territory, and it was only the determined play of Nodine and Myers which saved their team from defeat, for the Pippins in the last part of the game had the best of the game. Edmunds, Crenshaw and Smith were a power of strength for the Pippins. When time was called neither side had scored.

The remains of Mrs. Howard Cary were brought from Astoria to Tillamook on the lumber schooner Redondo last Saturday, and were brought to this city from Hobsonville about noon and taken to her former home. Her husband and sons and Miss May Poland came in at the same time. The funeral service took place Sunday morning in the Presbyterian church, conducted by the pastor, Rev. S. S. White, when a large and sympathizing congregation filled the church. Although not acquainted with the deceased, the rev. gentleman's funeral sermon was very appropriate, the large number of sympathizing friends present convincing him that the deceased was beloved and possessed many virtues, and then consoled the sorrowing husband and relatives. After the service the remains were taken to Beaver for burial. Mrs. Cora E. Cary was born in Fayette County, Iowa, on the 15th of July, 1873. She came to Oregon in 1878 and was married to Howard Cary on the 11th of December, 1894. Two boys were born. She died at Pendleton, Or., on Nov. 12, 1902.

grow commercially. In fact, Tillamook county is wanting its harbor improved and a railroad as well, for there will be nothing small about Tillamook when she obtains the means of transportation like other parts of Oregon.

A Cock-a-Doodle-do Epitaph.

The Elma Echo was hatched out. Poor thing! It waddled about. Then made a great attempt to crow, Alas, 'twas too much, it turn'd up its toe. Then followed at Elma a conflagration. And the cock-a-doodle do's cremation. [Elma Chronicle, Chase County (Kan.) Leader and the Tillamook Independent please copy.]
