Tillamook people, when they pray most fervently, is when they want rain, and there is not a dairyman in the county but what would go down on his marrow bones today and offer up a prayer of thanksgiving if they could feel the moisture of the gentle pattering of the rain. Evidently Tillamookers are never tired of a good thing, for they had 150 inches of rain last year.
The steamer Geo. R. Vosburg left on Saturday morning with Captain Dodge in command. She had a number of passengers, including William Scott, Lara Royse, Mrs. J. A. Fabrique, Florence Fabrique Nora Vaughn, Mrs. Woodward, Mrs. P. D. Newell and son, Mrs. Ruby Newman and daughter, Mrs. Lula Day and child, Maggie Tone, C. A. Smith and Robert Watt and wife and family.
The boys in the neighborhood of Elmore's ranch on Sunday were doing considerable rubbering at a party that was having an hallelujah, way-up time down there. But didn't the boys snicker when the party put to sea in a boat without oars. Is that how they go to sea in the small boats at Astoria, Sam, for Tillamookers are wonderful people to catch on?
The steamer Sue H. Elmore came in from Astoria on Friday. Mr. S. Elmore was on board with a number of friends, including Mrs. McCracken, Mr. Jas. McCracken, Mr. and Mrs. Kempf and Miss Tongue. S. Stephens, Mrs. B. J. Stephens, W. A. Cook, C. J. Ingerman, W. L. Smith.
Dr. Lawless, the optician, in a short time will make a business trip to Eastern Oregon, and will not return until next spring, and in order to reduce his large stock of optical goods, he will put up spectacles at actual cost price until he starts. Now is the opportunity of your life time to get rid of your headaches and nervousness, and to have your children's eyes fixed up for their winters hard study at school.—Office at residence one block west of the Allen House.
In Lane county, where the settlers are having trouble with people jumping their homesteads and timber claims, the settlers called a meeting to take measures to protect themselves, and so indignant were the settlers they appointed a vigilance committee. We hope by the time the committee gets through with its secret work, which it should do in true Western style, it will have cured homestead jumpers of contesting the settlers' homesteads.
Mr. Albert Kunze and his father-in-law, Mr. Chas. Gleditsch, of McKeesport,

Pa., left Sunday on the steamer Sue H. Elmore on their return to the Keystone state after spending two weeks' visit with the Kunze Bros., of Fairview, and while here met many friends, and would have met more had time permitted. They went away highly elated with their visit to Tillamook and kind treatment they received while visiting the jumping off place of the grand and wooly West.

Drawing.

The drawing for $10 worth of bicycle sundries at Ralph Ackley's will come off Sept. 15, and everyone who has purchased a bicycle of me since January 1, 1902, are entitled to one chance, and if there are any one who has not a ticket kindly let me know by Monday next. We have sold 70 bicycles to date.
