TO AID THE FAIR.

Worthy Western Woodmen Willingly Working.

The Woodmen of the World of Oregon have arranged for a series of demonstrations throughout the entire state this winter. This order has always been active in taking up any matter which it has been felt a fraternal society could do.

When the war broke out the Woodmen of the World immediately declared that all the members who enlisted should be kept in good standing with out any cost on the part of those entering the army.

This action was remarkable in view of the fact that many insurance companies have a clause in their policies making same void in case of death while in naval or military service. The patriotic action on the part of the Woodmen of the World was followed by a great many of the fraternal orders of the country.

When the idea was advocated that it would be right and proper and in harmony with the spirit of Oregon to erect a monument to the memory of the Oregon Volunteers, the Woodmen of the World immediately came to the front and by reason of their series of demonstrations three years ago, gave the movement such an impetus that its ultimate success was immediately assured and contributions for the proposition poured in from firms, corporations, individuals and societies throughout the State.

The action of the Woodmen of the World with reference to the Galveston horror was another example of the order's public spiritedness. In addition to many thousands of dollars in death losses paid by them many more thousands of dollars were voluntarily contributed to living sufferers and Head Consul F. A. Falkenberg went personally to Galveston to distribute same, staying many days and nights amidst the wreckage, debris and horrors of the place distributing the generous offerings of the membership. The order in the State of Oregon is always wide awake to any public movement. No sooner had the Lewis and Clark fair been broached than the Woodmen of the World prepared to assist it. The unanimity of sentiment in favor of the project which they are showing is remarkable. Realizing that if we are to enthuse the entire nation we must first become enthused ourselves, the Oregon Woodmen of the World have chosen a splendid method of making the people think and to think deeply with reference to the 1905 fair at the same time prosecuting their work of building up their society.

They have chosen a unique badge on which is a stump (official emblem of the order) on the face of which appear the letters "W.O.W." These letters are the initials of the Woodmen of the World, but the Oregon membership have given it a new title and call it "Wide-awake Oregon Woodmen." There are four exposed roots on the stump. On the end of each, which appear sawed or cut off, are one of the numerals thus completing the four figures 1-9-0-5. In Oregon this winter the Woodmen of the World will carry on an aggressive campaign securing new members, and their cry in a hundred hundred and five candidates in the state of Oregon, during the winter 1902-3. This was done in order to more fully fix in the minds of their membership and the public generally the 1905 fair. It is also the number of candidates the order would naturally initiate during the winter anyway. The camps in the city of Portland have pledged to secure 905 candidates allowing the entire remainder of the state to furnish the balance, an even 1000. Following the usual social spirit of this order, district and county initiation will be held throughout the entire state.

Several Camps, which are contiguous to each other, will in each case, hold one grand joint initiation.

General and local committees to carry on this work are being organized throughout the entire state and the enthusiasm which is being manifested by the "choppers" is a surprise to even those who are conversant with the activity which always characterizes this order in all its movements.

The Oregon Woodmen will close their series of demonstration with great banquets and other social events and it is safe to conclude that both the World's Fair and the order itself will receive splendid assistance as a result of this activity on the part of the Woodmen of the World.

Killed by Ladrone.

MANILA, Nov. 3.—D. C. Montgomery, Superintendent of Schools in Oriental Negros, was murdered Friday by La. drones three miles from Bacolod. Mr. Montgomery was going to Bacolod for a consultation with the retiring Superintendent and to assume control of the division. He had a large sum of money with him. Six natives, armed with bolos and spears, attacked the Superintendent, quickly killed him and then mutilated and robbed him. The constabulary have offered a reward for Mr. Montgomery's murderers, and it is thought they will be captured. Robbery is understood to have been the motive for the crime.

This is the first instance of a teacher in the Philippine Islands being harmed while in discharge of his duty. Mr. Montgomery leaves a widow, who is a teacher in the Island of Negros.

Politics a Big Farce.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—Politics was discussed in many pulpits in this city, and lessons were drawn from the conflict now being waged. Rev. Robert Paddock, in an address before the West Side Young Men's Christian Association, said:

"It is strange that ministers do not talk politics. It is a pathetic condition of society and Christianity if preachers fail to take their part in the discussion of political subjects. Parishioners should demand that their ministers interest themselves in politics. A man cannot be a good Christian if he does not exercise all the privileges and duties of good citizenship."

"Hundreds and thousands are selling their votes every day. What does it mean? It means that those men realize no responsibility to the state, certainly not to God, and none to themselves. What a farce it is now for Christian men to go to the polls and imagine we have a choice. We may gain our rights by attending and demanding those rights at the primaries."
