of which has never before been seen in this country. If this is true, the Headlight is in hope that the railroads will start into their fight soon and get through quick, for in the conflict it is safe to predict that Tillamook, the long neglected Coast county, will become a bone of contention and a battle royal as to which road, or roads, will give Tillamook county railroad connections and thus put a stop to further prostration. Sic 'em! Sic 'em! Sic 'em!

Just one word of kindly advice to those who aspire to political office. If you have been in the habit of bucking the Headlight for some trivial or personal thing, don't come round previous to a convention and think you are entitled to the support and recommendation of the Headlight. In our experience we have come across a number of men of that character, who are nothing but small caliber politicians. The editor of the Headlight remembers his friends and they can rely upon him staying with them whether they are at the top or the bottom of the ladder. As in the last county election, the Headlight will attempt to mould public opinion as to measures as well as candidates to come before the next republican county convention for its consideration, approval or disapproval. In doing so it is only natural to suppose we shall be unable to please every faction until the morning. We would advise show outfits to avoid the Wilson river road, for it is a regular hoodoo to showmen, the previous show traveling that road met with a like experience as that which befel the band wagon on Monday.

Dr. J. E. Bartel, an able physician, formerly of Portland, has joined forces with Dr. F. C. Nichols, of this city. Dr. Bartel is a German student, also graduate of the Starling Medical College of Columbus, Ohio, and has a successful career of twelve years of active work to his credit. He has put his state license on record in this county and will make his home in this city. Dr. Nichols, a graduate of Rush Medical College, Chicago, is already too well and favorably known through his undoubted ability to need introduction through these columns. These two should certainly make a strong team. They are both in the prime of life and up to date, and by joining forces can be in constant consultation with each other.

The Headlight says a petition has been forwarded to Washington asking that F. J. Weatherly be appointed postmaster at Woods; and intimates that he may expect to get it—"in the neck." This is another time Bro. Baker is mistaken. No such petition has ever been forwarded to Washington. J. F. Weatherly is in Portland, and is not interested in any post office petition either.—Ocean Wave.

We are sorry to hear that the lumber barge C. H. Wheeler sprung a leak on Point St. George, and was unable to control the leak with her pumps. When she arrived at San Francisco she had 5 feet of water in her hold and steam pumps had to be used to keep the water down. After unloading she was to be placed in the dry dock for repairs.

Those who have the interest and development of Tillamook county at heart have neglected one important matter. They have not come in close touch with Senator J. H. Mitchell since his election. As he has a power of strength at Washington by all means get him interested in the improvement of Tillamook bar and then, with Congressman Tongue, it will mean another friend at court for Tillamook.

The passengers who came in by stage on Tuesday were thoroughly disgusted with the profanity of two prostitutes. Drinking, smoking and making the air ring with their filthy language is what the passengers had to endure. We have enough already to contend with in trying to induce people to come and locate in this county, but we do not want them to be subjected to such a disgusting spectacle. Another thing, are we going to allow such creatures to infest this city and make the environments so bad that it becomes a source of alarm to those who have children to rear? By all means let an effort be made to keep the moral standard of Tillamook City above the average, but if we allow laws to be ignored there are plenty of people, devoid of morality, who will and do take advantage of a lax system of enforcing the law.

From Astoria comes a report that the Northern Pacific Railroad Company recently offered A. B. Hammond $3,500,000 for the Astoria & Columbia River Railroad. The offer is said to have been declined, though the impression prevails that Mr. Hammond is still considering it. Along with the story of the reputed offer comes a statement to the effect that the West will soon witness a clash of railroad interests, the like of which has never before been seen in this country. If this is true, the Headlight is in hope that the railroads will start into their fight soon and get through quick, for in the conflict it is safe to predict that Tillamook, the long neglected Coast county, will become a bone of contention and a battle royal as to which road, or roads, will give Tillamook county railroad connections and thus put a stop to further prostration. Sic 'em! Sic 'em! Sic 'em!

Just one word of kindly advice to those who aspire to political office. If you have been in the habit of bucking the Headlight for some trivial or personal thing, don't come round previous to a convention and think you are entitled to the support and recommendation of the Headlight. In our experience we have come across a number of men of that character, who are nothing but small caliber politicians. The editor of the Headlight remembers his friends and they can rely upon him staying with them whether they are at the top or the bottom of the ladder. As in the last county election, the Headlight will attempt to mould public opinion as to measures as well as candidates to come before the next republican county convention for its consideration, approval or disapproval. In doing so it is only natural to suppose we shall be unable to please every faction or those who have the idea that the republican party owes them a living, but that will not retard us from criticism of past events and future plans, and which is for the best interest of the taxpayer and the county, at the proper time.

Mr. H. T. Botts, who came here a few months since from Missouri for the purpose of looking over the county and to ascertain for himself whether all the nice things the editor of the Headlight had written about Tillamook county were so, returned last week with his wife to locate in this city and engage in the practice of law. He has since opened a law office in the Olsen building, and being a gentleman with a good reputation, we wish him success and prosperity, as we do all who locate here and attend strictly to business, for that is the way to gain the confidence and respect of the people of this section of country. When Mr. Botts returned to Missouri he became quite enthusiastic about the dairy prospects of Tillamook county, so much so that quite a colony of farmers will migrate to this county, where they will not be troubled with drouth, heat or cold. We take pleasure in recommending Mr. Botts and hope he will be instrumental in inducing many more to come to the county, for Missourians are pretty good people when you know them, so we invite them to come to Tillamook and engage in dairying, and we will gamble after they have done so they will come to the conclusion that they struck a right kind of a country for dairying and money making.

$1.25 pays for the Headlight to January 1st, 1903

Tillamook Public School Report.

Prof. B. O. Snuffer's report for the month ending October 11th, 1901, gives an average daily attendance of 185 pupils out of an enrollment of 197, which is a good showing for the first month.

Days attendance.	Days absence.	Times tardy.	Neither absent nor tardy.	Whole No. enrolled.
Mrs. Hays.....	653	26	4	25	40
Miss Newell.....	853	28	5	24	42
Miss Cooper.....	710	8½	1	29	40
Mrs. Severance.....	680	9	1	28	40
B. O. Snuffer.....	625	10½	1	25	35
	3521	82	12	131	197

Under Wear