Mr. Emil Arndt left for Dolph on Saturday, where he hopes to regain his health after a few months of rest, from the effects of the recent shooting scrape in which he had a close call. He speaks in the highest praise of Dr. Wiley, who saved his life.

The postal authorities have denied in answer to the petition recently sent to the department, to give Tillamook a seven day mail, which will commence on the 24th inst. Representative Eddy having received a letter from Congressman Tongue to this effect.

The Day property, which was sold to Messrs. R. H. Holmes, Louis Olsen and B. O. Sumner, was sold to Mr. A. R. Gangloff, of Edina, Mo., and it is stated a number of residences will be built there, which should prove a good business investment, there being for the past few years a scarcity of houses.

Remember the children's mass meeting next Sunday afternoon at 3:30 in the M.E. church in the interest of temperance. An illustrated blackboard talk and some special music constitute the program. A special invitation is extended to the children, and a cordial welcome will be extended to as many other people as will attend, and we hope they will be many.

The following program will be rendered at the Thanksgiving Day service in the Christian Church: Song; reading of proclamation, E. Thornquest; song; scripture reading, C. P. Metzler; prayer, Gabriel Sykes; recitation, Hazel McNair; sermon, W. F. Caldwell; offering for poor; song; Benediction, W. F. Caldwell. Thanksgiving services will begin at 10:30 a.m.

Married, at the Golden West Hotel, San Francisco, on the 9th Nov., by Rev. Dr. John A. B. Wilson, Mr. Albert Harold Malaney and Mrs. Lulu Ethel Malaney, both of Tillamook. The latter obtained a divorce in Judge Boise's court a few months since, but having consented to return with her former husband to Mexico they were married on their way there.

The little man of Tillamook had a wonderful silly inspiration last week. He compiled a county and city ticket and placed the name of the editor of the Headlight opposite that of every office. This is just about as silly as when the little man undertook to boost ex-Senator J. W. Maxwell as a candidate for governor in opposition to Governor Geer. We have rubbed against a good many newspaper men, but Bro. Watson takes the cake for stupidity.

Before Mr. A. R. Gangloff left this city on Monday the final arrangements were made to which will establish another bank here, that gentleman consenting to become a large stockholder in the bank.

Mr. Gangloff is a man of wide experience and has business interests in all parts of the country. He was agreeably surprised to find Tillamook such a prosperous and productive country, with its dairy farms and stock feeding in green meadows at this time of the year.

At a meeting of the city council Monday evening, it was decided to hold the city caucus next Saturday evening at the Court house, at 7:30, for the purpose of nominating a city ticket. For judges in election, the city council appointed H. F. Goodspeed, W. H. Reynolds and W. H. H. Cary and for clerks D. C. Pierce and O. Heins. The only other business before the council was the matter of putting in three new sidewalks at the court house and a drain to be fixed to carry water off the road at Sid Anderson's.

MARRIAGES.

Stillwell-Myers.
Married, on Saturday evening, at the residence of Mr. Geo. Grayson, Captain W. D. Stillwell and Mrs. M. E. Myers, of Yamhill county, both of whom are well-known throughout the state as early settlers in Oregon. The bride is 67 years of age and it was the groom's 77 birthday on Saturday. They were neighbors in the early days of Oregon in Yamhill county, but later Mr. Stillwell moved to Tillamook and became one of the pioneers of this county. Mr. Stillwell has been married twice before, it being now over 20 years since his last wife died. Mr. Stillwell represented Tillamook in the state legislature in 1891, participated in the Indian war and was appointed by the governor to go to Washington with a deputation from Oregon in behalf of the Indian war veterans. While Mrs. Myers was visiting her daughter, Mrs. Grayson, in this city, Captain Stillwell and Mrs. Myers renewed their former acquaintance, which resulted in their marriage on Saturday.

Himes-Stuivenga
Married, at the residence of Mr. J. S. Diehl, on Sunday, Mr. Charles Himes to Miss Sophia Stuivenga, Rev. E. Thornquest officiating. Mr. John Moore was the best man and Miss Mattie Diehl was the maid of honor. The bride was attired in a blue cashmere dress trimmed with white satin, while the maid of honor wore a cashmere dress of the color of crushed strawbery, trimmed with white satin. After the ceremony and congratulations Mrs. Mary Diehl invited the happy couple and wedding guests to a marriage feast, which was much appreciated. Many valuable and useful presents were presented to the newly married couple. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Holmes, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Himes, Mr. and Mrs. Stuivenga, parents of the bride, Mrs. McGhee, Miss Moore, Mr. John Moore, Miss May Sappington, Mr. Dave Reasoner, Mr. and Mrs. O. Heins, Misses Johanna and Mary Stuivenga, sisters of the bride, and Misses Davies and Ruby McGhee.

Page-Vaughn.
Married, on the 16th inst., at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Vaughn, at Bay View, Mr. Allen L. Page to Miss Hattie A. Vaughn. The bride looked sweet in a cream cashmere dress trimmed with white satin and ribbon. A large number of friends of the contracting parties were present, who congratulated the happy couple after formed the marriage ceremony. They are in receipt of quite a large number of useful presents from their large circle of family friends and others, and they start their marriage career with the best of wishes from all.

Marriage licenses were issued on Saturday for Oren Maddux to wed Effie M. Ensom; and Albert Ensom to wed Lizzie Rittenhouse, and we understand these parties are to be married at Nehalem today.

Causes a County Court Ruction.

County Judge G. W. Sappington called a special meeting of the county court on Wednesday, and Deputy District Attorney W. H. Cooper, the Editor of the Headlight and others were notified in the morning to appear before the court in the afternoon.

The bone of contention was this item of news which appeared in the last week's headlight:

"We understand that the district attorney had his attention drawn to the matter of the construction of the Beaver bridge, it being shown to him that the county court advertised for bids and received one for $150. This was rejected and the county judge built the bridge and put in a bid of about $230. What the next move will be we have not heard but it is said that the district attorney was explicit in laying down the new law in the matter of bridge building and a salaried officer furnishing material, contracting and doing other work for the county. We shall publish the law on these points later."

Attorney T. B. Handley represented the county court.

Judge Sappington took exception to that part of the paragraph referring to the Beaver bridge, stating that the bid which was rejected by the commissioners was for constructing the bridge only, while his contract with the county was for $300 for building the bridge and furnishing the material, and he wished the public to understand it that way. He admitted that he was interested in the bid which was rejected, claiming that it was his bid, and called upon Mr. G. O. Nolan, who testified that he and Mr. Woods put in the bid for constructing the bridge and that if they obtained the contract, Judge Sappington was to obtain one third of the profits. The bid is as follows:

"In pursuance to your advertisement for bids to build a bridge across Beaver creek, the county to furnish the material, we hereby offer to build the bridge for $150."

WALT WOODS AND G. O. NOLAN.

A considerable lot of cross fire ensued between the county judge and county commissioners. Judge Sappington claiming that the commissioners agreed to pay him $300 for building the bridge, which Commissioner Parrish corroborated. Commissioner Parrish said he knew nothing of such an agreement or contract being entered into, saying that he stated at the time that he had no objection to the judge building the bridge if he would do so as cheap as anyone else. He claimed that the judge was paid for the material in the Beaver bridge at the May term of court, when the judge's bill for lumber was for $363, and that the bill for $236 was for constructing the bridge. This bill of Judge Sappington's was produced in court, and it called for $200 for building the Beaver bridge and $36 for tearing out the old structure.

At times the conversation waxed pretty warm, during which Commissioner Parrish said the Beaver bridge was the worst constructed bridge in the county, was unsafe and had to be braced. He also stated that he was responsible for bringing the matter to the attention of the district attorney and he wanted an investigation, which Judge Sappington stated he had no objection to. From what we could infer in the discussion Judge Sappington claimed that he lost money by building the bridge, but insisted that he did not take upon himself the construction of the bridge, but that the commissioners had contracted with him at the price named.

Nothing appears to have been accomplished, as the court is just as much divided as ever.

BOULDER CREEK.

There are rather dull times on Boulder Creek, the most exciting events being the deaths of a number of fat wegs.

Mr. John Creevy, the fruit tree agent, was calling on Boulderites last week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Donaldson and daughter, Leona, have been visiting at C. A. Smith's for a few days.

Mrs. H. L. Jensen, with her children, visited Grandpa Jensen at Three Rivers last week.

Messrs. Chas. C. and Dudley Getchell, of Cedarvale, came up to visit their sister, Mrs. Chopard last week.

Mr. Jas. Hughes, of Fairview, was at his Nestucca ranch, last week.

We are sorry to state that little Lloyd Brady is seriously ill at the present writing, also Mr. Lucas' family are sick. The complaint is not familiar to the people, but resembles diphtheria. The daughter of C. A. Smith had an attack of it about two weeks ago.

H. A. Chopard is having his fall plowing done, H. L. Jensen being the plow man.

News is scarce and time flies, so we must lay down our pencil and take up the broom and dust pan.

P.S.—Gus Chopard would be very much pleased if the parties who shot one of his sheep and hid it in a brush pile, would keep off his place with their guns in the future. Chasing sheep with dogs may be good sport for some people, but the sheep don't like it and the owner objects most strongly, and some dogs may get hurt if they are caught at such work again, also their owners are liable to get themselves into trouble, if they don't look out. "A word to the wise."

Is it Legal?

Those who have been complaining so much of late about County Judge Sappington should call into question the legality of a county judge being employed and receiving pay as superintendent of a county saw mill, running a boarding house and ordering provisions, contracting to furnish lumber and doing county work, receive money for lumber and not turn the money into the county treasury and applying the same to pay county debts, contracting for bridge work, and dividing up with those who bid for county work. These are the points, and if the county judge is within his legal rights he should be exonerated from all blame. If, on the other hand, the county court has been proceeding illegally then let those who are responsible for such a loose system of county government take the blame. For the information of the citizens of Tillamook we will state that the district attorney gave it as his opinion that a county judge could not act in the capacities we have enumerated.

$100 Reward, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

The most valuable quarter section of land in the whole world is probably that of Beaumont, Tex., upon which are located the great oil wells. Two years ago this tract would have been dear at $30 per acre, while to-day it is valued at $400,000,000.
