President Wheeler, of the Wheeler Lumber Company, owner of the tug George R. Voshurg, was fined $500 by Collector of Customs Fox a few days ago for carrying 28 passengers. Her certificate allows her but 12. He has filed a protest to the Treasury Department, asking that the fine be remitted. Accompanying the protest are affidavits by Captain Loll and the purser, stating only 12 passengers on board, the other persons being the crew of 14 and several children, for whom no fare was collected. The tug's inspection certificate limits the number of her crew to nine. The papers have been forwarded to Washington, where a decision will be rendered.—Astoria News.
Emmett Quick has been circulating a petition to have the cows kept up. One cow, belonging to Councilman Grayson, and another, belonging to Coroner Tuttle, are educated animals and responsible for opening garden gates and walking in without being invited to do so, to say nothing of their pecking round the corner to see where the storekeepers are before they make a raid on the cabbage outside the stores. There are also a number of educated chicken around, for they have a happy faculty of scratching up seed directly it is put in the ground. But for all this we hardly think that it is necessary to make a change, for every business man ought to smile complacently when he sees a few cows around, for it is Old Bossy which makes them the prosperous business men that they are.
A council meeting was held on Monday evening with Mayor J. L. Briggs in the chair and Councilmen S. A. Brodhead, G. Grayson, W. H. Reynolds and F. L. Sappington were present. Bills allowed were: Marshal's salary, $45; electric lights, $19; B. C. Lamb, ordinance book, $16; recorder's salary, $10. Mr. Reynolds again objected to paying the marshal more than $40 a month, the salary having been raised $5 a month by the previous council last July because he had to discount his warrants. In answer to a question by Mr. Brodhead, the marshal said he had been getting face value for his warrants lately. As the question of the marshal's salary will come up for discussion again in the form of an ordinance, the amount of the salary will have to be decided then. The marshal told the city council that he thought $45 was little enough salary. A petition was read from W. S. Hays to vacate the Henshaw addition, which was referred to the streets and public property committee. An ordinance was read and passed to its final stage to prohibit the carrying of concealed weapons. A committee of the hose company waited upon the city council and asked that an ordinance be passed defining the hose company's authority. The city surveyor was instructed to establish a monument at the east end of First street.

A. B. Hammond, who is in the East, and is having built at the Newport News Company's shipyards a steel steamer, which is a forerunner of a large fleet of like kind, which is to be put on the Coast from this point. The present steamer is to cost $250,000, and is to have a lumber carrying capacity of 1,600,000 feet. She will be so constructed that with nine feet draft she will be enabled to enter Nehalem, Tillamook and other shallow harbors and carry 1,000,000 feet of lumber. She is also to be well equipped to carry passengers, and will be so constructed that she can be loaded and unloaded within 24 hours. It is claimed that this fleet will revolutionize shipping at this point. Mr. Hammond is expected to return in about 10 days, and other matters of importance are expected to be developed for the interest of the Northwest.
It seems that Tillamook, if anything is to be obtained free gratis, must have its share of any old thing that is going round, consequently it is not surprising that smallpox has made its advent into this county, seeing that it has been prevalent on the outside for some time. As it is only a light form of the disease, but requires to be quarantined and the premises thoroughly fumigated with disinfectants, if this is done it may check the disease spreading. A strict quarantine, however, must be insisted upon if the disease is to be kept down. It was for this purpose that Mayor J. L. Briggs called a meeting of the city council Wednesday, at which Judge G. W. Sappington was present representing the county, for Drs. Wiley and Smith had reported Bell Johnson, who lives three miles south of Tillamook City, had smallpox. Judge Sappington promised to have the houses quarantined were the disease has made its appearance and parties will be prohibited from visiting this city from the infected localities. It appears that Dr. Mills was attending the case and thought it was chicken pox, and it was not until Drs. Wiley and Smith were sent for on Wednesday that it was known to be smallpox. Dr. Wiley recommends vaccination.

Obituary Notice.
Wm. Jay Elliott, an old resident of Tillamook county, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Edith Kramer, Fall City, Ore., of pleura pneumonia, at midnight Tuesday, April 1st, 1902, aged 76 years, five months and 30 days. He was born at Hastings, N.Y., on the 2nd day of October, 1825, removed with his father's family to Michigan, when a young boy, settling in Lenawee co., in 1849. He was married to Julia Ann Edmunds, to whom were born four children, two of whom died in childhood. He served his country as a soldier in the civil wars. Enlisting in the Eight Michigan Infantry, and served three years and one month, and honorably discharged September 22nd, 1864. Returned to his home, he lived until April, 1874, at Sparta, Kent co., Mich., then he moved with his family to Bondin, Murry co., Minn. In January, 1880, he came to Kilehs, Tillamook co., Ore., where he resided for eleven years. In the fall of 1891, he moved with his wife and daughter to Astoria, Ore. On the 12th of March, 1892, he lost his beloved wife, from that time until his death he made his home alternately with his two children, Smith Elliott, of Bay City, and Mrs. Edith Kramer, formerly of Monmouth, now of Fall City. He was a member of the G.A.R. Post of Independence, and a faithful disciple of Christ 56 years. A kind and loving husband and father, and a good citizen, respected by all who knew him. There remains to mourn his departure, his son, Smith Elliott, of Tillamook; Mrs. Kramer, of Fall City; J. S. Elliott, Riverdale, Tillamook county, Ore., and Albert Elliott, of Detroit, Mich.; Lansing Elliott, of Toledo, Ohio.

Parties wanting to have stock pastured on my tide land please notify me. Will have the same enclosed by dyke about 1st May.—A. Benchid.

Circuit Court Docket.
Circuit court will convene on Monday, the docket being exceedingly light, as the few cases below will show. There are a few criminal complaints to be investigated by District Attorney Hart, but from all appearance it will not take Judge Burnett long in getting through with the business.
The California Safe Deposit and Trust Co., a corporation, plaintiff, vs. E. H. Cowing and Mary Green Cowing, defendants. Action for money. Claude Thayer, attorney.
Truckee Lumber Co. of S. F., a corporation, plaintiff, vs. Theodore Kingsley and Al Whitten, partners, under the firm name of Whitten & Kingsley, defendant. Action for money. T. B. Hadley, attorney for plaintiff, and B. L. Eddy for defendants.
Pacific Lumber Co., a corporation, plaintiff, vs. Claude Thayer, defendant. Action for money. B. L. Eddy, attorney for plaintiff.
State of Oregon, plaintiff, vs. Charles Howe, defendant. Contempt proceedings.
State of Oregon, plaintiff, vs. Charles L. Thompson, defendant. Contempt proceedings.
The John Burroughs Society.
The John Burroughs Society of Portland has, through the generosity of Mrs. Rosa F. Burrell, of that city, two prizes to award for knowledge of the native birds of Oregon. These prizes are to be given yearly to the classes of the highest grade in the elementary schools of the state.
The first prize is $20.00, the second $8.00, which are to be awarded to those who can name the most by sight and song, and who write a sufficient excellent composition on the subject. The relative markings for the two examinations will be, upon a scale of 100, 60 per cent. for the field test and 40 per cent. for the composition test. That is, actual knowledge of the birds will count for more than excellence in composition.

The competition is open to the class graduating in February as well as to the class graduating in June. The composition must be in the hands of the secretary of the John Burroughs Society, 346 Yamhill street, Portland, Oregon, not later than May 1st. The field examinations will be given the last week in May and the first week in June of each year. All who send compositions to the secretary will be considered as applicants for a field examination, and the address of each writer should be enclosed with the composition.
All pupils who kill birds, or collect eggs or nests, even for the purpose of study, are excluded from the competition.
A prize of $25.00 is also offered for the teacher whose pupils have the highest average in the contest for the Burrell prize.

QUALITY VS. QUANTITY.

When selecting a horse a man does not buy one because he can get it cheaper than others, but considers its good points.
When selecting a cow he finds out whether she gives plenty of good milk.
Then why should people not be just as particular in regard to buying their food stuff.
With good Flour you can have good bread; with poor Flour, poor bread. Nearly every housewife takes pride in having good bread.
We have the Best Grades of Flour to be had.
We carry Western Refinery Sugar, the best made.
We sell the best grades of Creamery and Dairy Butter.
We handle the best Hams, Bacon and Lard in the market.
Our prices are right.
