D. T. EDMUNDS.
Mr. B. L. Eddy and a number of other republicans left here this morning for Nehalem to paint the twin towers on that river red. Mr. Eddy speaks there this evening and will arouse the denizens of Bay City on Saturday evening with a talk, and at his meetings he does not forget to roast the Filipino junta in this city, the members of which are suffering with the Filipino itch.
Mr. W. E. Page has filed a divorce suit against his wife, Mrs. Melissa Page, in the circuit court. These parties were married at Owatonna, in the state of Minnesota, on April 29th, 1866. The ground upon which the divorce is sought is that Mrs. Page, disavowing the bonds of matrimony, wilfully and without cause, deserted and abandoned plaintiff and has continued to do so. There are no minor children of the marriage.
Married, on Sunday evening, in this city, at the residence of Mr. R. M. Watson, in the presence of intimate friends, Mr. Arthur G. Reynolds and Miss Daisy

V. Smith. Rev. G. Sykes, of the M.E. church, officiated. The groom is so well and favorably known in this county that he needs no introduction at our hands, while the bride is an estimable young lady and much respected. We add our congratulations to that of their friends in wishing them happiness.
The coming of the Meneley Quartette, of Chicago, will probably give the people of Tillamook county an opportunity of hearing as talented entertainers as can be found in the United States. They expect to be at Tillamook City on the evening of the 27th inst.; at Beaver, May 28th; Bay City, 29th; and at Nehalem, 30th. The Dalles (Oregon) Daily Chronicle says of them: "It beats all the circuses and minstrels and comedies we have ever witnessed. It was more than an entertainment, it was a sermon, and a sermon that will long be remembered. Tickets can be had for the entertainment at Tillamook City at the restaurant of Miss Lottie Freeman, at the store of Isaacs & Bromley, the store of Edmunds & Co., and of Mrs. Carey in the east part of town. Reserved seat tickets will be for sale at the office of T. H. Goyne."
The registration, which will close today, will be about the same as two years ago. Up to yesterday afternoon the registration for the different precincts showed the following figures:

Resolutions of Condolence.
Hall Star Lodge, No. 66, A.O.U.W., Tillamook, May 12th, 1902.
Whereas, The Great Master Workman of the Universe has in his infinite wisdom and mercy seen fit to remove from our lodge room here below to the celestial lodge above, our beloved Brother and Workman, Fred L. Stallcop;
Whereas his presence is greatly missed by all true Workmen, and a once happy home has become desolate; a happy bride has become a sorrowing widow;
Resolved, that we extend our sincere and heartfelt sympathy to the widow and friends in this their sad affliction; and that a copy of these resolutions be given to the widow; also to the local papers for publication; and that a copy of said resolutions be spread on the minutes of our lodge.
Committee, F. H. Davis, C. N. Drew and C. A. Johnson.

Snap-Shot Remarks.
The fidelity of some people's republicanism amounts to bolting.

The democratic wire pullers who have the Filipino itch should be quarantined in the Filipino junta.

Our democrat friends are feeling just as jubilant at this time as they were two years ago with the same frost in sight to suddenly cool off their aspirations.

There's just a few disgruntled republicans left who are still troubled with the bonny-clabber, and having contracted the Filipino itch, they are sorry looking individuals hobnobbing with democrats.

The unfettered John is offering the glad hand to the very party he bolted from and fought four years ago, but in going over the county somehow he can't work up the enthusiasm and make the democrats kiss him like the ladies did Hobson. Kiss the babies, John, instead.

There is one peculiar trait with a number of men in Tillamook. Being of a vindictive temperament, if they have a disagreement with a person the first thing they want to do is to do them up in business. And about election time the vindictive spirit appears to be intensified.

The campaign liars, those who are troubled with the Filipino itch, are trying to make Tillamook City's law-abiding and respectable citizens the worst element in the community, while the hummers, grafters and gamblers are the saints. What a transformation that little click has brought about for the general public's information. But they have not turned the institutions of vice and shame into places of virtue and sobriety yet.

Prof. G. A. Walker's article on the proposed county high school, which appears on another page, should be read by those who are seeking light on the subject so that they may be able to vote intelligently. We hope the professor's argument will be instrumental in breaking down some of the prejudices which exist by those who intend voting against a county high school. Those who have an interest in Tillamook should look at the question fairly and impartially, not losing sight of the fact that a county high school would be a great acquisition to the county.

It will be noticed that the county court refused to entertain the petitions for bridges across the Nehalem and Nestucca rivers. The Headlight contends that these bridges are just as much needed, and perhaps more so, than the bridges to be built across the Wilson and Trask rivers, and it is not right that other parts of the county should be discriminated against. The Nestucca and the Nehalem should be bridged, for the people in those sections are not only entitled to recognition and consideration, but are justly entitled to have those rivers bridged as other parts of the county have been well cared for. We hope this matter will be taken up by the new county court.

We are informed that at one of the republican meetings in the south part of the county last week Judge Sappington undertook to roast the editor with the same kind of trash which is appearing in the Ocean Wave. Thanks, judge, you will find your record as county judge in the back numbers of the Headlight, and as some of your audience last week were well aware, the half is not yet told. So much for that. Now a word to republican leaders. If you want to loose votes and make the taxpayers disgusted, allow Sappington to roast the Headlight at republican meeting, for anything that savors of graft the taxpayers will not tolerate. We doubt very much whether Sappington is supporting the republican ticket, and that he wants the odium of his administration to rest upon the republican party, is gradually cropping out, and not upon the democrats with whom he has been hobnobbing with of late.

Laughter.
[TO THE EDITOR TILLAMOOK HEADLIGHT.]
Conclusive expression of mirth.
There are a great many varieties of laughter from the tiny infant that is made to laugh by its mother's gesticulations, to the roaring outburst of applause. Laughter is either original or imitative, that is, we have a laugh of our own, or else we have learned to laugh like some one else.
Most people have a laugh peculiar to themselves. It is said, Washington never showed his teeth. Colored people down south used to me to enjoy laughing very much. Did you ever look in the looking-glass and see how you appear? Do you think that your laugh could be improved? Remember that a hearty expression is most agreeable.
Then there is the idiot's laugh. I once noticed a man sawing wood, as soon as he would get a cut off, he would burst out with laughter until his sides would shake, then cut another stick and repeat laughing alternately. I don't remember of ever seeing a laughing maniac. Next there is the scorners laugh. Then the smile of approval and the discouraging laugh, in fact, laughing is almost a language by itself. The mistaken laugh. A gentleman went to a political meeting, cheered and laughed intensely afterwards discovered it was a democratic speaking, when he was very much chagrined himself, being a professed republican. The loudest laugh of all is he who laughs last.
