The Herald's Apology.

As the patent sheets for the Herald, printed in Portland by a bloated monopoly, has not been issued, that newspaper is not likely to make its appearance today, so we offer an apology for Bros. Watson's inability to get the Portland-Tillamook product newspaper out on time. The Headlight, however, is all home print and always on time, and the editor is not patronizing a monopoly nor allowing that monopoly to edit and print the paper.

Republican Road Supervisors.

The following is a list of the road supervisors who have been chosen as candidates on the republican ticket. Garibaldi, Union, Dolph and Barnegat have not reported to the republican county central committee their choice for road supervisors, but should do so at once. Tickets must be filed with the county clerk 30 days before election:

- No. 1--Nehalem.....E. H. Lane.
2--Foley.....H. B. Derby.
3--Bay.....P. F. Ducham.
4--Tillamook.....John C. Wilson.
5--Hoquartion.....Paul Erickson.
6--Fairview.....W. J. Humes.
7--South Prairie.....T. W. Lyster.

11--Sand Lake.....H. M. Farmer.
12--Hebo.....A. P. Wagner.
13--Blaine.....John F. Moore.
14--Little Nestucca.....A. Fraser.

Bowers Wins His Case.

Curtis E. Bowers, by Daniel C. Bowers guardian, respondent, vs. Star Logging & Lumber Company, appellant, from Columbia County, T. A. McBride, Judge; affirmed. Opinion by Chief Justice Beam. This was an action for damages for an injury sustained by plaintiff while acting as brakeman on a logging train. He alleged that he was about 18 years old; that he engaged to work for the defendant company; that after working a week or 10 days he was assigned to work on the logging train, and that while attempting to set a break he fell in front of the car, sustaining injury which made the amputation of his arm necessary. The negligence alleged was: (1) That the defendant, with knowledge that the plaintiff was unfamiliar with the duties of a brakeman on a logging train, negligently and carelessly directed him to act as one of the brakemen thereof, without giving him any notice of the danger or cautioning him concerning the same; (2) That the break which the plaintiff attempted to set at the time of the accident was defective and dangerous in that the teeth of the ratchet and dog thereof were worn and out of repair, so that they would not hold the break. The plaintiff secured a verdict in his favor for $5,000 whereupon the defendant appealed, assigning as error the act of the lower court in admitting certain testimony, in modifying certain instructions asked, and in overruling a motion for a nonsuit.

The lower court admitted testimony tending to show that the dog of the brake will sometimes slip out of the ratchet when a car is being loaded. This was objected to on the ground that the injury did not occur while the car was being loaded. The Supreme Court says that the evidence was a part of the history of the case, and was material as descriptive of the use and purpose of the brake and its attachments. It tended to show in a general way the working of the brake and ratchet, and the use they had been put to by defendant, and that they did not hold at all times when the car was being used in an ordinary manner. The evidence, it is true, may have been unsatisfactory and of little value, but its weight was for the jury to determine. This rule also disposed of the alleged error in giving an instruction. On the other point the Supreme Court lays down the rules of law as follows: As a general rule, one who seeks employment in any particular line of business assumes the ordinary risks incident to such employment, and he cannot charge the master with the consequences of his own want of knowledge or skill, for the master may ordinarily assume that he is competent and comprehends the danger of the service. But the application of this doctrine is subject to certain qualifications and limitations. It is the duty of the master not to expose an inexperienced servant to a dangerous service, without giving him warning of the danger and instructions how to avoid it, unless both the danger and the means of avoiding it are apparent to the servant. Particularly is this true when the servant is directed to perform some service not contemplated in his original contract of employment. The court holds that it was for the jury to apply these principles to the facts presented, and to determine whether the plaintiff knew the danger of the service, and whether the defendant had sufficiently warned him. It is therefore held that the motion for nonsuit was properly overruled.

SPRUCE.

Our school is progressing finely, with Miss Pearl White as teacher. District Attorney Hart passed through our section Sunday, on his way to Tillamook, to attend the cases in the court now in session there. If he performs his duties as well there as when superintendent of Polk co. schools he is well deserving of praise.

Arbor day was observed at our school, Friday last, by planting of trees. A short programme was rendered by the patrons in attendance. Our people are busy carrying milk to Beaver cheese factory, making gardens and clearing land, &c.

Don't worry about spring. It will come if we wait long enough.

Mr. and Mrs. John Perry went to the hub Sunday on business. J. C. Gove is fixing his place up in great shape now-a-days with county lumber, which he has been gathering up from the bridges. He claims that the road supervisor told him he could take the lumber. But, Mr. Editor, what right has the road supervisor got to give county property away, or Mr. Gove to haul lumber off the county road? [This is hardly a fair question to ask us, for in the judgment of the road supervisor the lumber was useless and unfit for use on the public road, he was exercising good discretion in getting someone to haul it away without the county having to pay for doing so. Perhaps the road supervisor or Mr. Gove can answer the questions satisfactory to our correspondent. -Ed.]

I was reading an article in the Headlight last week where one of our correspondents said that Peter Amacher was not afraid of a cow when he had the pitchfork handy. I can say one thing that the fellow who wrote that is not confining himself to the truth, for I have known Peter Amacher for several years and I know there is not a better man to his stock in Tillamook county than he is. [We believe our correspondent read the paragraph too seriously, for it does not say that Mr. Amacher was cruel to his stock but it pointed out the situation when a peculiar accident happened him. That is what we inferred from it, and is probably what our correspondent intended. -Ed.]

NEHALEM.

Miss Mary Schollmeyer closed a successful term of school, April 11th, in the Union Peak district. The school house was beautifully decorated and a good programme was rendered. Clare Gray and Alvin Scovell graduated in the 8th grade and were presented with diplomas. Miss Schollmeyer will open school on the South Fork Monday.

Bert Rittenhouse is visiting on Nehalem. Francis Cronen returned from Portland Thursday, and the whistle of the steamer Louise is heard again on the river.

D. H. Vedder has his new shingle mill in operation. Frank Wakley has been out to Portland to prove up on a timber claim, and returned home Tuesday.

H. Tohl, the merchant, returned home Thursday from Portland. Mr. Loerpabel and family arrived in Thursday and went on to their place formally owned by C. Pyc.

John Snyder went out Wednesday on his way to Alaska. Born to the wife of D. C. Perego, April 11th, a son.

Mrs. C. Pyc and son Harry went out Tuesday by way of Garibaldi to their home at Vancouver, Wash. Born, April 15th, to the wife of Andrew Klien, a son.

Rev. Putman is up from Bay City to hold special meetings at Union Peak school house. Nehalem Camp, W. of W., has let the contract for their new hall to D. C. Perego.

This reached us too late for publication last week. E. K. Scovell has the lumber on the ground for a new house.

C. L. Alley has rented B. A. Todd's place on the North fork. Willie Tohl returned home Saturday from Albany, where he has been attending college.

Nate Lesley has sold out and moved to town. Mr. Vosburg returned home Saturday from Portland, having gone out to attend the annual meeting of the Wheeler Lumber Company.

The Wheeler Lumber Co. has another cottage about completed. Wm. Durbey is doing the carpenter work. The Federal Union gave a social and dance Saturday evening. Mr. York is fitting up a place in the old Dr. Linton building for a restaurant and bakery. J. E. Tuttle finished the telephone line up the North fork Friday to S. Scovell's place. D. S. Boyakin went to Tillamook Monday.

Prof. G. A. Walker has been laid up with a grip and did not teach school last week. Robert Brown is sick with the la grip. H. V. Alley and S. Scovell have purchased the telephone line of J. E. Tuttle from Tohl's up the North Nehalem.

BOULDER CREEK.

C. N. Johnson was in our neighborhood last Monday. Misses Lena and Lillibel Bays were on this side of the river Friday and returned home Sunday, accompanied by Miss Adeline Grey.

Virgil Getchell is working for C. A. Smith at present. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Smith and family were pleasant callers at H. A. Chopard's on Sunday.

John Borba came, very near losing a valuable cow last week. Master Virgil Donaldson visited his sister, Mrs. Grace Smith, several days recently.

School commenced Monday at Brown's, with Mrs. George Smith at the desk. Mr. Albert Getchell is shearing sheep for his son-in-law, H. A. Chopard.

Mr. Oliver Kinnaman was seen in this part of the country last week with a plow in his wagon. Mr. Alie Poland made a regular trip up to his father-in-law's last week "on the hurricane deck of a cayuse," and an unbroken one at that.

Miss Ida Nicklaus and Miss Beulah Lucas, visited Mrs. Chopard, Monday.

NEKOWIN.

Charlie Goeres took a load of cheese to Tillamook last Friday and returned Monday. He reports the roads being in a bad condition.

Miss Cora Heltenbrand visited with Mrs. Keller not long ago. Miss Ori Luper arrived in from Amity last Saturday and will spend the summer with Mrs. A. Commons.

Several of Mr. Craven's children are down with the mumps. Frank and Myrtle Foster were visitors at Mr. A. W. Fletcher's last week. John Whiteman and family have moved over from Salmon river.

Mr. Jones, our future mail carrier, was in our vicinity circulating a petition to have our mail start from Neskowin in the morning and arrive back in the evening. It will be a free delivery.

W. H. Christensen and A. Commons, with his two little boys, went trout fishing recently and got over 100 trout in Slab and Hawk creeks. On Monday, the 14th, the cheese factory received 2400 lbs. of milk and is making cheese every other day.

SAND LAKE.

Merrill Smith is spending a week with W. C. King, instructing in the cheese business. Mr. Waymire, of Woods, preached to a full house Sunday last.

Flounder fishing is the order nowdays. Hermon Farmer is spending a few days over on the Nestucca River. Lon Kinnaman is at work for W. C. King.

You have two tickets. Now vote as you please. [That may sound all right from a democratic stand-point, but republicans are not built nor do they vote that way, for they vote a straight republican ticket. -Ed.]

Norran Olsen is at work for T. J. Harris. You would have settled weather until the Brants fly. Bad time for the picnic last Sunday; there are better days coming.

Mrs. Phelps has been getting several calves of W. C. King. Emmit and Marjorie Webb are putting in a fine looking garden.

We can get lumber in our own settlement now. Farmers Kays & Johnson have their mill running, and the settlers appreciate it.

It is still raining. There will be a picnic at Ocean Park, May 1st. Mr. Evan Owens and family, of Mt. Minnville, are expected here by the 1st of May, to reside on their place on Sand lake. Mr. Owens is a son-in-law of Mr. T. J. Harris, and as he has rented his farm near McMinnville, he expects to make his home among us for a while.

Sandlake is the "most beautiful" place on the coast. We saw in the Ocean Wave "We gladly welcome the sunshine." Well, we would gladly welcome the sunshine, but we have failed to see any yet.

Mr. Wallie Harris has been doing some fine ditching for his father. Norman Olsen and Wallie Harris expect to start to Washington some time before the 1st of May. They expected to have gone before this but were delayed.

Mr. W. C. King is trying Mr. Merrill Smith's talent in "cheese making and milking cows" this week. That is right, Mr. King, as long as you are rather expecting "Merrill" in the family give him a fair trial.

Americans Did Practice "Water Cure" on the Filipinos.

WASHINGTON, April 14.—The Senate committee on the Philippines began the week with the intention of conducting an investigation of the charges the fact that the "water cure," so-called, is practiced on the insurgents, and Charles S. Riley, of Northampton, Mass., formerly a Sergeant in Company M, Twenty-sixth Volunteer Infantry, was the first witness called to testify at the hearing.

Mr. Riley said that he had been in the Philippines from October 25, 1899, to March 4, 1901. In reply to questions Senator Rawlins, he said he had witnessed the "water cure" at Igarbis, in the Province of Ilo Ilo, on November 27, 1900. It was administered to the President, or chief Filipino official of the town. He said that upon the arrival of his command at Igarbis the President was asked whether runners had been out notifying the insurgents of their presence, and that upon his refusal to give the information he was taken to the convent, where the witness was stationed, and the "water cure" was administered to him. This official was, he said, a man about 40 years of age. When he (the witness) first saw him he was standing in the corridor of the convent, stripped to the waist and his hands tied behind him, with Captain Glenn and Lieutenant Conger, of the Regular Army, and Dr. Lyons, a contract surgeon, standing near, with many soldiers stood about. The man, he said, was then thrown under a water tank which held about 100 gallons of water, and his mouth placed directly under the faucet and held open so as to compel him to swallow the water which was allowed to escape from the tank. He was not, however, permitted to escape, and upon refusing to give further information, he was again taken as he was about to mount his horse, and the "cure" administered for the second time.

This time the man was not stripped nor was he taken into the building. Dr. Lyons said the water could be brought to the spot and given there, and when it was brought in a five gallon can, one end of a syringe was placed in it and the other in the man's mouth. As he still refused a second syringe was brought, and one end of it placed in the prostrate man's nose. He still refused, and a handful of salt was thrown into the water. This had the desired effect, and the President agreed to answer all questions.

The issues are fairly joined between the Lieutenant-General and the Secretary of War. The troubles which began long ago under the Cleveland Administration have finally reached so critical a stage that a compulsory retirement of General Miles at an early date is an open secret, and is not denied at the White House.

The Inter Ocean's Milwaukee special says that the Federal authorities intend to demand over $2,000,000 inheritance tax on the will of the late Daniel Wells, Jr. The estimate is estimated to be worth $15,000,000. A number of bequests to charitable institutions, were made by Mr. Wells in his will. Barring these, the entire tax, if collected according to the provision of the law quoted by the Inter Ocean's correspondent, would be about $2,100,000, one of the largest ever imposed by the Government.

German's efforts to extend and open up colonies are not very successful from a financial point of view, says a London dispatch to the Tribune. The total annual revenue of the eight protectorates which are under the rule of the Kaiser is only $2,000,000 and the Reichstag has to vote $7,500,000 to support them. Kiao Chou's revenue is $90,000, and a subsidy of $3,000,000 is required to make both ends meet. Again the revenue of the protectorate of Southwest Africa amounts to $450,000 while the total sum required for its government is $2,000,000. But even these yearly subsidies do not always represent the full amounts that have to be provided out of the imperial funds. The estimates for the present year include the sum of $800,000 to cover deficits that occurred in 1898 and 1899 in the budgets of the protectorates of East Africa, the Cameroons and Southwest Africa.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven, contrary to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by J. C. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 5 to 20 drops to the system. They suffer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

Don't wait for a Toothache

Before consulting a dentist, and then you should be sure you are consulting a good one. People are often attracted by some dentists because their prices are cheap. Of course a dentist can charge less by spending only a few moments in operation that another dentist who would spend more time and thoroughly clean out all decay in cavities, and charge a little larger fee for his work. This kind of work will last, while the former kind will give out in a short time and will have to be done over again, and consequently will be much more expensive in the long run. Poor dentist work is dear at any price, and it pays to have the best service from the start. Our aim is to give the best possible service at a reasonable price, and by using painless methods reduce pain to a minimum.

Will be at my Tillamook office until the 25th, when I will visit Nehalem.

DR. T. P. WISE, Dentist.

Major Lyttleton W. T. Waller, of the Marine Corps, tried by a court-martial on the charge of killing natives of Samar without trial, has been acquitted.

"The president, after most carefully investigation and hearing as many men as possible, and hearing from others, has come to the conclusion that Governor Dole's course has been such as to warrant his continuance as Governor of Hawaii, and entitles him to the respect and hearty support of the administration."

A battle at Juarez, Mexico, between a Numidian lion and a wild Samalaya bull was witnessed by thousands of people. One-fourth of the spectators were American women. The battle continued fiercely for an hour. The lion was not fatally injured, but the lion was gored fully 25 times, and will doubtless die. His leg was broken, and he was completely quiescent in strength and spirit. When the lion was incapacitated the Mexican authorities ordered the battle stopped.

STOPS PAIN

Athens, Tenn., Jan. 27, 1901. Ever since the first appearance of my meninges they were very irregular and I suffered with great pain in my hips, back, stomach and legs, with terrible bearing down pains in the abdomen. During the past month I have been taking Wine of Cardui and Theodore's Black-Drainage, and I passed the monthly period without pain for the first time in years. NANNIE DAVIS.

What is life worth to a woman suffering like Nannie Davis suffered? Yet there are women in thousands of homes to-day who are bearing those terrible menstrual pains in silence. If you are one of these who want to say that this same will bring you permanent relief. Consult yourself with the knowledge that 1,000,000 women have been completely cured by Wine of Cardui. These women suffered from leucorrhoea, irregular menses, headache, backache, and bearing down pains. Wine of Cardui will stop all these aches and pains for you. Purchase a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui to-day and take it in the privacy of your home.
